

Articulation Agreement between
Delaware Valley University and Mifflinburg Area School District

The goals of the articulation process are to:

- a. Provide students with a wide variety of academic coursework that prepares them for a baccalaureate degree.
- b. Recognize and reward students for university -level competencies achieved during high school, and
- c. Assist students in making a smooth transition from high school to post-secondary education.

University credits earned through this articulation agreement will offer students additional flexibility in course selection, and allow students to earn credits that can be applied to their degree requirements.

Mifflinburg Area School District students who successfully complete the Agriculture Productions program can receive college credit from Delaware Valley University for the following courses:

- AE 1120 (3 credits) Sustainability: Saving the Earth and Feeding the People. This course satisfies a requirement in the Agronomy, Environmental Science and Turf Management programs.
- HT 1101 (2 credits) – Exploring Horticulture, Science and the Environment. This course satisfies requirements in Commercial Crop Production, Marketing, Hydroponic Crop Science, Plant Science and Biotechnology.
- AS1000 (3 credits) – Survey of Animal Agriculture. This course satisfies requirements in Livestock Science and Management, Equine Science and Management and Science Specializations and Dairy Science.

Acceptance of the curriculum by Delaware Valley University for these credits is based on the following:

- Mifflinburg Area School District students must successfully complete the Agricultural classes identified above with a “B” average or higher (3.0 GPA on a 4- point scale), and submit an official transcript to the Delaware Valley University, listing the courses and grades received by the student.

The signatures below indicate agreement to the course equivalents and stipulations listed in this document between Mifflinburg Area School District and Delaware Valley University. The terms of this agreement will be reviewed periodically to reflect changes in the curriculum and course offerings.
