International Community School News

Hello ICS families!

Thanksgiving break is just around the corner. I hope that you and your families connect meaningfully over the four-day holiday weekend. There is much to be grateful for. Personally, I am so thankful for the welcoming and supportive parents, teachers and students at ICS. We are very fortunate to be at a school where individuals (students and adults) are known and newbies like myself are brought in with care and intentionality. I hope you have an opportunity as a family to reflect on what you are thankful for over the long weekend.

Have a wonderful Thanksgiving weekend with your families!

Jacob

Thanksgiving Pick-up Reminder

Please note the early release schedule below for Wednesday, November 22. The school day ends at 11:00am. Please make sure to pick up your children promptly at this time. Our faculty will be leaving shortly after student dismissal, as many are traveling long distances and/or prepping to host family and/or friends starting Wednesday afternoon.

Drop Off and Pick Up

We have had a couple of reports that cars leaving our parking lot and crossing NE 65th St without stopping at the stop sign at the exit of our school. A reminder that the traffic on NE 65th St. does not stop. The stop sign is there to reduce the chance of collision, but more importantly protect the safety of students and others walking on the sidewalk in front of school.
