

Address Health Concerns Early:

- Ensure your child maintains good physical and mental health. Address any health issues promptly and communicate with the school about absences due to illness.
- Make sure your child receives regular health check-ups and vaccinations.
- Teach your child the importance of good hygiene to prevent the spread of illness.