highland high, thornton, colorado

if a man does not keep pace with his companion, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. let him step to the music he hears, however measured or far away.

henry david thoreau

we want to be
concerned,
informed,
aware,
but we find it hard
to be ourselves
to know ourselves...

with all its shame
drudgery &
broken dreams
it is still a beautiful world
be careful
strive to be happy!

what you've found yourself

it is only important
to regard the
and all beings with love,

to love the world
world and ourselves
admiration, and respect.

"nothing more certain than death and nothing more uncertain than the hour.
men live like birds together in a wood; when the time comes each takes his flight."

carl sanburg

in memory of
tommy gallegos
july 27, 1952
february 9, 1971

on a clear, summer's eve
as i walk beneath the stars,
and the moon dominates all the heavens,
i get sort of a, funny feeling, deep inside;
and somehow, i realize, that all is well.

when i stroll down a country lane,
and hear the meadow-lark sing his serenade,
he seems to fill the air with the love upon which the grass of the fields,
and the flowers of gardens,
all must feed.

as the trees blossom in all their beauty:
the cherry in its elegant pink, or,
the apple in its immaculate white;
they brighten up this earth of ours,
to show us that life is not so bad . . .

. . . the placid breeze whispers its song
it tells of the days that have long been gone,
of glory and decline,
of love and sorrow.

empires are built but soon decline,
for they lack the foundation, of love so fine.
through all the years, and year two fold;
nothing is so precious, as love, to hold.

The Symphonic Wind Ensemble and the Concert Band combined during the fall months to form the Highland Marching Band. The Marching Band performed for halftime of all home football games and one away game. They placed a close second in overall ratings among twenty-five bands at the CSU Band Day Marching competition, and performed in several parades. Drum major was Bill Esperza, and majorettes were LeeAnn Herndon, Emma Chase, Kathy Welsch, and Elaine Flint.

The Concert Band and Wind Ensemble presented three formal concerts, hosted the Denver Symphony for an assembly concert at Highland, and participated in the Skyline Honor Band. At the Colorado State Band contest of concert playing, the two Highland bands tied each other for the highest ratings among twenty-three Denver area bands and orchestras.

SPECIAL HONORS - John Philip Sousa Outstanding Band Award - Steve Hardy. Marine Corps Youth Foundation Outstanding Band Student - Steve Hass. All State Band Participants - Steve Hardy, Deborah Langthorn, Mike Romero, and Bill Esperza. Top of the Nation Honor Band - Lee Ann Herndon and Patty McCullah Western. The club was new this year, therefore there was a small turnout. Camping is one of the big activities of the Club and one way to learn more about ecology. The club also financed its transportation to the Industrial Arts Fair held in Fort Collins, in which Highland High placed third in the State in the "Woods" Division

The Girls Athletic Association had a most successful year. The fall was highlighted by the girls volleyball taking 1st Place in the Skyline League Invitational Volleyball Tournament and Michele Tridle placing 9th at Girls State Gymnastics meet. During the winter months the girls basketball teams posted a good season record. Spring sports were equally exciting with Kathy Dodds and Michele Rauch placing high enough in District competition to represent Highland in the Girls State Track meet. The girls tennis team also did a great job this year. Besides all the team activities listed above, the G.A.A. sponsored many intramural activities.

Varsity Football

The Varsity Football Team ran up a record of 4 wins and six losses. This is the best season Highland has had in varsity competition. The first four games of the season were won while the next six were lost. Injuries during the middle of the season was the main reason for the losses toward the end of the season.

Special recognition goes to Clark Carlson, All-Skyline Offensive Full Back and Defensive End. Clark received a full scholarship to BYU for football.
