

The Mifflinburg Area School District utilizes numerous kinds of assessments to make programmatic decisions for individual students as well as for larger group needs. The data gathered assist the district in drawing conclusions about the instructional programs offered. The goal is to continually adjust the delivery of curriculum to address improvements at all levels.