Article XIII. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

13.1 Individual Problems

Disputes between the parties shall be first processed on an informal basis whereby the employee involved will first present the problem to the immediate supervisor. If the problem is still unresolved, the Building Representative may informally present the problem to the immediate supervisor or to the Principal. If the problem is not resolved informally and qualifies as a grievance by definition it may be formally grieved.

13.2 Grievance Definition

Any grievance, for the purpose of the Agreement, shall be defined as any dispute or difference of opinion between the Board and the Union or between the Board and any of its employees covered by this Agreement involving the meaning, interpretation or application of the provisions of this Agreement.

13.3 Grievance Procedure

For the purposes of this Agreement, days shall mean workdays in accordance with each specific office staff position.

A. Grievances shall be handled in the following manner:

Any employee who believes he/she has a grievance shall present it, in writing, to the immediate supervisor, with a copy to the Building Representative. Any such grievance shall be presented within fourteen (14) days after the occurrence of the event giving rise to the grievance or fourteen (14) days after the employee becomes aware of the grievance. A meeting shall then be set to occur within seven (7) days following the presentation of the grievance. Those present at such meeting shall be the aggrieved employee, the Building Representative, the immediate Supervisor and the building Principal, if appropriate. The immediate Supervisor's answer shall be given in writing to the aggrieved employee with a copy to the Building Representative within seven (7) days following said meeting.

B. If the grievance is not settled satisfactorily as provided above, the written appeal shall be submitted to the Director of Human Resources by the grievant within seven (7) days after its receipt of the answer in 13.3.A above. A meeting shall be held within ten (10) days, at which the immediate Supervisor, the Principal, if appropriate, the Director of Human Resources, the Council President, a professional union representative if desired by the Council President, and the aggrieved employee shall be present. An attempt shall be made normally to resolve the grievance at said meeting, but in any event the Director of Human Resources' answer shall be given to the grievant within five (5) days with a copy to the Union.

C. If the grievance is not settled satisfactorily as provided above, the grievant may appeal, in writing, to the Superintendent, within seven (7) days following the Director of Human Resources' answer. A meeting shall be held within seven (7) days in which the immediate supervisor, the Principal, the Superintendent, the Council President, a professional union representative if desired by the Council President, and the aggrieved employee shall be present. An attempt shall be made normally to resolve the grievance at said meeting, but in any event, the Superintendent's answer shall be given to the grievant within seven (7) days following the next succeeding regular meeting of the Board.

- D. If the grievance is not settled satisfactorily as provided above, grievant may appeal, in writing, to the Board within seven (7) days following the Superintendent's answer. The Board shall hear the matter no later than at its next regular Board meeting and shall render its decision not later than seven (7) days thereafter.
- E. If the matter is not settled satisfactorily as provided above, Union may appeal in writing to the Superintendent within seven (7) days following the Board's answer, requesting that an impartial arbitrator be produced to give his opinion as to the proper interpretation or application of the provision of the Agreement involved. The parties shall meet within ten (10) days thereafter to choose an impartial arbitrator for this purpose. The arbitrator's authority shall be specifically limited to an interpretation of a specific provision, or provisions of the Agreement as applied to the facts of the written grievance involved. The arbitrator shall have no right to amend, modify, nullify, ignore or add to the provisions of this Agreement. His decision shall be based solely upon the interpretation of the meaning or application of terms of this Agreement to the facts of the grievance presented. The arbitrator's decision shall be binding on the Board and the Union. The costs of such arbitration shall be borne equally by the Board and by the Union.

13.4 It is understood that, with the written agreement of both parties, the time limits specified in this Grievance Procedure may be extended or waived.

13.5 A grievance must be filed and appealed within the time limits set forth above or it shall be considered waived (if not filed in time) or settled on the basis of the last answer given (if not appealed in time). If the district fails to meet deadlines for a grievance hearing, or written response, the grievance shall be advanced to the next step of the Grievance Procedure.

13.6 The expense of the arbitration, including the arbitrator's fees and costs of the transcripts, if any, shall be shared equally by the parties. The expense of each party's presentation to the arbitrator shall be borne by the party involved.

13.7 Participation in a grievance procedure shall not be cause for reprisal against the employee.

13.8 Advance Grievance Step Filing

Certain issues which by nature are not capable of being settled at a preliminary step of the grievance procedure may, by mutual agreement, be filed at the appropriate advance step where the action giving rise to the grievance was initiated. Mutual agreement shall take place between the appropriate Union representative and the appropriate employer representative at the step where it is desired to initiate the grievance.
