RESIDENCY HALL

The W. L. Gilbert Trust International Residency Program at The Gilbert School offers housing options of a new residency hall located on the schools 120-acre campus, homestay family living and dorm-style housing. The Gilbert Trust Residential Coordinators are friendly, caring individuals interested in supporting students in their education and sharing cultural backgrounds.

The residency hall is within walking distance to Main Street where students can find a variety of shopping, fine area restaurants, a movie theater and the local YMCA club for basketball, swimming and exercise/workout gyms.
