I did not do my make up work
because
I am still sick, why do you think I missed school in the first place.

Why I did not read the chapter
last night
Because the book store I went to only had books in Spanish

I was late to class because
I got lost

I did not do my homework
because I left it in my friend's book when I was "checking"
his work.

I can't take the test today
because I did not know we had class today so I did not study last night.

Although teachers had to take their classes seriously, they occasionally made learning fun for everyone. (above) David Bayardo (03) enjoys English class with substitute teacher Mrs. Pesek. Substitute teachers did a great job of filling in the shoes of teachers in the event that they were absent.

FACULTY

The highly renowned faculty of Incarnate Word Academy (IWA) is always ready to extend a hand to all students. The faculty pays close attention to the ideas and concerns of the student body. Teachers contribute to IWA's reputation of having a wealth of knowledge by always providing an optimistic attitude and having superior teaching qualities. The faculty is the key element why students are successful after they graduate from IWA. Singing reverently at mass and possessing a professional demeanor are superb examples that they set for students. Although they may issue plenty of homework, deadlines, and test dates in a short period of time, IWA students know that they are merely preparing them for the long road beyond high school.

The Juniors dealt with many challenges and responsibilities while at the same time enjoying the thought of being almost, but not yet, in the spotlight. The PSAT, the class ring decision, and the start of the college search brought stress, but with all this they did not lose sight of the awesome excitement of their eleventh grade year. They were known for their spirited representation at pep rallies, sports games, and their participation in numerous clubs. ## Can't Hardly Wait

One good thing about being sophomores is not being freshmen. Sophomores can't hardly wait to be upperclassmen so they can save themselves the walk of having their lockers upstairs. Sophomore year is a time when you get to know more people and have more fun. One of the best parts of being a sophomore is turning sixteen and getting your license. There is nothing more cool than cruising around with your buds. This sophomore class showed a great deal of spirit throughout the year. They were role models to the freshmen during the school year.

At IWA, everyone is required to take at least 3 years of science. Freshmen usually begin with Biology I. This particular class is always amusing when there is a lab experiment. (above) Christian Swanson (05) observes an animal cell specimen through a microscope.

THE FRESHMEN

There's no denying that freshmen year is one of the most exciting of the four years in high school. It's a year to adjust to an unfamiliar environment and to be treated as young adults rather than children. Freshmen develop a better taste of the real world through encounters with many new and unique individuals, perseverance in highly demanding classes, and participation in countless school activities. This year, the class of 2005 made it evident that they could not only pull through each of these obstacles, but shine through them. (left) Mark Fossum (05) and classmates pause before they begin their World Geography test. From sports to academics, Freshmen worked scrupulously to gain recognition from everyone, especially the seniors. Nevertheless, it was not merely a dull year filled with hassles of homework, being on time for club meetings, and games. Freshmen had plenty of time to chat with friends, and lunch time was a perfect opportunity to do this. All in all, the class of 2005's first high school experience was memorable.

Dazed and Confused!

These new freshmen are glad to be out of middle school, even if that means being the new "fish" on campus. Several ice breaking activities were planned for the freshmen class. Freshmen orientation, Friday social, and the freshmen retreat were some of the many events. They are enjoying the new freedoms of being in high school. They no longer have to wear middle school uniforms and now the lockers are out of the classroom. They look forward to the next three years at Incarnate Word Academy.

There are a multitude of clubs available at IWA for students to join. Clubs play an important role in the lives of many students. Clubs provide students with the opportunity to learn responsibility and extracurricular activities to keep them busy. Club members put together special events and fund raisers for good causes. Students put much of their own time in these events and perform service hours for the school and community.

Student Council

Student Council's purpose is to help others, volunteer time, and sponsor drives for the less fortunate. Members of Student Council are always focused by attending weekly meetings. Student Council members organized many special events like National Catholic Schools Week and Favorites 2002.

The Octagon Club is a member of the Six Points Optimist Club which devotes time to service throughout the community. Each member is required to perform a certain amount of service hours each nine weeks. Some of the many activities that the Octagon club participates include Bayfest, the Texas-Adopt-A Beach Cleanup, the H.E.B Christmas Eve Dinner, the Headstart Program, and the Special Olymics.

Up Close and Personal

Deadlines, deadlines, deadlines! The journalism class constantly heard this word repeated by adviser, Ms. Rosalynn Juarez, throughout the year. Bombarded by the many articles needed to be written, pictures to be taken, and layouts to be completed, the staff thought this endless task would remain unaccomplished. This yearbook, as well as the newspapers published, are proof that this assumption was wrong.

Mr. Holland's Opus

This year the band worked hard and showed their improvement at the concerts and at Open House. They showed their love and dedication to play. Mr. Jesse Pena, the new band director, led both the middle school and high school band at the Parent's Night. Also, the IWA Band participated in the Tapps Academic Competition. They showed determination throughout the year while performing at school functions.

(above) Mrs. Fowler jokes around with the members of the choir during one of their daily practices. (below) Choir members keep their cool before their concert.

Sound of Music

Mrs. Kathleen Fowler has done a great job in the past and she is doing the same this year. Several students practice for district pieces and their hard work paid off! The entire choir received a Division One, the best they are able to receive. The whole choir will be going to state and several students had solos and ensembles too! They work hard all year and have great rewards for it. They held their annual citrus sale to raise money for their trip to Fiesta Texas when they go to State. They will also be singing at Fiesta Texas.

Good luck to our singing Angels!

Center Stage

A couple years ago, the Thespian Society appeared lifeless with scarcely a handful of members. Currently, it has drawn the attention of more students who devote their time after school to memorizing lines, building props, painting backdrops, and endless rehearsals. This year, Thespians performed theatrical productions including Yearbook and A Greek Tragedy. Additionally they competed in the TAAPS academic competitions. Then in the spring they were involved with the first ever Fine Arts Festival. Additionally, the Thespian Society was once again invited to partake in the Incarnate Word Academy Annual Alumni Gala: A Night in Japan where they acted as Japanese dancers in Asian-inspired costumes and makeup.

Science Club

Science Club members meet every other week. The students study new problems and perform scientific experiments to find conclusions. Science Club members also conduct projects that involve the earth. This year the Science Club went on a field trip to the National Bridge Taverns, where they saw beautiful landscapes and underground caves.

Ocean Bowl

Ocean Bowl is a group of students that are divided into three separate teams. These dedicated students attend practices every Sunday in preparation for the National Ocean Sciences Bowl. Students compete by using their knowledge in oceans and geography. The sponsor of Ocean Bowl is Mrs. Colleen Duzich.

Team A: Brandon Bridger, Andrew Daehne, Brandon Hoy, Sally Oelschlegel, Jessica Smith
Team B: T.J. Hunter, Kaiser Imam, Sabrina Kaiser, Monica Mariani, Noah Seger

Music of the Heart

Tri-M consists of both band and choir members. The Tri-M is a well-organized music society, but also spans out into other activities such as community concerts. A number of students were inducted this year and many were successful at the TAPPS competition.

The Tri-M officers include:
Sponsor: Mrs. Kathleen Fowler
President: John LaRue
Vice-President: Dorothy Peña
Secretary: Nick Kollaja
Historian: John Tyson

Career Opportunities

The Incarnate Word Nike Career Club informs students about a variety of careers. This club allows students to explore all their options in choosing a future career. Also, the Nike Career Club provides the information on the educational background required to achieve these careers. Guest speakers are invited to speak about their respective career, answer questions from the students, as well as inform the students on how they can also choose this career.

The Nike officers include:
Sponsor: Ms. Mary Esther Espinosa
President: John LaRue
Vice-President: Lori Leal
Treasurer: Jessica Smith
Secretary: Emily Turner

NHS

The National Honor Society was founded in 1921. The goal was to create an organization in which outstanding students would be recognized on a basis of their excellence in academics, character, service, and leadership. The NHS also publishes "Expressions," the Literary magazine, which allows students to show off their creative talent.

All the athletes this year have tried their hardest and pushed each other to do their best. (above) Cheerleaders, Monica Pammit (02) and Erica Hernandez (02), are being held up by their teammates. The students at IWA are not just athletes. They are student athletes and they try their hardest, on and off the field. That is what makes them winners in the minds of all that see them. The only thing that exceeds the success on the field is the success in the classroom. They juggle their time between practices and their homework throughout the year. # Meet The Parents

Family and friends are a big part of student life. Everyone is united and a part of each others extended family. In the morning everyone wakes up and leaves his or her family and comes to school to spend the day with the school family. Throughout the day many parents stop by to take care of business in the office. This gives the teachers and students a chance to "Meet the Parents."

Bea,
Ten Things To Keep In Mind (to make your life a little better)

Trust Your Instincts
 If it doesn't feel right, it probably isn't...fun, tempting... maybe, but not right!

Remember Your Manners
 It doesn't cost you anything, but it speaks volumes about who you are.
 Having class starts with this.

Never Let Possessions "Own" You
 It's just stuff!
 The most valuable things in life - friends, respect, love, knowledge - don't cost money...
 Hokey, but true.

Nurture Your Friendships
 The investment you make in true friends will pay huge dividends all your life-remember, you can't make an old friend.

Keep Your Hands Clean
 This is meant both literally and figuratively...it will save you a lot of regrets later...

Believe In Yourself
 Yeah, this is another hokey one but you do happen to be the only you in existence, and you're not the only person in the world who can truly hold you back in life...
 Think about it.

Be Grateful
 Don't waste all your todays in anticipation of some grand tomorrow.
 Now is all we've got.
 Live in it!

Treat Others The Way You Want To Be Treated
 The point is, just because you're smarter or richer or prettier than someone else doesn't mean you're better.
 It just means you're been more blessed.

Always Keep Playing
 Who says adults have to give up toys? Keep the little kid inside you alive... it keeps your imagination primed. Silly is good.

No Matter What, You Will Always Be Loved
 You don't have to test this one... Just carry it around in your back pocket, and know that no matter what, you can always come home.

If you can only remember one-Remember you are loved.

*Congratulations!
 Papa, Mama, and Laura*

Meghan,
 We love you and are very proud of you.
 Love,
 Dad, Mom, and, Joseph

Congratulations Mari!
 I have enjoyed watching my little sister mature into a young adult. I'm very proud of you. I wish nothing but happiness for you in the future.

*Love,
 Estella Campos*

*Congratulations
 Jennifer Ayala!*
 I am very proud of you and I am glad to be your little sister.
 I hope that all your wishes come true
 for you.

*Love,
 Lydia Ayala*

*To a young man with a bright future.
 With Love,
 Grandma, Aunt
 Maggie and Aunt Terry*

Congratulations to my baby sister!
 I am very proud of you. I wish you the best of luck for the future. I love you.

*Love,
 Your big brother,
 Beto Hernandez*

Congratulations Lea!!!

Graduation is a time
For feeling very proud,
For thinking lots of lovely thoughts
And saying them out loud.

It's time for feeling love
About to overflow,
And just before it leaps its banks,
To let the loved one know.

And so we're very proud of you
For being who you are,
For making something of yourself,
For making it this far.

We're proud because we are a part
Of everything you do.
The time is to say how much
In love we are with you.

Congratulations Jennifer!
Good Luck in the Future
Love,
Mary Lou and Roy Riojas

Congratulations
Andy!!!

Pushed me in my goals in life
Asked if I was doing okay
Rescued me in times of need
Endless love you have given me
Never gave up on me
There to give me a hug Sharing my life with you has made me who I am today!
Thanks for you have done
for me.

Querido Hijo:

Always trust in you, listen to your heart. Trust your instincts, know you can, and that you have many talents and what it takes to overcome obstacles. See your own strengths, courage and character, dream it- dare it. Never be content with someone else's definition of you. Instead define yourself, by your own beliefs, your own truths, understanding of who you are and how you came to be. And never be content until you are happy with the unique person you are. Let me finish my dedication with your favorite song. "I see skies of blue, clouds of white, the bright blessed day and the dark sacred night and I think to myself, what a wonderful world..."

"Ti volgiamo tanto bene, assai."

"The city had no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gave it light, and its lamp was the Lamb." - Revelation 21:23

For many of us, the horrific images of the 9 / 11 attacks on the World Trade Center and the U.S. Pentagon still chill the spine. It affected not only New York and Washington D.C. citizens, but our nation, community, and school. We remember worried parents taking their children from school early. For safety precautions, seniors were not allowed to go off campus for lunch. A gruesome long-term effect from the World Trade Center attacks was a bitter 'War on Terrorism.' Additionally, the stock market plummeted, many people were laid off from their jobs, and security dramatically increased everywhere. Also, innocent Muslims were harassed at school, work, and even in their own mosques. But worst of all, our entire nation was plagued with despair. Americans proceeded through their daily lives with a lump in their throats and a sense of insecurity. Nevertheless, this tragedy united our nation again after it was torn between liberals and conservatives in the 2000 Presidential Election. In addition, it inspired people to pray again. Churches, mosques, and synagogues were filled with devout Christians, Muslims, and Jews. Yet we will never forget the innocent lives of over 5,000 Trade Center and Pentagon employees, airplane passengers, policemen, firefighters, and paramedics who were lost on that tragic day.
