I started college on July 28, 2006, and graduated on September 7, 2007.

On September 2, 2006 I married Laura, the woman of my dreams. Since then, we have had our first child. Her name is Savana Grace. We have found out that we have a set of twins due on October 31. Man are we going to have our hands full. As of right now I am working at Da-Lite Screen Company putting together the movie screens you see at the Grammys, VMA, and any other events that use projection screens.
