

EAGLE NEWS

Good afternoon, Eagle families -

I hope this week's Principal Message finds you all well and enjoying the sunshine.

We have a short but exciting week next week. It is Thanksgiving week! We have much to be thankful for and will share more next week.

The most exciting event is next Wednesday, November 22. We are inviting our families to our Thanksgiving Feast. The feast will go from 10:30-11:30 AM. Please RSVP and sign up to bring something on ParentSquare.

Although this is a Wednesday, and we do not have Pre-K on Wednesdays, we encourage all our Pre-K students and their parents to join in the fun and celebration.

There will be food, fun, and celebration. We will also have some fun handouts to take home over the break. These handouts will be a fun exercise for our students to improve their skills in literacy. It'll be a great hour to hang out and be thankful for our incredible AIE community!

Until then, I hope you all have a great weekend. Rest, get outside, and enjoy the sunny weather, and don't forget to read a little bit, too.

See you all next week, Eagles!
Have a great weekend.
