

Positive Learning Environment:

- Set up a quiet and comfortable study space at home where your child can complete homework.
- Minimize distractions, such as TV and electronic devices, during study hours.
- Work with your child to set achievable academic and attendance goals. Celebrate their successes and provide support if they face challenges.