

The Girl Who Went Missing

Hi, I'm Suzi And my best friend Allana went missing. Can you help me find her? Allana went missing about 4 days ago, Allana and her sister would bicker all the time day and night, but one day she ran away. After a big heated argument. After school I went over to her house to look for clues, but then I saw this big round box with a letter that had said " Suzy I am so sorry to leave you like this follow the steps you will see where I am..." So I had started looking for clues tearing apart her bedroom, then I found a clue. " where do I go the most often". It took me weeks to figure it out then suddenly it just hit me at the CANDY STORE. So I marched there and asked the lady for a clue and apparently she i just knew so she handed it to me. And said " I am where we used to go every weekend and not by choice". I'd thought about it night and day for the past 5 years but still no idea. Out of the blue on a sunday night in the middle of June my mother had the bright idea to tell me that we were going camping soon. I told her no but she insisted, so I packed my bag and headed off for a 4 hour drive. Next thing I know is where here at the campsite " Oh dear we used to bring u and Allana here every summer you guys used to hate coming here". Then it hit me I knew where she was, so I set off the cabin we used to think was very scary. Knocked three times " Knock, knock,knock". Hello, the old man said, "How can I help you?" Hi I said, is there any way that Allana is here maybe she wondered off here? Oh no she is not her why, then I hear yelling "HELP ME, HELP HELP". Suddenly Allana comes out running in a hurry and"LETS GO". I am in shock. She pulls me in her old ripped clothes and dirty face. I brought her to my cabin and my mother was shocked. " Oh dear, how are you? Where did you come from"? Allana said in a hurry " Come on we have to go, he will find us". "Find who," my mother said. We ignored her and started getting all of our stuff hopped and the car, with about only an hour of sleep. When we got her home, there was screaming, crying, so much crying. So we had called the popo and they took him away forever. That night I went home with my bestfriend back and her safe.

The girl who wondered

By nicole du

Me and my friends went out to get some food and brought it home. We all ate and played some board games we were having so much fun playing then we got thru all of the games and we all got so bored from all of this we decided to look at are phones to see what cool games we can play i found one called little box. What we had to do was get a normal box and put some glass, a clock and some sand and it would make a big scary monster named Fred .That would vanish and never come back. So we did it and we waited and nothing happened but biannca went to the bathroom and never came back.

I didn't know what to do but I went home and found something that looked like an angel but who looked familiar but I can't put a finger on it at all but all i do know is something wasn't right about this but i look away and there and that thing is gone. Next week i had a costume party at my house then we saw her she was acting different like of like a robot but she didn't know me i thought it was weird but i went up to her and she slapped me and ran away then we all never heard from her again and i got really sick and it never went away and that's why you never wonder about this game.

THE NOT SO HAPPY BIRTHDAY

BY: VICTORIA PI

As a kid I loved Chuck E. Cheese, but now I get close to one. At the time Chuck E. Cheese still has animatronic characters. They were creepy but everyone loved them. My mom and my best friends would take me and my best friend James to Chuck E. Cheese every day. Your parent's would give us each 100 tokens, but I was always most excited for the show. It was always so fun, until that night....

The day of Friday the 13th, on my birthday, James ran up to me and said "we should spend the night here." I thought it was a dumb idea at first but I wanted to know what it was like here at night. So I ran home and told my mom that I was having a sleepover at his house. At 5:30 we met over at the Chuck E. cheese, we headed inside and bought our tokens. We played games until 8pm then we hid in the ball pit. By 9 everyone was gone except the security guard, so we stayed in the ball pit for 3 more hours until the guard left, then we powered on the building. I was playing pong, when I felt like something or someone was watching me. So I took a break from games and headed up to the stage, but something seemed wrong. That's when James ran up to me to let me know that he was running to the bathroom. I simply said "OK", and kept looking at Chuck E. After 20 esh minutes James still wasn't back. After 5 minutes I went over to the bathrooms to look for him, but he wasn't there, so I walked around the place. I went to the ball pit because there was a weird smell. I looked in and there was blood everywhere and James' dead body was in there. He was missing all 4 of his limbs and then I heard "C...COME PLAY W... WITH ME ELIZABETH " I looked over and the chuck E animatronic was standing there waving, but it wasn't his hand. It was James's. I screamed at the terrier. I started to sprint to the door , his loud footsteps followed me slowly. I got to the door and tried to open it but the door was locked. I unplugged the close game and tried to use the plug but it didn't work. I looked behind me and saw Chuck E pick up a crowbar. Before I knew it he was right behind me. He swung the crowbar, but he missed. He hit the glass door and it shattered. The alarm went off as I ran out. He threw the crowbar, pierced my stomach. I fell to the ground but the police got there just in time. When I woke up I was in the hospital. A couple weeks later the chuck E. cheese was shut down. From there on out i new that nothing will be the same.

C...C...COME PLAY WITH M...ME
Think before you do...

Scary Story

It all starts with this man that was driving at 10:00PM. It was too dark and he could not see the mud ditch in the road. He got stuck then realized that there was a farmers house nearby. He got out of his car and started walking to the farmers house. It was dark and cold. He saw a pair of yellow eyes stare at him as he walked. Then he started to run. He finally made it to the farmers house. The farmer woke up to banging on his door. He checked who it was. The guy asked for a place to sleep at his house.

The farmer said "yes you can, sleep in the barn but, whatever you do don't open the double doors in the barn". So when the guy entered the double doors were double, triple, quadruple, locked with a "Beware" sign on it. He got on the extra bed: he knew that curiosity got the best of him and still didn't warn the farmer. He peeked through the door. A big brown finger poked out. Then the chains bursted and he sprinted as fast as ever before. He finally made it to his car sitting on the side of it. Then he started to think that it was the end because he couldn't follow a single rule. He sees the beast and gets very scared. The beast reached out his hand and said "TAG your it!" in a very high voice.

The Halloween Terror

It was halloween and Anna, Kathy, and Emerin were going out trick or treating. It was Halloween day and nothing was out of the ordinary. Anna was dressed up as Winifred, Kathy was dressed up as Mary, and Emerin was dressed up as Sarah. Emerin obviously got the amazing vacuum and people always giggled quietly when they saw him. They left their house at about 7pm and they started going to houses that were close to them.

One of the houses had a lady dressed up as a black cat, but they thought nothing of it because black cats always mean bad luck. They decided to do a dare where they had to go into the graveyard at 12 tonight and stay there until morning. All 3 decided to accept the dare and ran from house to house getting as much candy as they could. The last house on the street was one of the scariest houses that they have ever seen.

"Do you want to go to that house last?". Said Kathy.

"Sure. Save the scariest for last!". Said Anna.

They slowed down and as they got closer to the house it began to get darker because there were no lights at the end of the street. They started to get a little scared because it was foggy. They went to the house right next to the scary one and knocked on the door. The man giving out candy gave them the biggest handful of candy they've ever seen.

"Where you heading next?". Said the man.

"We're going to the scariest house on the street". They all chorused.

"I've heard some weird sounds coming from that house at night. I wouldn't go there if I was you"

"We are going, we've never seen or heard anything weird from the house and we haven't gone there on halloween before". Emerin said.

"Okay, How old are you guys"

"We are triplets, and all 8 years old". Said the three.

"Aren't you too young to be out by yourself?"

"We've been going out by ourselves since we were 6". Said Kathy.

"Okay, good luck!". Said the man

"Thank you". They said.

They hurried over to the scary house and stopped in their tracks. There were body pieces hanging from threads and it seemed like there was blood dripping from them. They were very confused because they weren't sure if it was real blood or what they hoped was paint. They slowly walked on the path to the door and they were very scared. They were all surprised because they haven't been scared ever in their life before. The air was so foggy that they could barely see each other. They thought they saw a bowl of candy on the porch but they weren't sure because it looked weirdly shaped. They slowly continued while holding each other's hands and their candy bags in their other hands.

Kathy screamed "Ahhhhhhh. A hand is holding me!".

Soon all of them were being held and slowly pulled towards the orch.

"AAAAAAAAAhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh". They all screamed.

The front door opened with a horrible creaking sound. The hands pushed them inside and closed the door with a loud bang. The lights were off so they couldn't see each other. They were all really scared and didn't know what to do. They heard mice squeaking and they ran into many spiderwebs. They were all scared out of their minds.

They didn't talk to anyone because they didn't want to get hurt. Suddenly the lights turned on and blinded them. They blinked the light out of their eyes and automatically screamed. There were bodies of kids hanging on strings and the children were all dead and the smell was revolting. There was a shadow that started moving towards them from behind that wall. They saw it and hunkered together afraid of what it could be. Suddenly a clown jumped out and threw candy to them.

"Hello, ladies and gentlemen welcome to the clown show". He said in a deep voice.

The kids weren't sure what was going on until he brought out a head and threw it around like a ball.

"I am keeping you here until midnight to show you what I really do, but I won't kill you".

They were still very afraid, but didn't want to say anything because he was creepy.

He started juggling knives and bouncy balls. The kids wanted to laugh but didn't want to get hurt or taken away. Emerin then made a break for it and tried to escape and he got the door open before he got gagged and taken to the clown. He tried to scream but his screams were muffled because of the gag. The clown laughed evilily and said "Well, well, well. What do we have here?"

The clown got a rope and put it around Emerin's neck. Emerin was led over to the stool and was told to stand on it. Emerin's rope was tied to the ceiling so that it wasn't hurting him but it could if the clown tied it tighter.

Anna and Kathy huddled together because they were scared and wanted to live to be able to go to the cemetery tonight. They wanted to try to run for it but they didn't want the same punishment as Emerin did. Anna laughed as the clown balanced on a ball and was juggling at the same time. Anna also got the same punishment as Emerin did and Kathy was very scared. She didn't know what to do because she was alone even though she could still see her siblings. She wanted to laugh so she could be with her siblings but she was too scared to do anything but sit and have an expressionless face. She looked at the clock on the wall and realized that it was only 11 o'clock and that they had another hour left. She started to cry a little and made sure that it was quiet because she didn't want to alert the creepy clown. At some point she fell asleep and about 30 minutes later she woke up and wasn't sure where she was. She then remembered where she was and relaxed a little. She felt something against her neck and she then realized that she was hanging like her siblings.

"There's only a half hour left guys! You can do this" Kathy said in a whisper.

She made sure to keep her eyes open and half the time she watched the clown and the other half was spent watching the clock. Finally after what they thought seemed like forever they were cut loose and the door was opened.

"Come again". Said the clown as they exited the door.

They ran as fast as they could until they reached the end of the street. They still wanted to go to the cemetery so they slowed down and went back to a walk.

"Omg!". Said Anna.

"That was the weirdest and definitely the scariest thing I have ever endured," Emerin and Kathy said.

They continued on their way and almost made it to the cemetery when they saw a black cat. They hurried away to the cemetery because they already had bad luck and didn't need worse luck. They started to jog to the centenary gate when they realized that the gate was closed. They decided that they were still going to complete the dare but that they would have to climb over the fence. They knew that it was very risky but they would never pass down a dare, especially a halloween dare. Anna climbed over the fence first since she was the tallest, then Kathy went, then Emerin went over. It was 12:25 and they realized that they didn't bring anything that they might need that night, but they weren't going to back down. They walked further and further into the graveyard even though it became foggy and they had their hands full with their candy. They were all excited because they could eat however much candy they wanted and no one could tell them to stop. They found a nice place where there were trees that they could lean on and sat down. Everything was going fine, they were all eating loads of candy, until they heard a weird moaning sound.

They all froze with their hands in their bags reaching for another piece of candy when Emerin said "that sounded like a zombie in the video game I play!". He whispered.

The two girls huddled together, scared, but still ate candy. They all sat together against a huge tree trunk that they could all lean on comfortably. They resumed eating candy until their stomachs hurt. They laid down and used their candy bags as pillows. They still had lots of candy so the pillow was nice and big. They all layed down together and Kathy was in the middle of them because she was by far the smallest. They were all very scared so they laid as still as they could. Anna and Emerin brought out their knife and held it in their hand just in case. They started whispering about what the moan was and they ended up just being confused because they haven't heard anything in real life sound like that before.

"Uhhhhhhhhh"

"Brains"

"Ahh what is that?". Said Kathy.

No one answered because they had no idea and didn't want her to freak out even more. They told Kathy to stay there while they went out to investigate. They got about 10 steps away from the tree when they heard Kathy scream. They ran back as fast as they could but they were still too late. They saw about 5 zombie looking creatures. They had tattered clothes, had unkempt hair, and were finishing eating Kathy.

"Ahhhhhhhhh". They screamed.

"Noooooo". Anna said

They were both heart broken and realized that they had to find a way out of the cemetery fast or they would be eaten alive. The first thing they decided to do was kill the 5 zombies that killed Kathy. They channeled their anger and cut the heads off of each zombie. There was blood all over the ground, on their clothes, and most definitely on the trees. They both shivered in disgust then ran to the exit while tears were streaming down her face. They were about 20 feet from the gate and they heard the same moans coming from close behind them. They stopped with fear and slowly turned around. There were at least 20 of the brain eaters coming at them. They started running towards them with knives in their hands and they managed to kill about 10 of them before

Anna was surrounded by 7 of them and couldn't defend them all

"I love you Emerin". She said before she left the human world.

"Noooooooooo". Said Emerin.

He wanted to give up but he wanted to avenge his sisters so he killed the last 10 with quick precision. He ran 15 feet, 10, 5 ft. So close he thought. He felt something on the back of his neck and swung his hand around and killed a zombie that was about to bite him. He spun around and saw hundreds of zombies coming at him and he saw more rising up and out of their graves. He started crying even harder when he saw his dead grandmother rise out of her grave and come to kill him. He fought with all of strength killing as many as he could before he was tired from being up all night and full of grief. He saw his grandmother closing in.

He said "Please"

The grandmother stopped to look at him and turned back but the rest wouldn't listen to him no matter how much he pleaded. He was slowly swallowed up and his last thought was I love you mom and dad. At home his mom and dad decided that they were going to check on their babies in the cemetery just in case because people nearby kept hearing screams and moans coming from inside the locked gates. The parents came up to the gate and hopped over it. They started to panic when they saw blood, guts, and dead zombies everywhere. They didn't know what to do so they started to cry when they saw the candy bags blowing in the wind by the tree where they used to be. They realized that they got eaten by the zombies and that they also would if they didn't get out of there. They both felt something warm on the back of their necks but thought nothing of it and they stopped and just cried while looking at their candy bags. Suddenly they both let out the highest pitched scream they could ever imagine. The zombies bit into the back of their necks and within the next 10 seconds they were both gone and there was no trace left that they were ever there. The Scary house with the clown heard the screams so he grabbed a crow bar and walked over to the cemetery gate. He was a little afraid because he knew that the 3 kids and their parents went in and never came back out. He hopped the fence and was faced with a gruesome sight. There were dead zombies, live zombies eating the dead zombies and he could see the candy bags sitting by the tree covered in blood from the kids. He realized what happened and wanted to get revenge even though he was the one that kidnapped them in the first place. He grabbed his crow bar and ran at the zombies and he was able to kill all of them and lived to tell the tale. He told the man next to him, the church, and all of the neighbors what happened. They set up a funeral without their bodies because, well, they were in a stomach. The funeral was the next day and the whole neighborhood came to it and they all mourned for them. No one ever went into the cemetery and the family got buried in a park way away from the cemetery where they were killed.

The babysitter

Toby looked at his door and got up from his bed opening his door and walking to the kitchen to where his mother was "Mommy, what are you doing" he asked while tilting his head "I'm just making breakfast my love" his mother said while smiling at him, "What are you making?" he asked in a kinda excited tone. "I'm making your favorite pancakes" she stated, "Really?! You're the best mommy ever!" Toby exclaimed, after a few minutes his mother placed two small pancakes on a plate with syrup and a fork after he ate he went to his room and started playing on his tablet, after a while his mom walked in "Toby, I have to work you will be having a babysitter and they won't arrive until 10:30 am do you think you can be a big boy for an hour and stay home alone until then?" she asked while looking at him "Yes mommy I can" he said while smiling at her. "Alright I am leaving now do not open the door for anyone the babysitter has a spare key so they would be able to get in without having to have you open the door. I love you to stay safe." she said with a soft smile. "Love you" He says and she walks out of the room and cracks it.

He goes back to playing games on his tablet after she left until he hears a bam, bam, bam on the door, he then stood up and walked out of his room but while walking he paused he was a little scared he walked to the front door and tried to look through the peephole but was too short and couldn't reach "hm... I need something to reach the peephole" he mumbles while looking around, he spots a chair and grabs it and drags it over to the door and stands on it, looks out the peephole but no one is there. "I wonder what time it is" he said quietly but didn't know how to tell time so he put the chair back and walked to his room and looking at the time on his tablet it was 10:45 am he felt a little uneasy since the babysitter was not there yet and wondered how long it would take for them to get there. He sat down and played on his tablet until he heard a loud BANG, BANG, BANG on the front door he was very scared, he knew his mom told him not to open the door for anyone but he set his tablet down and walked out of his room to the front door and unlocking it and slightly opening it, he opened the door slightly, looking up at the sight of a tall skinny scary man, "Hello, little boy, i'm your babysitter" his voice monotone "no your not" Toby said in a scared tone shutting and locking the door and running to his bed room.

He played on his tablet now a little scared he just wanted his mom to be home, he then heard a tap. From his closet, he turned his head slowly and looked at the closet seemingly terrified, he backed away from the closet and heard another tap. The closet opened slightly as Toby just watched in a terrified silence. He then sees slight movement in the closet and he holds his hand over his mouth and quickly slides under his bed, hiding and looking at the bottom of the closet the closet finally opens, Toby still hiding. He saw two feet exit the closet and walk towards the bed, slowly, suddenly all of the lights went off and everything went dark there was a very cold presence, Toby was petrified his eyes wide like a deer in headlights, he held his breath and started crying silently "mommy" he whispered while still crying the thing that stepped out of his closet kept slowly walking towards the bed finally stopping in front of the bed Toby mustered up enough courage to get out from underneath the bed and booked it out his door still crying out of fear, as he walked to another room he saw something white and black. He looks at it and it's an eye. He fell backward. As the eye watched him he was surrounded by darkness he was still crying he looked around more and more eye appeared around him watching him he then he looked at the door frame and there was someone hanging from the top of the door frame he stood up unlocked the front door and ran out he looks around and runs towards the neighbors house but something grabs his ankle and drags him back into the house, it grasped his ankle tightly he was dragged into the house "NO,NO,NO,HELP MOMMY PLEASE" but no answer he was then dragged into the closet in his room... 2 hours later his mother comes back home "Toby, i'm home!" she yelled and then looked around "Toby?" she looks around Toby missing and never to be seen again.

Case: unsolved

Daniel, Oes "Hay boss I found this case from 1999 it went unsolved and it has two dead kids should we look into it, also because there have been a lot more cases like this."

Boss " That is an old case the reason it was not solved is because the person who saw it die the next day shows we could not find it."

The way Alixe died was by suicide and cases like this happened in Russia Japan Canada and America people are saying that garages have just been appearing and all of them die the same way. Daniel "Why, why, why there is a new case the same every day how and why are there show many people dying and why aren't we doing anything mabey I can't just wait for something to happen I have to do something."

Daniel was renowned for his determination to find the case, the best detective the police academy had seen. 3 days later here in the Washington District of Columbia Daniel wanted to see what was going on show he went to the first case, where he saw the garage light yellow faded with the door damaged then he drove a bit closer he was casis because people keep dying to these then the door started to open he was recording the whole thing a tall humanoid came out had a beck and it spoke "Hi professor it is noon all ready what are we testing today" daniel looked on horror it was tall, white, feathers that looked fake. I did not know what to say but it said it for me. "You are not the professor who are you." I couldn't say anything but I lowered my window and said "I'm Detective Daniel, and I came looking for answers"

"Well ask away," he said almost like a friend he asked and asked he seemed to have gotten lost in thought then in a second he was cut in half the creator looked on as if it had heard clapping, from an unknown person "wow look at it hunt it is crazy how deadly these things are it looks show cool I want to go near it" "no!" said a voice telling the unknown person "why it is my masterpiece after all" you not just see what happened it would kill you" As they are talking the creator was devouring the ash turning from a reasonable person to a monster but they did not know it was not just a recording but a live stream more and more people looked in horror of what they show the public know what was going on now and they protested and tried to make them stop making this things and kill them. Then an alarm with off and if a switch was clicked all the garages were opened and people started to die and die then they stopped a voice came on you are the only generation the know this if anyone tells anything to your kids you will meet a fate of so many as fast as they came to the garages left to tell this day people do not say anytime and anyone how dose die a few days later.

The man was just standing there.

It was midnight, and I was walking home from work. I worked evening/night shifts, from 5:00 to 12:00. It was not common to see someone at this hour. This was behind the gas station I worked at, and it was faster for me to walk this route. Barely anyone even came inside the store at this hour, let alone behind it. The area was not typically crime-ridden, it was near some homes and it had surrounding hills. But what else would someone be doing at this hour? I had not seen this man in my life, and I knew almost all the people who go to the gas station, since in a small town like this almost everyone knows each other. I decided to just walk by him, barely looking, as it's better to just not look at him. He didn't seem to mind me, but I felt uneasy the entire time. As I went further away from the gas station, I still felt as if I was being watched, but every time I looked back at the man, he had not changed positions. After what seemed like an eternity, I finally made it home. I decided to not think about it, and go to bed after I made myself a quick snack.

When I awoke the next day to the sound of cars I made myself some breakfast. For my work hours, I was up pretty early, at about 11:00 AM. I checked outside my window, and behind the gas station, the man was gone. I had assumed he was either long gone or I had imagined him. After I got ready, I still had an hour to kill, so I watched TV. When I was walking to work, I felt uneasy again. I went into the store at about 4:55 and decided to check last night's camera. When I was walking home, there was no one there but the silhouette of a man. Shivers went down my spine, and I tried to show my co-worker before he left, but he was for some reason he was long gone. I assumed the man was real, but how was he not on the camera? I know what I saw. That night at work I felt worried for some reason. At about 11:00 pm, no one had come into the store yet, so I decided to research this. I found no answers on the internet, and any ebooks I found had nothing. The next day, I woke up at about 9:00 a.m. and went to the library. I saw no one there. I looked around everywhere for a book about my scenario, but could not find one, nor a real person. I decided to go home. In my neighborhood, the children weren't playing, cars weren't on the road. I turned the TV on. No signal. I was all alone. I walked to work. Not to actually work, it was about 30 minutes before I was supposed to start, but I went to get food. I didn't even look behind the store. I knew I was alone in this town, until I heard a tapping on the gas station window. It was the man from before. He is definitely dangerous, luckily the door is locked, but it's only a matter of time before he finds a way in.

The Shameful Death's Row

All along in "Death's Row", criminals who have performed heinous acts are sentenced to death. With their execution, the world becomes a better place. Even with the risk of being put in "Death's Row", people still act against the law and harm the lives of innocent people.

It twas' a dark and stormy night. The air howled and whistled through the prison's cells, disturbing all who slumbered. "Hnng... Can't they at least get some windows in this place?" One of the prisoners sat in the row of cells known as "Death's Row". "You are prohibited to speak to inmates." The guards spoke in an eerie unison. The wind continued to howl, showing no remorse to all who attempted to sleep. "Damn, Can't even get good sleep or food in this place." "Inmate, you shall stay silent, or we shall be forced to silence you."

The air was all that filled the room, inmates desperately tried to sleep, for they knew it would be the last chance they had to ever dream before execution. Guards kept at their post, not moving a muscle throughout the night. All of the criminals were able to get at least some sleep, except for one. The odd one out had gotten hold of all documents that were of him and torn them in half, eating all that the guards hadn't taken away. He was a frail man, his ribs were showing, looking as if they'd bust through his skin at any moment. Lightning flashed and he had scratched at his cell door. This was it, four hours until the final hour for the criminals in the prison block of "Death's Row".

The day had come, the storm had withered and died as the sun shone throughout the sky, not that the inmates could see it. "Inmates, out of your cells, now." The Prison Warden demanded. All of the inmates left their cells without word as they were dragged over to the execution chamber. "Choose how you wish to die." The Prison Warden said roughly to the first man.

"I'll just take the electric chair." The frail prisoner said with a devilish grin that could be seen for miles. "Very well then, take him inside." The guard told the guards that were holding the man down. They sat him on the chair and asked "What final words do you wish to tell the world?" The guard asked as the man sat on the electric chair. "I ended the lives of so many innocent people, and I don't regret a second of it!!!" the prisoner shouted as the guard pulled the lever and delivered a lethal shock to the prisoner. Miraculously, he survived and gave off a terrifying aura. "H-How!? How the hell did you survive!?" The guard shouted as he kept pulling the lever. It had no effect as the machine had broken. "God damn it!!" The guard shouted as he attempted to fix it. The man had already escaped his bindings and he was headed towards the guard. Crash, Bang, Clang.

All along in "Death's Row", criminals who have performed heinous acts are sentenced to death. With their execution, the world becomes a better place. Even with the risk of being put in "Death's Row", people still act against the law and harm the lives of innocent people.

Party of nightmares

It was early September and me and my husband moved into a new house. We were city folk and wanted to get away from the hustle and bustle of the city. We moved into a small town in a little house where the closest neighbor was a good $\frac{1}{3}$ of a mile away, and we loved it. The air was clean and fresh and best of all, it was quiet. No loud car alarms in the middle of the night or people yelling just, silence. It was nice but a little freaky, you could hear everything that happened around the house. The whole place was freaky but it was nice to leave the city.

After we settled in, got our furniture moved and situated we decided to go drive and meet our neighbors. We got in the car and started driving.

"I just can't wait to meet them!" i said smiling

"yeah I just hope they're nice.." My husband said, sounding unsure and worried.

"What's wrong?"

"I don't know ever since we moved here I've had a weird feeling, like something was wrong." he said with a worried and almost scared tone.

"I'm sure it's nothing!" I said , trying to lighten the mood. But I thought about i felt weird too.

We made it to our neighbors house and knocked on the door. The house was rickety and we could tell it was old. The windows were dirty and some of the wood on the patio was fraying. After a few minutes an elderly woman answered the door.

"Hello, were your new neighbors, the Smiths!" I said excitedly.

She was silent, all she did was stare. Her stare was menacing, It felt like it was piercing my soul with a spoon. The woman looked to be around 70 so i assumed she was just confused.

"We just wanted to come and meet you since we're gonna be neighbors now, " my husband said with a bit of shakiness in his voice.

All of a sudden the elderly woman spoke, " you shouldn't be here..." she said with a raspy, almost dry voice. Before we could even respond she closed the door, we brushed it off because the woman looked to be around 70 so i assumed she was just confused.

That night I couldn't stop thinking about what she said. What did she mean by we shouldnt be here? Why did my husband have a weird feeling? I tried to shrug it off thinking that it was nothing but it kept me up all night. We tried to forget about the experience and went on as usual. A few weeks later in late october i went and got the mail and saw that there was an invitation to a party, i opened it and saw that it was a halloween party!

I ran inside to my husband and told him about it. He said that it would be fun and we should go, I was stoked! I left and bought us halloween costumes, It was hard to decide cause we have already been the cliché couples or ghost but we both decided to go as skeletons. The Party was on Halloween night and it was a little far away but we went anyway.

We got to the party location and it was at this big, two story house that looked like it was haunted, just like the elderly womans house, dirty windows, fraying wood. It looked creepy. We went up to the door and a lady dressed as red riding hood answered. "You must be the Smiths!" she said with a big grin.

"Yep, that's us!" I said

She invited us in and we were having a great time, drinking punch, dancing, but something was off. The punch tasted weird and was kind of bitter. I couldn't find my husband either but I assumed he went to the restroom. I decided to ask somebody about the punch. I asked this man dressed as a werewolf why the punch tasted off, and what he said chilled me to the bone...

"That's not a punch" there was a brief pause.

"It's blood." he said with a crazed look in his eyes.

They looked like an animal's eyes, thirsty for blood. I spat out the blood and screamed, dropping my glass. I went to find my husband but couldn't, I kept calling out his name but it was like he poofed into thin air, he was nowhere to be found!

I started to feel dizzy and sat down, I noticed that everyone was staring at me, like animals. I felt nauseous and the world started spinning. I blacked out and woke up in a dimly lit room and saw the people from the party and asked what was happening. They didn't say anything and just looked at me. Their eyes were horrifying, small and beady like an animal stalking its prey. Then all of a sudden they attacked me! Charging at me and growling like animals! I realized then that these weren't people, they were monsters!! Zombies, werewolves, you name it!

They started scratching me and clawing at my legs! I managed to slip away as they started wrestling with each other. I ran around and found an exit. I ran out of the house as fast as I could then, I realized. My husband was gone!! I thought for the worst, then I saw something in the distance, It was my husband!! I yelled at him and he turned around and ran to me. We hugged and then ran for our car, We made it to our car and drove off without looking back!

On the drive home I thought about what the elderly woman said and realized she was warning us to leave! Then i thought about what happened, were they actually monsters? We made it back to the city and never spoke of it. The situation will always haunt me to the bone .The fact I almost died, the fact I almost lost the love of my life. It haunts me just thinking about it.

The Mystery Man

Isaac Strobel age 12

I was the only one in the house and I couldn't run much longer but he could just keep chasing. I fell for breath and he caught up. BEEP BEEP BEEP. I woke up terrified of my dream always thinking of it. I couldn't stop so why not start making my breakfast or more like lunch my clock was set to much longer than I remembered I thought to myself "why was it set to late" I couldn't understand still but I still was working on my breakfast so maybe when I was done eating and get my coffee maybe these eerie thoughts would go away. This might have been true because after breakfast I was feeling so much better about what had happened this morning and my nightmare. I had calmed down and turned on the television click. Breaking News insane asylum security has been breached and seven people escaped. This immediately brought terror back into me but I was done eating so I thought I needed to put the dishes away and probably wash them every dish was there but my utensils drawer was open I thought nothing of it and shut the drawer. It was a quick load of dishes. It was only the beginning of the day but I was already waiting for the end of this stressful day but that wouldn't be the end. I went to just relax up in my room. I heard scratching on my door I was terrified but I couldn't hide from the thing outside of my door so I opened the door and it was my cat. I found that little boy on my hike I did two days ago. I was presuming he was hungry and I was going to have to feed him.

I went to go feed him but he was gone. I couldn't tell where he was so I ran outside In search of my cat. I yelled "has anyone see a cat nearby!". Some random person replied "yes I think I have do you want to talk about it" "yes" I replied we proceeded to go into my house I asked if he would want to have tea he thought it was an amazing idea he asked "why is your house so small on the inside and big on the outside." I never really noticed it I didn't have an attic I don't know why considering my roof was massive. I went to find why or if I had an attic. I couldn't really find anything as soon as I was done looking I heard the teapot start to scream and went down to pour my tea and dropped it, pouring it on myself. I realized I didn't turn on the burner. I looked over and he was gone. I was shivering in fear. I was just done with this day everyone was gone I was just going to bed. I started hearing scratches coming from my door I opened it thinking it will be my cat but it wasn't it was a mysterious man with a knife. I woke up I had accidentally fallen asleep again and in that sudden shock I forgot to brush my teeth I went to my bathroom. My toothpaste seemed to be moved but I might have just forgot something so I grabbed my toothpaste and the mirror fell onto me with a loud thud I was scared because behind it there was a ladder. This was where my attic was I went to bed again but I had to know more I went up and saw nothing but trash I looked around deeper and I saw a man in the shadow hiding I walked closer the I heard a big CREEEK. In a flash I started running Down the ladder Down the hallway. It was sudden but I tripped and my cover was blown. I got sent back to the insane asylum.

"You can't run forever. I am a being unknown to your simple human mind." Tom runs faster and suddenly he falls and dies. "I told you so." The next day they were supposed to return home but they never returned. The parents filed a missing person case later they were found the parents were devastated.

THE HUNTED HOSE

BY Tegar

Once on a very dark, cold night there lived the lane's family. They were a family that was always mad at each other.

Their house was quite grand but there was only one thing about their house, their house was a HAUNTED HOUSE!!

The story begins with all the lane's family fast asleep in their warm cozy beds. During the night when the clock struck midnight, a silvery white ghost appeared. After the ghost appeared, he yowled a very spooky sound. Whenever he yowled that sound, lightning struck! Even though the sounds were so loud, the family were still asleep. Well asleep except for two - Molly and Holly, the 9 year old twins. The twins were very adventurous. They decided to find what was making that spooky sound. They jumped out of bed and started looking. First they looked under their beds, then behind the clock and all around the house but they couldn't find where the yowling was coming from. They looked outside but they still couldn't find where the noise was coming from. Eventually they gave up. Holly said "if we saw whatever that spooky thing was, should we have told them off.. Molly replied yes, definitely. They silently crept back to bed.

In the morning Holly and Molly heard a crying sound coming from outside. The girls politely asked if they could go outside. Their Mum replied "of course you can so long as you get dressed first". "We will Mum" they said running up the stairs flinging off their pajamas along the way.

After the twins got dressed, they quickly raced outside to the grassy garden. Suddenly they came to a stop when they were face to face with a crying ghost. Molly said bravely "wwwwhats the mattttttter" while shaking. "Are you alright?". "I keep scaring people but all I want to do is to help" said the ghost sadly. "Hmmm" Holly said. "I've got an idea! Our Dad is an excellent inventor. I'm sure he can help!". "Great!" said the ghost. "I'm glad you found me". All the three decided to meet after the girls had told Dad what had been going on.

But wait, later the family were asleep and the ghost was cured so who just made that yowl? The gost took them to a new place when they woke up in a bloody bath with there mom and dad bons with there hades taken off eys taken out and IN THERE MOTH they were in there mom and dad blood they ran out in shock the futhey they went the more the bons and blood plus the wamer it got. They have not relized that they were in HELL. Even when they did not know they kept going sonn they were walking in pools of blood swating to the point they were dripping sweet BUT THEN THEY SAW THE DEVEL!!!!!!! The devel saide what are youd oing here you are a pity cheled like you father and mother YOU KNOW WHAT IM GOING TO KILL YOU GOOD NIGHT FOREVER.

The old abandoned house.

Marley P. G. ~~12-7th grade~~

In the spooky town of Fountain the guys was coming home from there last day of school. The Boys Andrew, Marley, and Alek were so excited for summer because they were going to play video games all day long. Alek said im going to practice yoga. He went to grab the mat but noticed a weird hole in the basement. He said Marley, Andrew come down here to the basement. We came and we freaked out about the hole. I peeked my head down in the hole and it showed light and a wooden floor with a pumpkin that was black and smooshed. Alek started crying and freaking out but I digged a little deeper into the hole and went down there. My thoughts in my head at that time was about how I was going to get food and how I was coming back.

Once we all got down into the hole we saw a torch lit up with tarantulas and opossums crawling on my legs. Alek took out his phone to call Hailey but there was no WIFI. We must of been too far from the house for the wifi to read. Andrew said "OH NOO what are we going to do". I said shut up Andrew I will figure this out. Our Moms don't know where we are and they are probably going to ground us and they are vexed. Within a matter of time I discovered some pretty unusual features in the hole. We discovered that it was an underground abandoned house. We found a bathtub full of brains and hearts then Alek said OH MY GOD PEOPLE DIED IN HERE. I started to yell at Alek to be quiet but I realized what I did was not right.

I then tried to calm down Alek but he just wouldn't calm down. We then looked into the fridge to find food but instead we found rotten milk and chicken bones. Andrew said "I am so hungry Alek did you bring at least a granola bar." Alek said "No". WE HEARD PAW STEPS and we found out IT WAS A RAT THE SIZE OF A GERMAN SHEPARD. I said "Gimmie the knife Alek this ratdog can be our dinner." Andrew said that he wanted pizza. Well ratdog can't make pizza it could only make meatballs and rat steak. We heard another noise but it sounded like a waterfall. "The TORCH HAS WENT OUT I said" As we went into that basement that noise got louder. The basement sink was on and I found a pile of Opossums under the sink in the cupboard .

I heard Hailey ringing the doorbell. We knew we couldn't answer the door but I shouted for her help. She then busted down the door and went to the basement. She didn't know why that hole was in the ground. We screamed and told her to grab the ladder out of the closet but then I felt something crawling on me and I asked Andrew to pat down my leg to see what there was on my leg. IT WAS A SNAKE crawling on my leg. I shrieked and said OH CRAP but as I was doing that Hailey actually got the ladder down to the hole and helped us up. As We were heading up to the Living room our parents were looking at us angrily. My mom said "Marley why didn't you tell me where you were". Andrew and Alek's parents said "Why didn't you tell us where you were going". BACKSTABBER I YELLED you promised not to tell. I was sorry for yelling at Hailey but she made me really angry.

End

We got video games taken away for a week but we learned to always tell when something is wrong. The hole has got patched up and the house in the hole has been destroyed. During that time I got super close to my friends and depended on them. That experience was much scarier than playing a horror game or watching a horror movie. I said "I WILL NEVER GO INTO THAT BASEMENT EVER AGAIN UNLESS SOMEONE ELSE GOES DOWN THERE WITH ME TOO. I hope my mom understands how scared I was for my friends. I really did not want to die in an abandoned hole. Just so you know boys and girls never go into a hole in the basement.

The Haunted House

It was October 31, 1999, and on Halloween day there was a group of friends who loved Ghosts and Zombies and other spooky monsters that they read about in the story, they also liked to go to haunted houses. But little did they know it might just be the end for them. It all starts with the oldest girl in the group Emma, she had heard a rumor about a haunted house in the forest and they have never been to one yet. So she told all of the other girls in the group. There was only one friend in the group Ava who thought it might just be a bad idea to go she heard that it was just an old broken down building in the middle of the forest the rest of her friends didn't believe her. They told her that she was just scared to go and she didn't have to go. Then another girl named Grace said she heard that people had gone missing and only some made it out alive. When people asked them about it they said it was like a zombie and it tried to get them. But Ava was still telling them it was a bad idea to go even with the rumors and news reports about the house. But ignoring Ava's words the girls made plans to meet each other at the park next to the forest.

That same night all of the girls were at the park, they were all excited except for Ava who was still hesitant. The group walked into the forest and started their adventure it was freezing but they still kept going through the forest. After hours of walking in the forest, they saw the house. Ava was right the house looked old and had broken boards but the girls were still determined to go into the house so they did. Ava was the only one who stayed outside. All the rest of the girls entered the house and found nothing wrong with the house it looked like an old house. All of the girls decided they would split up and look in different rooms, Emma went into the bedroom and still, there was nothing wrong with the house Haylee went in the bathroom, and still nothing, Grace went to the Kitchen and again there was nothing wrong. So they all left empty-handed but still thought the adventure and house were cool. After they got home. Haylee started to feel like something was watching her and she heard faint footsteps. She got scared so she called everyone else, they had heard the same thing. They all asked what about Ava she didn't call them or answer they thought she might have just been its first victim.

They all stayed on the call till Emma heard the sounds getting louder and louder till there was nothing. All of the girls got scared because they couldn't even hear her. After some time they heard Emma not talking but her screaming for help but no one helped her. She was its first victim. One by one the girls disappeared till it was only Haylee left but nothing happened so she did what she could think of call the police when they finally got there, she told them everything they went to the other's houses to find only their corps. They asked Haylee if maybe there was another girl who had made it. Haylee told them she might think her friend Ava did. They went to her place and nothing was wrong with her. After that day the girls were questioned, but the news reporters, detectives, and the police but still all found nothing. Another year went by and still nothing it was only Haylee and Ava the day was October 31, 2000, and they went to their friend's grave on the day they all died. Ava asked Haylee an odd question she asked "do you want to be with them" Haylee responded with "well sometimes I wish it had taken me two". After that response, Ava said well you can finally after that Haylee was never found or heard of she was pronounced dead after 4 months of looking. Everyone would question Ava about what she had done she said nothing till it had been 4 months she said "they all should have listened or I would have never taken them".

Joshua M. Spookey's scary story.

I was just with my family in a trailer driving and it was dark and it was raining and lighting it was scary. My dad says it is just fine it's just a little slippery but we will be okay. My dad said we should just go to a hotel and stay there overnight until it stops lighting badly and raining. In the middle of the night, someone knocked at our door and we were scared because we wondered who would be out there in the lighting and raining. My dad said just go back to sleep and ignore it. So I ignored it but they kept knocking on it over and over.

My dad said ill open it my dad opened it and there was literally no one there. My dad said it was probably just little kids that think they're funny and they're just spoiled little brats. Then we just went back to sleep again and you would not know what happened there was someone at the door again. I think that the hotel was haunted we heard people screaming and asking for help. We got scared and my dad got a chair and put it by the door so one could open it. My dad said if anyone comes through that door we start fighting them or we just go out there right now we all say ok!

We went out there and we just saw Zombied running at us we were really scared we ran downstairs and there was more we ran outside went in the trailer and started driving. There was Freddy Kruger in the middle of the street I was so scared I almost peed my pants. My dad said we were just going to have to run over him but then the whole city power cut out and the car stopped idk why tho.

Then Freddy Kuegar jumped on the trailer and then more zombies came from the sky and aliens came and I thought we were going to get killed. But then there was a UFO and Our trailer got abducted in the sky I was so scared of my life. We went into the UFO and they blindfolded all of us and they said, " If you don't answer the question we ask you right we will kill you and your family.

We all said ok we will answer the questions correctly we are not trying to die. They said do you like scary movies and scary stuff. We all said not really they said great well was tonight a little scary we said yes I almost peed in my pants. They said well you are going to be a little more scared now of what we are going to do to you guys. We are going to drop you guys back down. We started driving again and there was someone in there and they tried to kill us but we killed them and we were just terrified. We escaped and went to the safe house and stayed there and we were safe either every until this nonsense stopped. It finally stopped and we were so relieved and now we were just a regular family.

To whom it may concern, my name is Braider.

As my friends and I were walking home from school, we noticed something. In front of Josh's house was a van with clowns drawing all over it. Josh ran into his house in fear. My friend Billy and I walked home talking about the van. When I got home I looked out my window and saw pumpkins and decorations around the house. I heard my mom scream "Braiden dinner is ready!" I ran downstairs ready to eat. My mom asked "Have you seen the van? If you ever see it run the other direction it will stop at nothing to get." I reply with "Yes Mother." In my head, I was thinking of the van that I saw at Joshe's house. I finished with my dinner and asked my mother "if I could go on a bike ride to the school looking for my headphones." She replied with "yes". So I biked towards Josh's house. I was thinking in my head if I was going to get caught lying to my mother.

I got to the house and saw that the van was gone. So I knocked on the door. The door creaks open, and I walk into the house scared not knowing what would happen. Fear following me. I saw blood stains on the wall, and three fingers on the floor. I scream "Josh" No reply. I scream it again this time louder "Josh!" no reply. I ran out of the house and hopped on my bike scared knowing that I had run into a murder crime I was in fear trying to start crying on my way home. My legs from peddling began to grow weak. I heard screams in the distance. I knew the screams were from my friend Josh or a movie. I had arrived home and dashed for my room. I jumped into my bed listened to some music and went to bed.

The next day I went to my school. Josh was not there and Billy went to school. Me and Billy talked about what happened to Josh and the van. It was the final five minutes of the school day. We got our things and ran home. On our way home we noticed that the van was now in front of Billy's house. I gave Billy a high five and dashed home. I was thinking if the van was just a coincidence or if it was meant to be there. I was thinking about it for almost a couple of hours. It was midnight when I snuck out of my house and ran to the house.

This time it felt different I was confused with the house it was locked the windows were broken glass all over the floor snuck into the house. I was not confused I looked behind at a shadowy figure. I dashed inside the house I had be hide on the couch trying to to scream feeling the glass in my knee. I heard loud footsteps as they grew louder. I heard a shriveled voice say "They you are" I dashed for the upstairs I tripped and started to cry. I started to crawl up the stairs with glass impaled in my leg. I felt a sharp in my back my shirt became wet as I crawled up the stairs. I heard a clown laugh. I stopped moving I heard the clown say in a deep voice "You and all of your friends drop like flies." I woke up next to my friends in a hospital. When I woke I heard the doctor say "Hello... Hello," I replied with "Where am I," Billy and Josh said, "It has almost been two weeks." I was in even more pain so I started to cry.

Story

I jog down the highway, eyes closed. Not the safest, But someone, something, Is behind me, I know it. One minute I'm shopping, the next I'm dropping my money's worth of groceries down at the curb. My face is dripping with sweat, I taste it in my mouth. I feel a stitch in my side, I almost stop. I don't have anyone to go to. I moved to Memphis, Tennessee when I turned 18 for college. I live with my cat in my apartment. I don't have anywhere to go. My apartment is hours away. I clench my jaw, I feel it in my cheeks, my braces slit my lip, I bite them. It distracts me from all that's happening. I feel the blood rush into my mouth, it burns, my lip gets hot. I open my mouth and breathe. I need to calm down. I can feel the presence. A towel gets flipped over my mouth. Soon, my eyes are heavy and it all gets dark. I feel my eyes open more than 20 so minutes later. I dont know where I am, its too dark to tell. No light, just hard metal floor and walls and the sound of the road outside. I tried to listen out for some clue of where I was. Steffen Ave, The road was smooth and had very noticeable potholes next to the Paetro house. I feel the bumps and that assures my location. A cop sits at the corner of the library, If he turns it will lead him straight there. A turns back and past the police, where I bang on the side and scream for help. The police stop him and arrest him. I saw his face. Brown eyes, Blonde hair, Obviously high or drunk. "I wont forget you, Quinny" He spurted out. How the actual hell did he know my name. It felt like everything slowed down. Like everything was in slow motion. My breath got heavy and everything was getting more and more pixelated by the second. I fell, everything went dark.

Chapter 2

I wake up lying in the road. Shock shot through my body. How have I not gotten hit? The gravel had left dents in my skin from where I had laid. Small pebbles sat into my skin, leaking blood out. It stung, bad. The weird sink in my stomach was gone. He was gone. I try to sit up. My legs hurt, sore. Things were still blurry, slightly dark. I check my watch, Its 3 AM. My head aches. My mouth bled hard, probably because I collapsed on the road. I Stand, blood rushes to my legs. Im alone in the city.

Out there, Somewhere

Chapter 1. Regrets

Creak, Creak, Creak. The noises got louder. Creak, Creak, Creak. I slowly got up from my bed. I open the door cautiously. I peek through the crack, saying, "H-hello?" "Always look behind you," said a mysterious voice. "BOO" screamed Asia." haha got you, you should have seen your face," she said with a loud laugh. "Don't scream in my ear at 8:00 in the morning!" I yelled. "Oh, c'mon, you have to learn how to take a joke," Asia said. I angrily rushed up to the kitchen to get some of my mom's famous powdered sugar waffles. "Did you hear about the Halloween sleepover, it's supposedly going to be on Friday the 13th, spooky right?" Asia said excitedly. I realized the time and rushed to get ready. I walked up the street knowing I had to wait for Asia, I continued walking. I looked behind me and saw Asia scream, "Wait for me!" I continued walking. "Dude c'mon you know you have to wait for me!" she yelled. "Aren't you like 11 now, I'm pretty sure you can walk by yourself now." I told her. "Fine, then I will," she yelled. I replied, "Good, now you know how it is to be grown up!" She turned the other way and took the longer path. I kept walking, I didn't even try to turn around and say something but who knew that would be the biggest regret I've ever made in my life. I had reached school looking around for Asia. I didn't think much of it, knowing that she maybe just needed to take a long peaceful walk. Class started, and I noticed that Asia wasn't in class. I told myself that maybe she was just late. Soon time flashed by, class after class, Asia was still nowhere to be found. At this point, I started to think that maybe she stayed home. I walked back home, starting to feel regret. I knew that yelling at her was not the solution. I arrived at the end of our street corner, witnessing the horror image that runs through my mind every day. I saw the police and my mother crying as they started to apologize and put their hats on their chest. I go up to my mother yelling at her, "WHAT HAPPENED MOTHER, PLEASE TELL ME!" She grabbed my shoulders, hugged me, and told me, "Your sister is missing".

Chapter 2. Faith

"Honey, are you almost ready to go?" my mom yelled. "Yes Mom," I replied. I could no longer walk to school anymore after my sister's disappearance. My mother had to drive me now. As soon as I got to school, kids and teachers rushed up to me saying they're sad. "I'm so sorry that your sister is missing!" "If you need anything let me know". I just wanted to get done with the day and forget what happened. My mother started to notice how my behavior had dropped. "Hey sweetheart, you know that the Halloween sleepover is tomorrow. Would you like to go?" I knew my mother was concerned about me. "Sure", I said. I could see my mother's face light up. "Remember kids if you are going to a Halloween sleepover at LightsParks Forest, head straight to the bus after school." My teacher yelled. "Remember Sweetie, be careful and always have your phone on." My mother reminded me. "M-mom, do you think you will be ok? You know since I won't be home. And especially after Asia disappearance?" I said. She replied, "Sweetie, Asia's disappearance has nothing to do with you. Asia will forever be in my heart, so I want you to be safe in the woods." Each word she said left a brick of guilt on my back. I kissed my mother goodbye and ran to the bus. On the bus, there were ten girls. I was nervous but minded my own business. After an hour, a teacher stood up and told us, "We have arrived"

Chapter 3. Running away

"Girls I want to start setting up" my teacher yelled. I started unpacking my things, as I heard the other girls talking about Asia. I remembered how excited she was to come. The other girls were given jobs to go get sticks and go run and get food. I didn't even get to do anything because the teachers felt bad. I was bored and started to think of memories of Asia and I. More guilt fell on my back. It was finally time for the fire camp. We all sat down and started roasting marshmallows. The girls looked at each other. "What exactly happened to your sister?", one girl said. "Yea did she just get kidnapped?" one more girl said?" "Guys, that isn't an appropriate question to ask!" My teacher yelled. "Was it your fault?" a girl asked. "What? No." I replied "My sister was the one who walked the other way!" I shouted. "So it was your sister's fault?" another girl asked. "No- I mean maybe? I DON'T KNOW OKAY! JUST DROP IT!" I screamed. We sat in silence for a bit. "So at the end of the day, it was your sister fault?" a girl asked. "SHUT UP!" I screamed. All this guilt and pressure got the best of me, I needed space. I ran away from the campfire. I kept running and I couldn't stop. I couldn't think of anything except my sister. She kept running through my mind until I just stopped. I didn't know where I was. My mind just kept thinking of her. "I'M SO SORRY SISTER, IT WAS ALL MY FAULT!", "I screamed. "IT SHOULD HAVE BEEN ME, NOT YOU!" I yelled. I couldn't stop crying, the guilt on my back had finally shattered my back. "Do you really mean all of it?" a mysterious voice whispered. It couldn't be but it could. I turned around to see the figure of my sister.

Chapter 4 . The truth (Final)

"H-how? HOW!" I screamed. I ran up to my sister and hugged her. "You're alive, please tell me it is real!" I cried. Asia hugged me again and soon I started to light up like never before. "Hello, Maddie are you out there?" the teacher yelled. He saw Asia and I held hands and tears fell down my face. My teacher immediately called 911. Soon the police and my mother came."BABIES, OH MY BABIES ARE YOU OKAY!" my mother yelled." Yes mom were fine" Asia said. My mom hugged us and went into tears. Something seemed off, Asia was an emotional girl. She cried at sad movies and got scared at horror ones. She seemed like she had no emotions. I thought nothing of it. We had finally arrived home and my mom insisted she make us some warm hot cocoa. Asia and I sat down and I started to tell her what happened while she was gone. She started listening but she stopped me. "You still don't understand, do you?", she said. I replied, "What do you mean?" I'm not here." she said." Asia, what are you talking about? Are you like a ghost or something?" I chuckled. "I'm still missing." she replied. I looked at her and noticed she started to fade a bit." You're not real are you." I said quietly. She looked me deep in my eyes and replied, "I'm out there,... somewhere."

AS I STARTED TO WALK UP TO THE HOUSE, I FELT A COLD BREEZE GO DOWN MY NECK, AND MY HEART STARTED TO POUND OUT OF MY CHEST. I DID NOT WANT TO COME HERE BUT MY MOM WANTED ME TO GO TO THE NEIGHBOR BECAUSE THEY HAD A SON WHO WAS MY AGE. MY PARENTS TOLD ME THERE WAS NOTHING TO BE AFRAID OF JUST GO OVER THERE AND HANG OUT WITH HIM, JUST MEET HIM. THEY SAID I FINALLY AGREED TO GO AND WHEN I GOT THERE, I KNOCKED ON THE DOOR AND HEARD AN ECHO RUN THROUGH THE HOUSE. IT WAS A HOT DAY BUT THE BOYS' MOM ANSWERED AND INVITED ME IN. I AGREED. I WALKED IN AND I FELT A CHILL RUN DOWN MY SPINE. IT WAS COLD. I WALKED THROUGH THE OLD CREEPY-LOOKING HOUSE TO THE BOY'S ROOM AND SAW SPIDERS AND COBWEBS. WHEN I GOT TO THE ROOM THAT I THOUGHT WAS HIS I WAS ABOUT TO KNOCK ON THE DOOR, BUT HIS MOM STOPPED ME. SHE SAID THAT IT WAS NOT HIS ROOM. HIS ROOM WAS IN THE BASEMENT. I WAS CREEPED OUT BUT I MADE A PROMISE TO MY MOM. WHEN I GOT TO THE STAIRWELL I TRIED TO FLICK ON THE SWITCH, BUT IT FLICKERED AND FLICKERED THEN STOPPED AND DIED. I RELENTLESSLY WALKED DOWN THE STAIRS, AND WHEN I GOT TO THE BOTTOM THERE WAS A TERRIBLE SMELL.

I COULD NOT IDENTIFY THE SMELL BUT IT SMELLED ROTTEN. I WALKED PAST A DARK OPEN ROOM AND THE SMELL WAS SO BAD I SPED UP TO THE ROOM WITH A SMALL LIGHT UNDER THE DOOR. I KNOCKED AND THERE WAS A QUIET VOICE, THAT SAID I'LL BE THERE IN A MINUTE. I CAN REMEMBER THAT THE VOICE WAS A VERY DEEP QUIET VOICE, WHILE I WAS STANDING THERE I THOUGHT OF WHY THE MOM DID NOT WANT ME NEAR THAT ROOM. I ALSO THOUGHT AS I THOUGHT MORE AND MORE. I REMEMBERED THAT THAT ROOM WITH THE GUT TURNING SMELL THE DOOR WAS STARTING TO SHUT BUT I WAS THE ONLY ONE DOWN THERE BESIDES THE BOY. MY HEAD HURT MY STOMACH FELT WEIRD BUT IT WAS TOO LATE NOW. I WAS ALREADY HERE.

THE BOY AFTER WHAT FELT LIKE FOREVER FINALLY OPENED THE DOOR. I WALKED IN AND HIS ROOM WAS WARM AND IT LOOKED TOO COZY ALL I COULD THINK ABOUT WHEN I OPENED THE DOOR IS, THIS ROOM LOOKS NOTHING LIKE HOW THE HOUSE LOOKS. HIS ROOM WAS COZY BUT BLAND. HE DID NOT HAVE MUCH TO DO BUT HE HAD A COUPLE OLD GAMES THAT WE GOT TO PLAY. THEY WERE FUN BUT AFTER A WHILE WE GOT BORED AND WALKED PAST THE ROOM AGAIN.

WHEN WE WALKED PAST IT HE WAS FINE BUT IT SMELLED BAD STILL I DIDN'T EVEN WANT TO WALK PAST IT AGAIN BUT I DID AND WE GOT TO THE UPSTAIRS. WE WALKED UP THE STAIRS WE WALKED PAST THAT ROOM AGAIN. WE WENT INTO THE LIVING ROOM AND WERE WATCHING TV FOR A BIT AND WE LOST TRACK OF TIME AND I LOOKED AT THE CLOCK AND IT SAID 7:21PM IT SCARED ME CAUSE I DIDN'T REALIZE WHAT TIME IT WAS AND HE SAID THAT HE HAD TO GO TO THE BATHROOM. I SAID OKAY AND HE LEFT HIS MOM WAS UPSTAIRS IN HER ROOM AND THEN I HEARD THIS MUFFLED YELL COME FROM THE ROOM THAT THE NOISE WAS COMING FROM.

I RAN UP THE STAIRS TO HIM MOMS ROOM. I OPENED THE DOOR AND HIS MOM WAS SPOOKED BY HOW SCARED I LOOKED AND I TOLD HER THAT HER SON WENT TO THE BATHROOM AND HOW I HEARD THE MUFFLED SCREAM. SHE RAN DOWN THE STAIRS TO THE BATHROOM AND SAW BLOOD ON THE MIRROR AND SHE STARTED TO CRY. HER SON WENT MISSING NOBODY EVER FOUND HIM. BUT WHAT THEY DID FIND IN THE BATHROOM WAS THE PADLOCK THAT WAS ON THE LOCKED ROOM.

The Red Med

It was a dark rainy night. There were three hours until Halloween when I was getting ready to put on my monkey suit that was on the floor. I picked it up and started to put it on this was awesome I thought to myself as I went to the mirror looking at how stunning I looked then I smelled my armpits and they smelled terrible but just as I was about to grab the deodorant I noticed my armpit also itched so I gave it a scratch and that's when I realized I was itching everywhere! I took off the suit trying to bear the itchiness I dropped onto the floor and screamed it felt like a bunch of mosquitoes were sucking my blood until I had none left.

Then my mom rushed into my room and took me to the hospital where they stabbed me and found a big hornet in my stomach still alive flying around and stinging me everywhere. I could feel how his undying quench felt like he kept destroying my insides making me feel tired and out of oxygen I gasped for air as they killed the bug and told us we were going to be fine so we started coming home. Next, I realized that my whole body hurt so much to the point where I was losing my mind, so we went back to the hospital and they told me to take this red pill twice a day and in the next month I would be healed I sighed in relief that I was going to be okay so we went home and I took a Red Pill.

After I took my last drink my body felt like I was transforming into a vast creature I turned into a red ball where I grew arms and legs. The sight was painful so much so I screamed trying to get my mom's attention as my mom came in and started screaming with fear I had turned into a giant red zombie without knowing. My mom then said "Son is tthhaatt yyoouu?" She stuttered

Then I replied "Blggblahgb blahg".

My mom cried "Get Away you filthy creature!" then I started to cry letting all the flesh rip away from my real body showing my true identity as a scared little boy that is crying, my mom screamed as she ran towards me realizing what she had done. I started to run away into the darkness crying and crying as my mother stopped following me she tried stopping me but I had already run into the shadows.

In the alleyway, there was a dark figure growling and prowling while I watched Shivering in fear as I transformed into that same zombie as before In fear I started limping away but the figure was too fast!

It started growling louder and louder until it vanished leaving me all alone where I was crying wanting to go home then the flesh again ripped from my body where I lay hopelessly in despair as a cat came up to me and purred at me where I laughed and pet the needy cat.

Little did I know this cat was another creepy creature as it purred louder and louder until it started growing into this creepy cat man with whiskers on its face and his head went 360 degrees as it watched me, purring angrily it leaped at me and started scratching growling at my presence. I kicked him off making my problem even worse, he started multiplying into three smaller catmen! I yelled as I ran faster than I thought until I transformed into a bigger zombie more than twice the size of before making me stronger than all the cats I yelled ripping off my arm and using it as a bat to launch one cat into the dark cold sky where the second cat leaped at my bat and got swatted as well then the third cat fled but I ripped my head off my green moldy body using this as a football I chucked my head and hit the cat killing it. I started to feel good being a strong zombie learning my moves and adapting to my new form I trotted picked up my head then started heading home.

This is the place where my mother lay crying while I was trying to talk but surprisingly after 10 minutes of struggle It happened I spoke "Mom it's me Im home" Then She cried "Oh Thank goodness" rushing towards me and crying into my green body then I started to melt It had already been November first a day after Halloween where I wouldn't turn into my zombie-like form where my sister coming back from her trip in Florida asked " how was your Halloween brother" I replied, " nothing interesting ill tell you". Later that night my mother took me to the hospital where she asked the doctor " What did you give him" She looked raged with anger but the doctor seemed fine he replied with a calm voice "It was a red pill giving him the ability to turn into a zombie in dangerous situations". Then my mom replied "What are the downsides?" I wondered The doctor said, "Other than he itches until halloween night there are none." I gulped "Until Halloween?". My mother bumped me whispering "It'll be fine". So we headed home and I started itching and itching and to relieve the pain I had to put on itching cream every night.

One Halloween night two kids were going trick-or-treating but little did they know the black cat was following them all night long... Their names were Lily and Billy, and they both dressed up as spiders for Halloween night.

"Hey Lily ready to go trick-or-treating," Billy said

"Yes, I hope people like spider costumes ?". The two both ran to the door but their mother stopped them from going out

"Hey, make sure to come home by midnight, you two almost gave me a panic attack last Halloween night," The mother said "Don't worry Mom me and Lily can do this right Lilly" "Ya Mom you can trust us" "Ok have fun trick or treating you two". Billy and Lily walked out of the house to see one of their friends waiting for the two of them

"What took you so long?" "Sorry if Mother wants us to be home by midnight so we can't do Midnight trick or treating this year" Billy and Lily have to do Midnight trick or treating or else the black cat will be mad. "Wait what's behind you!" "Nothing scary is behind us, what's wrong?"

"I... I got to go now and you should too" Their friend ran as fast as he could back to his house and told them to go home, if they didn't do Midnight trick or treating the black cat would hunt them down so going back home is a smart thing to do if they wanted to see the light of day again.

"What's wrong with him?" "I don't know but maybe we shouldn't do trick or treating this year" And miss out on candy Lily, we are going trick or treating tonight "" OK let's get some candy. They walked to every house where they lived to get some candy, it wasn't till the tenth house that Billy and Lily felt cat eyes looking at them as they turned around but nothing was there.

"Billy, maybe we should go home now. We have so much candy that the baskets are almost full and I'm scared about what Leo said. He told us to go back home. Maybe we should listen to him." "No, we are trick or treating till midnight okay Lily" "OK fine" Ding dong ding dong the time was now 10:00 two more hours to midnight Billy and Lily should go home now or fear the worst. It was 10:30 when Lily started acting strange

"Billy we need to go home now it's going to be midnight soon and we promised Mom we would be home by midnight" "Lily this is the 3rd time you wanted us to go home Halloween is meant to make people scared we are not going home" Billy grabbed Lily's arm and made them both go to more houses for more candy. Ding dong ding dong the time was now 11:00 if Billy and Lily wouldn't to do Midnight trick or treating they needed to go home if they wanted to be alive to go trick or treating the next year

"OK, Lily we can go home now you can stop asking me" Billy and Lily started walking back to where they lived but the black cat knew they weren't going to do Midnight trick or treating so the cat ran at them as fast as the cat could. Ding dong ding dong its has turned to midnight but Billy and Lily weren't home the Mother didn't worry that much Ding dong ding dong the time was now 12:30 the Mother called them but no one answered Ding dong ding dong the time was now 1:00 but again Billy and Lily didn't come to the house. the mother called the police telling them her twins were missing the police looked and looked for Billy and Lily and they found them by morning but not all of the parts of them the only thing they found of them was their arms and the candy on the floor with the limbs. No one knows what happened to them but they do know that there missing and probably dead. they say if a random cat gives you a paper saying you have to do the Midnight trick or treating you should do it or not do trick or treating at all the year or else you will go missing and probably killed by the black cat like Lily and Billy were.

The Haunted House

By : Alekxavier A [REDACTED]

One halloween night 11:47 PM two trick or treaters named Kuma and Yumi were ready to go home when they saw a haunted house and there was no entry fee so they decided to go in. No one was in line, so they got in automatically, at first it looked like a normal haunted house and when they got deeper into the haunted house, they realized that the haunted house kept going on and on. When they tried to go back the only thing they saw was a wall behind them. When they realized they were stuck they kept walking on until the house ended, yet it kept on going and each room it kept getting scarier and scarier and scarier. When they saw a sign that said exit, they ran towards the door and they were finally out of the maze, but everything changed...

When they were outside they saw that the whole outside world was different. Instead of trick or treaters they saw ghosts of children, slender-man and all the creepy-pasta's that exist in the world. They soon realized that they were the only people in the world who were human and that everyone that was outside had been turned into supernatural things. They realized that because they were inside and they didn't turn into monsters that maybe there is still hope that people were inside when it happened. The trick-or-treaters started looking inside the houses and saw that no one was in their houses at the time...

They knew that because they were in there in their Halloween costumes but they knew that soon the creepy-Pastas would notice that they were humans and attack them. They went into a house and hid there for the night and waited till morning. When they woke up, they realized that it was still night time and it was the morning! When they looked out their window they saw that ALL the Creepy-Pastas were standing all around the house they were in. They realized that the monsters have found out that they were humans so they ran and hid in the basement. It didn't take long for the monsters to find out how to open the door and soon the flood inside the house and look everywhere for the humans but couldn't find them. The teenagers were freaking out and trying to find out where to hide because soon it will be their end...

The teenagers scattered around the basement looking for places to hide and they found hiding spots in the nick of time. The monsters barged into the basement and started their hunt. Yumi was hiding in the washer machine while Kumi was hiding in a cabinet. First, the monster's checked in the closet, no one was there. Second, they checked under the beds. Third, they checked the cabinets and they found their meal and left. Yumi didn't know what was happening but she heard one of the monsters swallow whole, and then all the monsters walked out of the house feeling satisfied. When Yumi got out of the washer machine to check on Kumi to see if he was still there and he wasn't. When Yumi was standing there, petrified of what had happened to Kumi, she was shaking all over her body, she walked up the stairs and all of the monsters were in the attic. The monsters don't know that she is there, nor does she know the monsters are there...

Yumi gets in her costume and goes outside and runs, runs as fast as she can to get away from the house as far as she can go. Soon, Yumi finds herself at the haunted house that started it all. Yumi walks into the entryway of the haunted house and goes in looking at the things in there. She goes through many, many doors and each seems to get friendlier in each room. Finally, Yumi reaches the part of the haunted house that said exit and runs out that door and finds herself in the normal world again. Yumi is so happy she wants to scream thank you out into the open but realizes that she sees humans instead of monsters and creepy-pastas and smiles yet tears start coming from her eyes due to her losing a friend getting out alive...

The haunted dollhouse

A windy and rainy night, Not a single sigh between the empty streets. There were two girls that were alone in the dark on a halloween night. Their names were Annabelle and Coraline. They had been best friends ever since they were born. but eventually they got done with trick or treating. Then they arrived at their next stop, it was the Abandoned house...They watched the gates open, an old door with spider webs and spiders crawling out everywhere.

They were terrified. They took a couple steps towards the front door knowing they are traumatized by old things. They walked up slowly about to open the door but then.. The door creaks open by itself. Going in they heard the door slam shut then they had a scared and shocked look on their faces. They had no flashlights, no water or food, no surviving kit. All alone with nothing.

This abandoned house was set to being haunted with actual ghosts and bats but nobody ever believed it. They didn't think anything of it until they split up..Hearing footsteps approaching around the stairs, creepy doll noises came, but they still saw nothing. Out of nowhere a door opens fast. They went to look inside of the door and saw a dusty old doll. It had old blond hair with a creepy face and one eye missing..

The doll's legs were cracked and you could see the inside of them. They figured out that since there was no way out of this abandoned doll and house they would hold on to this doll until they found a way out.

November 1st, 2010. It was the night after halloween the two girls were still trapped in the abandoned house. They had a creepy doll in their hands and didn't know what to do with it. They heard a noise coming from upstairs.. They went upstairs to go check it out and the piano was playing creepy doll music.

The wind was whooshing and wolves were howling. Still nobody on the streets. The windows were cracked, The tree was falling apart leaves were falling slowly. The doll was still in the girls hand. They looked everywhere for clues but found nothing. They heard footsteps approaching the stairs again but this time..

The footsteps went all the way downstairs. The two girls Annabelle and Coraline hurried and tried to hide. But the footsteps were gone. Then they found a secret room with a code to unlock the door. They hurried and looked around for the code for the door. They realized that there were two of them, 1 piano, 1 tree and 3 spider webs. They typed in 2113 and got it correct. Inside was a machine that looked like it was recently used. They wanted to try it out for themselves. They put the doll that they were holding inside of the machine and turned it on. A creepy old dusty dollhouse appeared with red spots and writing all over it. The doll had disappeared inside of the dollhouse. They had wondered what would happen if one of them went inside of the machine. So Annabelle went inside of the machine and Coraline turned it on.. Annabelle had turned into a doll.Coraline took annabelle and placed her in the dollhouse and Coraline knew her family didn't like her anyways so she decided to turn into a doll with her.

After that the abandoned house was known now as the Abandoned Doll house.

There was a small town called Arnis where two homies lived. Their names were Lyndon and boyd. In that town there were always reports of paranormal activity in an old woman's house. Her name was Michelle guymuncher.

She was basically a freak, then one day at school some kids asked Lyndon to go to her house when she was not home. The bet was money and of course lyndon did it. His friend boyd told him to also look into her mirror and say "bloody mary" three times looking straight at his reflection. That night Lyndon went into the house and the old woman was gone. He went to the bathroom and said the words "bloody mary, bloody mary, bloody mary". He started looking hard at his reflection and realized. It wasn't moving at all. Just standing there his reflection had the darkest grin on him. Lyndon screamed in fear then seconds later he ran out the house and dropped dead in front of his friends. Boyd's jaw dropped. Then another friend, Drake called the cops and the cops never arrived.

Boyd ran home and told his mom everything. His mom thought he was lying and didn't believe him. Boyd went to bed that night scared for his life thinking that the same thing might happen to anyone. He got no sleep at all, at school something happened that shocked everyone. Lyndon was there. Boyd passed out. Lyndon woke him up. Lyndon explained to Boyd what actually happened and Lyndon did not die that night at the house, he just fainted because of how scared he was. Boyd was so relieved. But felt a little feeling of suspicion. His mom started pushing him and then he woke up. And realized it was just a dream. He walked outside and saw missing posters of lyndon everywhere. That old woman was walking outside of her house again and said " look in the basement". Boyd freaked out and ran home. He went to his basement and saw Lyndon tied up dead hanging from the ceiling.

He was blamed for the crime and went to jail as a juvenile. Him and his mom begged but the judge didn't listen.

The book

It was 1:00 am on April 13, 1930, Nancy got up and called her friends and said "Hey get up we got to load up our boxes into the truck so we can move into our new house" Jorge and Lisa said "alright i'm getting ready". Nancy slipped on some pj shorts and her shoes and tought on a white tee and went outside. Nancy walked to the moving truck and opened the back then made her way to the garage and opened it with the code 2010, she went in the garage and started grabbing her boxes and she put them in the truck.

Nancy then went inside and grabbed the keys and opened the truck door and got in. Nancy drove to her friend Lisa's house first and helped her grab her boxes and then they drove to Jorge's house. They helped him with his boxes and then they were on their way to their new house. April 14, 1930 4:00 Am they arrived. Nancy walked up to the door and stuck the keys in and opened the door a big whoosh of wind came and the dark misty dust came "cough cough" and then they saw a book lying right in front of the door. She picked up the book and showed it to her friends. Lisa said "hmm i think the people who lived here before us left it, just throw it away" Nancy said "No i want to read it". April 20, 1930 Nancy and Lisa and Jorge modeled their house and have been there for a week, although she still has the book not open. 8:00 Am Nancy was finishing making coffee and walked up the stairs and went into her room and picked up the book she took it to her friend's and said "Hey let's read this tonight it says some weird things in a weird language.... Haha".

April 20, 1930 7:00pm, Nancy walks in her room and grabs the book, goes to her friends rooms and tells them to come down stairs. They all sit down and Nancy opens the book they all start laughing Nancy flips through the pages and sees all that is written is Israel 3 times on every page she tells her friends and they say "so read it" Nancy says the name out loud ISRAEL ISRAEL ISRAEL, SMASH CLASH BANG "OMG" our glasses who left the cabinet open ? DARK LIGHT "AHHHHHHHHHHHHH", a whisper came to all their ears "ISRAEL" a dark face skinny tall demon with sharp long claws came out of the kitchen and came running at them, they quickly got up and ran up the stairs and went into a bedroom. Jorge blocked the door protecting the girls then and there Nancy remembered the people who lived here died and the other people and the other people so they couldn't have left the book that's also why people wouldn't move here. Nancy thought to herself put two and two together and found out that the people had died of the book THEY HAVE TO GET RID OF IT. Nancy told Lisa and Jorge they had to destroy the book now, but by then the demon was there at the door and stabs through the door with his claws "JORGE" Nancy and Lisa looked down and saw the long boldly silver claws through Jorge's stomach his blood spilling down his body and before he died he whispered (Run).

Nancy and Lisa had no time to wait they said their goodbyes and ran to the window opened it and climbed on to the roof, they had to get back to the living room to the book so they ran across the roof and went through the window to the living room grabbed the book Israel came from the corner Nancy tried to run but israel stabbed her in the leg but Lisa grabbed her and they ran through the hallway into the garage and hid the book in the linens and grabbed the gun in the safety kit they made just for a situation. Lisa had baby oil in her room so she ran and grabbed it as Israel chased her while Lisa was hiding behind the garage door. Nancy ran into her room and grabbed the supplies as she ran back down the stairs Israel stopped her and swang, but Lisa slipped right under him his clause cutting a strand of her long hair. Nancy got to the garage slamming the door poured it on the floor as fast as she could and shot the propane tank they had in the garage corner and the that part of the house lit on fire Lisa ran into the hall and grabbed the book from the linens and through it in the fire and they ran outside as the house was burning to the bone.

Nancy and Lisa sat outside crying and sobbing, staring at the house burn to ash till the fire men showed up and put the fire out and the house was ash with nothing left but Jorge's bracelet that he had been wearing that night Nancy picked up the bracelet and put on.

May 19, 2010 Nancy and Lisa are still sad about Jorge but they will never forget the horror of that night on April 20, 1930. But, that day after Nancy and Lisa had left to the hotel the fire man had to pick up, one of the firemen found something they took it home and later that night he opened it and read the words ISRAEL ISRAEL ISREAL. He and his 9 year old daughter and his wife died that night in the year 2010 but nothing was left but the book. As it lies there in the dirt by the bodies of Dan, Lara, and their daughter. It flips to the middle around the book is a quiet and sleepy neighborhood, the wind comes down and the book says 2010 the lair was found. I did and did you all lose.

The monster

One Halloween day Christine decided not to celebrate Halloween this year she forgot that Halloween is part of her tradition, on Monday November 31, 2003 she closed everything in her house and she went to bed, she started to sleep, she started to dream, that she left her house like leaving her house she has a cave that everyone said that there is a climb, so she took her coach, she entered the cave in the dark. when she wants to go approaching the crust she hears a noise, she perseveres after so she sees a red light and it shows it.

The monster begins to pursue her and there is a neighbor who heard noises he called the police, the police and then came immediately they entered the cave with weapons, they discovered the girl already dead, the girl is now awake screaming. she calls her mother, her mother now comes to her room she starts to explain to her mother, her mother says that it's because she refused to celebrate Halloween with them that's just what she did dream.

Mother: Do you want to go to a doctor for mental help?

Girl: she no she just wants to stay at home alone

Mother: okay .the next day around 4:30 p.m. It started to rain very hard and we suddenly lit it the port opened it left closed it opened when it returned to leave after the light and fell, everything I started to move in the house, I started to be afraid when I went upstairs I started to hear a voice as if it was my mother but it wasn't her, she was hiding from me in the toilet. After the show he started to walk in the house then as I entered that's how he walked in the house to look for me, so something and fell into the toilet so he went back to enter the toilet, as there is two doors at the toilet I exited through the other port.

I started running all over the neighborhood, he was behind me, chasing me, he caught me and killed me. At night people found blood everywhere in the neighborhood with my body, people called the police, they blocked the whole neighborhood ,they called all my family. afterward they carried out the investigation as he had no warning. This is how I was buried, and my parents changed neighborhoods so that the bad memories wouldn't come back.

thanks for reading until the end

The Orphanage

A group of 5 teenagers decided to spend the night on Halloween in an old burnt-down orphanage that everyone claimed to be haunted. They intended to prove them wrong. As they approached the gate, it creaked open by itself. One of the group members remarked, "This isn't even haunted or scary. Let's go explore." As they were exploring, one of them got lost, causing the group to panic and search for her.

They find the girl scrunched up and they decide to leave the orphanage but as they try to open the door it doesn't open and they are now trapped in the place. They all get scared but one of the group members stands up saying that they should just wait until the morning. So the group agrees and they start telling scary stories. As they tell their stories one of them leaves to find a bathroom and after a while, they notice that their friend hasn't come back and seconds later they hear screaming.

They ran to check it out only to find their poor friend's hair clip. They look around looking for their friend but can't find her. So they make desperate attempts to leave the orphanage but nothing works. They get even more scared when they hear a child's voice and one of them decides to check it out. As he goes he's a dripping noise he goes and finds out that the dripping noise... It's their friend and before he can scream he is grabbed and he also goes missing. The group noticed that it had been 15 minutes since he left to check out the screaming and he had not returned.

They decide to go look for him but there are only three of them left as they go look for him one of them falls through a board hurting themselves but tells the other two "Go keep looking for them. I'll be fine". As she says that she hears something eerie and gets scared calling for the others but her screams are not heard. She is also talking like the other two. Two friends can't find them so they go back to the hole calling the girl's name. "Becky, Becky! Where are you, where did you go," they said but then the boy slipped on something and he got up and looked at his hand only seeing blood. The two then realize that the reason no one comes into the orphanage is because no one gets out.

They then recall the story the teacher had read to them about the Abyss. They heard it was a monster that took, killed, and stuck to ceilings for a meal later. They then realize that they aren't safe splitting up because the abyss attacks when you are alone and it is always watching you and always knows what you are going to do. The two are scared to realize that the monster is real. They think back to the story forgetting the main thing about the abyss but can't remember.

As they walk back one of them remembers something about the abyss he then says "The abyss eats the bones of its victims so it can fit in their body". The girl then reveals that she is in the abyss and only revealed it because he was close to finding out. The boy then realizes that he is the last victim and everyone is already dead. He ran like hell when the abyss showed its dark goopy body and chased him. The abyss knew the halls better than anyone and the abyss caught its prey right as morning came, the abyss already had killed and eaten the 5 teens. You may be wondering how the Abyss got the first girl. Well, it all happened when her bullies chased her into the orphanage and it didn't take long before the girl I mean the Abyss walked out, luring more teens to their demise.

The Purple Man

It was a bright and sunny day until a dark turn took place. As I rode my bike through the neighborhood on Halloween day, my friends and I decided we wanted to go to Spirit Halloween, the costume store. We continue peddling for about 25 minutes to the other side of town. My friends and I noticed a black cat walking in the middle of the street with its glowing yellow eyes. It startled us initially because we thought it was a child crawling, but it turned out it was a harmless cat. Or was it? I'm just joking we're most definitely sure it was an ordinary cat.

We finally made it to Spirit Halloween! As Nora, Aria, and I walk in, we see all of the cool animatronics welcoming us into the creepy but fun store. Nora and Aria go to the mask section to get the skeleton mask we all need for our matching costumes. I walk to the back of the store in hopes of finding something creepy to show Nora and Aria. Instead, I find this creepy pathway to the outside of the store. There was a purple drape you had to open to get in the doorway. The hallway was dark and eerily cold. You notice after a while that there are glowing yellow and white eyes coming from the walls. I take one step into the hallway, and I get chills throughout my body. The cold dark hallway has a magnetic pull almost like it wants me to come into the door on the other side. I walk closer, and closer with each step I take. The eyes start following me as I walk down the very long hallway. I can hear Nora and Aria saying, "Where did Ava go?" and "I just saw her." I feel bad for leaving them, but I decide to keep going.

After what felt like forever, I finally made it to the other side of the hallway. There is a massive purple door with a key already in the lock. I turn the lock, and I open the huge door slowly. I see spiders crawling away from the bottom of the door, bats, and little crawling creatures all scattered around. I scream in fear, "AHHH!" I shut the door as quickly as possible in fear of getting bitten by a creature. I decided to go back in once I heard all the rustling stop. I open the door one last time, and "SLAM." The door shuts right behind me as I walk into the eerie dusty room. There are candles everywhere, and salt in the shape of a star under the candles. "It seems like there are people doing seances here," I say frightened. Cobwebs fill the corners of the room, with dust and dead ants filling the stringy web.

I continue walking in the big room, and I come to find a mirror with writing on it. It says in a red liquid, "You're next." At least I hope it is just red liquid... or is it blood? Who knows. I explore more of the very dark room, and I notice a black glove sitting on the floor. It was dusty and had (hopefully) red lipstick on it. I pick it up and put it in my bag. As I put it in my bag, I hear footsteps. They are coming from beyond the darkness. I assume it was probably some rats or raccoons, but that was nothing compared to what it was. I hurry and I run with my bright yellow flashlight to the darkness, and I see a massive, huge, great big skinny man. His skin was purple with rough patches of orange and red stains. He sees me peeking around the corner and starts coming closer to me. In fear, I start running back as he catches up to me way quicker than I expected. I keep running until I get back to the great big purple door, but it's locked. I panic and reach for my phone. I try to call Nora but my phone is completely shut off. I start screaming in fear, "SOMEONE HELP! PLEASE!" I can hear the purple man getting closer to me. I hear him yell, "YOU'RE NEXT LITTLE ONE." I panic and start picking up rocks. I clear out everything in my bag, and I dump all the rocks I have, into the bag. I run over the the corner of the room and I wait for the man to finish running to me.

As I'm waiting, I hear noises coming from the purple door. I recognize them! It was the voices of Nora and Aria! They came looking for me! I run back up the door and start screaming again. "NORA! ARIA! HELP ME!" They finally hear my faint voice. Nora and Aria start banging on the door. The purple man is in the same room. I can hear him. He's breathing on my neck. He takes his long purple stick finger and begins lightly touching my neck. He whispers, "You here with me now, let us play." Then he smiles creepily. I scream and shout for Nora and Aria to hear me. I can't hear their voices. I get more frightened and begin hyperventilating as this large skinny purple man carries me back to the other side of the long room. I scream and cry, "SOMEONE ANYONE PLEASE HELP ME!!"

He ties me to the dusty wooden chair. He starts pouring a circle of salt around the chair. I tried pulling and tugging on the thick rope but nothing seemed to work. He finishes pouring salt and I start crying thinking of my family. "What if I never got to say goodbye?" I think to myself. The Purple man puts candles all around me and takes out this sharp wooden stick knife-looking thing. He puts it against my neck and starts chanting exotic phrases. I cry in fear. "I am about to die," I think in my head. The purple man looks at me and says, "I told you that you were next." I scream as he takes the sharp wooden tool, and pierces my neck. I started losing my vision, and a black fog came rushing into my eyesight. Soon enough, my eyesight went out and I collapsed into the chair. I finally felt at ease and did not panic. "I hope Nora and Aria find me." and "I love you, Mom and Dad." Those were my last thoughts. That was the story of my past life. I now live in the afterlife world where all of the people who were murdered, are now trapped here.

I hope you enjoyed this hopefully spooky story!! Thank you!

THE THING IN THE NIGHT

"IN THE COLD CLOUDY NIGHT, YOU CAN HEAR QUERY UNFORGETTABLE SIGHTS, BUT YOU CAN NEVER FORGET THE NIGHT, THE NIGHT WHERE EVERYTHING GOES WRONG, THE NIGHT WITH A GROUP OF FRIENDS, WHEN THE THING THAT COMES OUT AT NIGHT..."

ONE DAY A GROUP OF FRIENDS WERE TRICK-OR-TREATING ALL ALONE. THE SUN HAD BEEN SETTING CLOSE TO AROUND 7 O'CLOCK IN THE NIGHT. THE FOUR GROUP OF FRIENDS HAD BEEN EXCITED ABOUT THIS NIGHT, BUT SOON REGRETTEED THE NIGHT THEY HAD MET THE THING WITH UNFORGETTABLE SIGHTS...

THE FOUR FRIENDS IN THE GROUP NAMES WERE MASON, JAXSON, KENDALL, AND NEYOHMI. THEY ARE ALL 13 YEARS OLD. FOR SOME REASON THEY HAD DECIDED TO GO ALL BY THEMSELVES. NOT EXPECTING WHAT WOULD HAPPEN TONIGHT. THEY STARTED OFF ON THE WEST SIDE OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD WHERE IT WAS CALM AND FULL OF THE CHILDREN'S CHEERS IN THE NIGHT. THEY HAD GAINED SO MUCH CANDY THROUGHOUT THE NIGHT. WITH JOY AND CARE KNOWING THEY WERE GOING TO GET MORE CANDY, THEY HANDED OUT CANDY TO ALL OF THE LITTLE CHILDREN.

THEY ALL THEN WENT TO THE SOUTH SIDE FOR MORE CANDY. NOT GETTING VERY MUCH AS LAST TIME, THE NIGHT HAD GOTTEN COLD AND QUIET. NOBODY IN SIGHT, JUST A FLICKERING LIGHT POST. ALL THE CANDY AT THE DOORS WERE GONE, ALL OF THE CHILDREN'S JOY AND LAUGHTER, GONE!

YOU COULD NOT HEAR ANYTHING AT NIGHT, EXCEPT ONE THING, THE THING IN THE NIGHT. SUDDENLY, THEY ALL WANTED TO GO HOME AND JUST WATCH NETFLIX AND CHILL THEN, THEIR STOMACHS GET QUERY, THEY GET SCARED, BUT MOST OF ALL, JAXSON WENT MISSING. THE STREET LIGHT STOPPED FLICKERING AND STAYED OFF. THE ONLY SOURCE OF LIGHT THEY HAVE IS THE RED EYES OF THE THING IN THE NIGHT STARING AT YOU STRAIGHT AHEAD...

EVERYONE WAS FROZEN, FROZEN IN THE COLD COLD CLOUDY NIGHT. NO ONE KNEW WHAT TO DO. SUDDENLY, THE THING IN THE NIGHT WAS GONE. KENDALL WAS SHAKEN, NOT KNOWING WHERE HER LOVER HAD GONE. THEN MASON HAD DISAPPEARED. ONE BY ONE, THE CHILDREN WERE BEING TAKEN, IN THE COLD COLD CLOUDY NIGHT.

KENDALL AND NEYOHMI WERE BOTH SHAKEN, NOT KNOWING WHERE THEIR LOVERS HAD GONE. OUT OF NOWHERE, THE TWO TEENAGE GIRLS COULD SEE THE THING IN THE NIGHT, BIG AND CLEAR LIKE GLASS. THE THING WAS ABOUT TWELVE FEET TALL, AND WIDE AS A CAR. THE THING HAD BEEN WEARING A DARK BLACK VEIL. NOT KNOWING WHAT TO DO, KENDALL AND NEYOHMI WERE TERRIFIED, FROZEN, STARING INTO THE SOUL OF THE THING IN THE NIGHT.

SUDDENLY, THE NIGHT WAS SILENT IN THE COLD COLD CLOUDY NIGHT. WITH NO ONE IN SIGHT ON THE STREET, THERE WAS THE THING IN THE NIGHT, WITH THE DEAD CORPSES OF MASON, JAXSON, KENDALL, AND NEYOHMI...

I caught a furtive movement from the corner of my eye. I gasped and turned, and again caught a brief glimpse. It looked like... a huge spider scurrying toward me, and then it vanished into the mist. My heart pounded as I quickened my pace. I don't know what to do. Currently I am hiding from the spider, I'm sitting underneath the local dumpster and at this moment it stinks. I haven't heard anything recently, I do think I have a chance of surviving. Maybe I'm sleep dreaming, (pinches arm) ahh man I guess this is a real life nightmare. I'm gonna head to bed after this, I found an old bed I can maybe sleep on, or I'll sleep in a random car and hide.

At 2:00 am in the morning, I couldn't fall asleep, I started to hear some noises. This random lady came to the car window and told me I needed to hide. But right there and then I saw her get sucked into the concrete. I decided to fall asleep. And then in the morning I decided that If I go to the store and get a pumpkin I can carve it to be a mask cause all I see is monsters. They are all weird and creepy and there's a vampire that's chasing me. He wants to suck my blood, that's weird why did these people turn into monsters.

Later that day I decided to try on the pumpkin mask with a scary scarecrow costume. I got everything I needed, I looked so cool, I took pictures and posted on instagram because I look so spooky. I decided to wander around, I also got food and a voice changing box. No one was at the stores because they all went missing, or so I thought since there's been flyers everywhere saying missing a year ago.

At 1:23 am I heard more noises, so I started to look around. I was just walking and I saw the Spider again. Turned into fog this time why didn't it turn into a mist. I found out that the girls disappeared with mist and the boys disappeared with fog. I decided to walk and I ended up talking to the spider girl. The scariest thing in my life because the voice box almost showed my real voice. I was so scared I ran off and the pumpkin head was so heavy I couldn't take it off because I felt like I was being watched. Turns out there was a big pile of bats in the tree looking at me.

I realized that there were about a thousand people coming off the local bus. I thought to myself for a second because that is so weird who wants to be stuck here.

I head to bed in the same car, I realize it was moved. WHO used my car like it doesn't belong to you. I just woke up and it's currently 3:23 am and y'all there is some weird sketchy, dark black shadow behind the car. I slowly hide and get down. I fell asleep again and woke up. I eat my food I have been saving for a while. Mhm it was so good I finally ate it after 7 days. I had so many fruit vegetables, the weird thing was it had body parts and for soda it was blood. I couldn't find any water.

The next day I realized I was being lied to by being in this world, there had to be a way out if I got in here. You can't just appear in a weird scary world. I saw the spider person and I didn't have my costume on. I was tired of this stupid spider chasing me. I was tired. I almost got eaten. I blinked and I realized that the spider person grabbed my leg. I grabbed the voice box quickly and said "I am part of your world I'm going to the human world to grab children"

I was let go and I ran to the bus. I told that I needed to run and get on the bus and hide. The monster world was what I was stuck in. I am so relieved that I don't have to go back. I wish it was a dream, I am so excited to live my life again.

I walked back to the bus with all my stuff and got on, I blinked because there was something in my eye. I look back and I see the Spider person again. I found out that the bush drive was the girl that got sucked into the concrete. I'm so glad she saved my life. I looked and told her to close the door. As she closed the door she cut three legs off the spider. Then a second mist appeared.

The missing girls

Athena, Emily, Joenalyn, Alexis, and Ellissa, were all in class when we saw a new kid enter the class. She looked nervous, we invited her to come to sit with us because she did not have any friends. We all introduced ourselves, she invited us to her house. We all said yes and she said she would pick us up to go to her house after school she said we had to meet in the back of the school where no one could see us. We said okay when it got to the end of the day, we went to her car, and she asked "Did anyone see you guys" She looked scared. "No one saw us why is it so important if someone sees us," Emily said. Alexis stood up and said, "Look you rat tell us why you can't let anyone see us are you trying to take us or something?" I looked at Alexis with surprise, "ALEXIS, you can't say that to her she's new." She apologized, we did not say anything to her the whole car ride. Once we got to her house, the house did not look like a normal house. It looked really old like it was going to collapse soon.

She brought us into her house, "Sorry about the mess we are still unpacking." The girls said. Athena whispered in Alexis's ear "You know what I think is weird is that she did not tell us her name, we don't know this girl we don't know her name ." Me and Alexis told Emily, Ellissa, and Joenalyn what we thought. " It's fine it's not like she will hurt us we are fine," Emily said but we know that she did not mean what she said she looked terrified. "Let me bring you my room, I think you will like it a lot." The girl said. We followed her to her room. We got to her room and she said " Don't you like it" She stared at us. " where is your mom?" Elissa asked her. She stopped staring at us and said " She is at the store, why do you want to know." She looked at us she looked mad like she was going to hurt us. "I just wanted to know," Ellissa said. " Follow me I want to show you guys something. She led us to a dark room that had spider webs, it was just like a horror movie. She opened the door and told us to come with her. Once we got to the room she gave us one flashlight. She pushed Alexis down to the dark room, I noticed something as she shut the door there were no stairs. The girl slammed the door.

"WHY WOULD YOU DO THAT" Joenalyn screamed, the rest of us looked shocked. The girl did not say anything she opened the door and pushed Joenalyn down into the dark room with no stairs. Emily tried to run the girl captured her and brought her to a different room. The girl threw Emily into the closet. "Would you like to play a game." The girl said, " Yeah we would love to play a game," Athena and Elissa said. "Who can survive longer," Athena and Ellissa looked at each other.

They woke up the next morning in their house. They went to school like it was a normal day. They hung out, but they did not notice that Joenalyn, Emily, and Alexis weren't there. It was like they were not alive like they did not exist. "Where are Alexis, Emily, and Joenalyn," Athena said looking around the room. "Who are they?" Elissa said looking at Athena in curiosity. "Nevermind I think I might be hallucinating," Athena said. After school, Athena went to the house in her dream. She went inside the house and went to the room where the random girl dropped Joenalyn, and Alexis in the dark room with no stairs. She grabbed a flashlight and started looking in a dark room with no stairs and she saw..... Nothing. She went to the next room where Emily got locked in the closet and again she saw nothing. She questioned everything about her dream. Was it real? Was it just a dream? What happened to Joenalyn, Alexis, and Emily?

Kidnapped

There are two children that live in a 2 story house in Washington. The backyard has a forest that is 100 miles long. The forest has been there for many many years and it is named Gifford Pinchot National Forest. The two children are named Lily and Leo. The children are 12 years old and they are both twins. Lily is a very nice girl and she wears clothes that are dresses and skirts. Leo on the other hand is also nice and he wears very nice clothes such as flannel shirts and pants.

It was a warm day on October 23, when two children named Lily and Leo went to the forest that is behind their backyard. "Let's play tag again in the forest!" said Lily. "Ok." said Leo walking to the forest. Leo is always the first one to be the tagger. Where the tagger stands is where the fence is to the backyard, and where the runner hides is in the forest. While Lily was running in the forest she said "Heh, you can't catch me." Leo started counting.

"One!.... Two!..... Three!.....Four!.....Five!....." said Leo. While Leo was counting Lily was running very fast and deep into the forest. "Hehe I am never going to found." said Lily after finding her hiding spot. "READY OR NOT HERE I COME!" said Leo running into the forest. A few minutes later "I SEE YOUUUUU!!!!" said Leo pointing to Lily. "EEKK!! N-no you don't!" Lily said, yelling. After they both started running even faster they only paid attention to the ground so they wouldn't trip over branches. After a while Leo stopped running and then Lily stopped too. "Hey- did you notice that it is starting to get dark very fast?" said Leo looking around. "Ya I have..... and where are we?" said Lily in wonder. "I have no clue." said Leo.

After looking around some more they noticed an abandoned house that they had seen before when they were exploring the forest with their parents. Something was different about the abandoned house, it seemed more lively than before. So they both started walking very quietly to the house with curiosity. "I think this house looks very different from before." said Lily quietly. "I think so too." said Leo. After they explored the outside of the house, an old man came out. The old man looked to be in his 70's to 80's. He is wearing a normal old gray shirt and wearing blue jeans. After Lily and Leo saw him they both hid against a wall.

A few minutes later, the two twins looked over the corner to see what the man was doing. When they looked the man wasn't there, so Lily started to freak out. "W-W-Where di-did he go?" said Lily in a quivering voice. "Shh, he may still be out there and no, I don't know where he is." Leo said, putting his index finger to his mouth. After Leo said that, they both heard a cracking sound behind them. They both turned around and they found that the man that they were looking for was right behind them. Lily screamed when she saw the old man because the man looked very scary, his face was giving off a why are you here and I will kill you look. She was also screaming because when the man came out of the house he was holding nothing and now the man was holding a very big knife in his right hand.

"AHHH!" screamed Lily. "Sorry we don't mean no harm so please let us be." said Leo, scaredly. Leo was about to grab Lily's hand and run, but before he could the man raised his left hand and hit their neck. The first one the man hit was Leo because his guard was down, then he hit Lily. They both blacked out and fell onto the ground. "I know you don't mean any harm but I will do harm to you." said the man.

A few hours later Lily woke up, she noticed that her hands were tied up. When she was looking around she noticed that there were crystals growing out of the ground, the wall's were round and that it was very cold. Then she spotted Leo laying on the cold ground and his hands were also tied up. "Leo!..... Leo!.....LEO!" screamed Lily trying to wake him up. Yet he didn't even move. The first thought that came to her head was "Is he dead? He doesn't look like he is breathing!" So she started scooting towards Leo. Then when she got to Leo she started shaking him with her foot. "Come onnn..... Wake UP PLEASE!!!!!!" After shaking Leo a few times he woke up. "Mmmm? What is it?" Leo said while still waking up "Get up and get yourself together do you not remember what happened?!" screamed Lily with anger and frustration. " Oh! I do remember. Are we in a cave?" Asked Leo. "I think so, and we need to get out of here." Lily said in a hurry.

Right when Lily said that the old man came walking in the cave holding his knife. When they both saw him the both started scooting backwards to the sharp crystals. When they reached the crystals they started to cut the rope that bound their hands. "Well. Well what do we have here?" said the man. No one answered him. "Well? Answer!" the man said, pointing the knife to Lily. " NO, I don't have to say anything to you!" said Lily. While the old man was starting to get irritated, Lily grabbed the crystal and broke it and Leo heard the cracking sound. " What are you doing?" said Leo whispering. " You will see." Lily said with a smirk. "HEEY! Stop Talking!" said the scary old man. "No I won't!" Said Lily launching towards the man holding the sharp crystal. "NOO! Lily STOP RUNNING!" said Leo screaming with tears in his eyes.

Lily did not listen to her brother because she was thinking "I got this. If I kill him we can go back home." But her plan did not work. Right when she got close to the old man, the old man stabbed her right in the lungs. Then she looked at Leo saying "I guess my plan didn't work hehe." said Lily crying and blood coming out of her mouth. "NOO Lily why?" Leo said, crying. Then the old man turned the knife and pulled it out. Lily didn't have time to answer and then she fell to the ground. "Hahaha! That's what she gets!" said the old man "WHAT DID SHE EVER DID TO YOU SHE DIDN'T DESERVE IT?!! WHY just why?" said Leo in confusion while crying. Then you could hear the sound of rain pouring hard. But before he got the chance to answer a group of cops showed up behind the old man. "Put your hands up, you are under arrest Randall Woodfield" said the group of cops. Then the man tried to throw the knife that he was holding at them, but the cops shot him before he could throw the knife. Then the cops ran to the boy and the dead child. "Who was he? Why did he kill Lily? Why just why?!" Leo said thinking and crying , staring into space. Then he heard one of those cops talking to another cop saying " We finally caught him after he had killed 44 people." "So he was a murder huh? That figures. Only if I didn't say ok to her to play tag this wouldn't have happened." thought Leo. Then Leo got home safe and sound without Lily in the pitch black with the cops. Nothing will ever be the same again, he never went into the forest again, he was the only child now and he started having therapy.
