

Charlotte Christian School Alumni Association FAQs

What is the CCS Alumni Association?

The Association is composed of former students of CCS who have received and earned a diploma from the school. It is free to join and membership happens automatically post-graduation for alumni.

What is the Association's mission and vision?

- The MISSION is to champion a mutually beneficial, Christ-like relationship between CCS and its alumni.
- The VISION is to promote the mission of CCS, impacting the culture for Christ through educational and social alumni reengagement.

Is there a place for alumni to all connect with each other?

To connect with alumni, make sure to join the CCS Connect Alumni Network. This program is free to alumni and allows you to connect with others in your cities, professions, and more. It also allows you to stay up-to-date with the latest alumni events at CCS (and specifically, within your graduating class).

What is the CCS Alumni Association Board?

The CCS Alumni Association Board is a group of alumni who oversee the actions and make decisions on behalf of the Alumni Association. They assist with various needs, including various types of communications; alumni events; service/community opportunities and involvement; and alumni engagement efforts for all the school's alumni. Terms of members run from July 1 through June 30 of the next year, and meetings are held, on average, four times per year.
