

Fourth Grade Report Card – Parent Support SPANISH

Marking Period Expectations for Standards Based Report Card

Indicator	Standard	T1	T2	T3
Says words/phrases relating to shelter in Spanish	The novice-mid language learner understands and communicates at the word level and can independently identify and recognize memorized words and phrases that bring meaning to text.	na	Create a “dream home” on the computer using words for furniture and the inside and outside parts of the house.	Continues to successfully use words, phrases relating to shelter in Spanish.
Asks and responds to basic questions in Spanish	The novice-mid language learner understands and communicates at the word level and can independently identify and recognize memorized words and phrases that bring meaning to text.	Independently ask and respond to basic questions such as “what’s your name” and “where are you from?”	Independently ask and respond to basic questions such as “what’s your name” and “where are you from?”	Independently ask and respond to basic questions such as “what’s your name” and “where are you from?”
Verbalizes basic phrases related to simple conversation in Spanish	The novice-mid language learner understands and communicates at the word level and can independently identify and recognize memorized words and phrases that bring meaning to text.	Independently speak phrases such as “nice to meet you” and “this is my brother.”	Independently speak phrases such as “nice to meet you” and “this is my brother.”	Independently speak phrases such as “nice to meet you” and “this is my brother.”
Discusses topics using words/phrases related to family in Spanish	Personal identity is developed through experiences that occur within one’s family, one’s community and culture at large (Topics that assist	na	na	Create a family tree, labeling all family members using the Spanish words.

	in the development of this understanding should include, but are not limited to: self, friends, family, pets, physical/personality descriptions, school, likes/dislikes, and pastimes.)
--	--	--	--	--