Learning Behaviour - Respectful/Resilient/Resourceful/Reflective/Relationships

Class	Child's Name	Type of Merit	Merit
3E	Zahra & Lucy	Resilient & Respectful	For having a resilient attitude towards their learning. Both Zahra and Lucy try very hard with their learning but are also very kind, respectful members of 3E.
3H	Anvitha and Grayson	Resilient and Respectful	These children have a wonderful attitude towards their learning. They always do their best and show resilience when they find something challenging. Keep it up!
3G	Mariyana & Sumaiyah	Resilient, Do concentrate	These girls have put a tremendous effort into their writing of the Rama & Sita story. They focused on their learning without distractions and showed off their writing talents. Keep up that wonderful effort, girls!
4K	Mia	Do be kind and helpful	For being a positive and cheerful member of 4K who is always willing to help others, make good choices and uplift those around her.
	Viviksha	Reflective	For taking a more reflective approach to her learning and actively deciding to put in greater effort in all her independent work.
4D	Yaseen	Reflective	Yaseen has shown a positive attitude to learning and is willing to try new things. Ms Stott
4D	Aadhya, Bosley and Kiaan	5Rs	Aadhya, Bosley and Kiaan are wonderful role models for 4D. They are very respectful members of the class and are always kind to others. Thank you for setting such a positive example for others.
4U	Elvis, Rudra nsh, Ritika, Anvita	Respectful	All of the children who came on our trip to the British museum were very well behaved but it made my heart sing when Mrs Stott told me about her team and how the Hobbits (table name) were so well behaved that she had to tell me. Thank you for being so wonderful and representing park hill so well when out on a trip!

	Molinae, Angel and Scarlett	responsible	These girls have been putting in time and effort in preparation for helping to run an assembly next week. They have been diligently using their time to prepare and get ready to present on Tuesday. Well done girls.
5F	Nefeli	Resilience	Nefeli has proved the value of a growth mindset this week. After looking over her arithmetic paper, instead of feeling downhearted about any question she may have gotten wrong, she asked for help from the teacher and chose to practise these maths skills at home with her CGP books. Amazing resilience and determination Nefeli, well done.
	Vihaan	Resourceful Respectful	Vihaan has been trying really hard to exhibit wonderful learning behaviour this week. He has been quiet and focussed, and as a result wrote a great letter in English, drew a perfect bar graph in Science, and has mastered equivalent fractions in Maths! Well done Vihaan!
5L	Vivaan	Respectful and resourceful.	Vivaan is a kind pupil who has recently taken the initiative as a class book keeper to make sure that 5L know where different books in the classroom are. He is also always hugely respectful and asks me every day how my lunchtime has been. Thank you, Vivaan!
	Adan	Respectful and Resourceful	Adan is an excellent role model for 5L. She is kind, respectful and always gives good answers in class. Recently, Adan has taken responsibility as ZOR monitor to make sure that everyone in the class has shown which Zone of Regulation they are in. Thank you!
5P	Keya	Reflective and Respect	Keya shared a wonderful start to a story she wrote in her Early morning learning earlier in the week. Thank you for believing in yourself Keya, 5P loved hearing your fantastic writing and were inspired!
	Anaya	Teamwork and reflective	Anaya has been working really well in her DT group over the last few weeks. Anaya took time to amend any changes to the group design at home as well as voicing brilliant ideas for her group to build on in school. Well done Anaya and thank you for setting a great example.
6A	Ritisha and Ahmed	Resilient	Both Ritisha and Ahmed showed fantastic active listening skills in Art to create their own intricate bronze plaques.
	Prishti and Pritha		We are sad to see you both go. You have been wonderful additions to PHJS but know you will both thrive in your new school. Keep smiling and keep being you!
