

WHAT'S BEEN GOING ON IN YOUR ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS?

Above: Maury City Elementary celebrated several of its students for reaching their Accelerated Reader goals; pictured is just one of several groups to attain their prizes.

Above: Maury City Elementary celebrated its Character winners for the month, highlighting the trait of being respectful.

By Ron Barry

Several special days, projects, and people have been the cause for recent celebrations at the three elementary schools in the Crockett County School District. Here are just a few of the photographic highlights...

Above: Friendship Elementary hosted its annual Thanksgiving meal for students, families, and guests.

Above: Gadsden Elementary also had a special Thanksgiving Feast Day for its students, families, and guests.

Above: Gadsden Elementary is having a 4-H service project for 4th and 5th graders, collecting items for Kirkland Cancer Center patients.

Right: Friendship Elementary held an Open Library Night with games, snacks, and lots of fun, all encouraging kids to read.

Above: Maury City Elementary students had a special take-home reading challenge during the Thanksgiving break.

Above: Gadsden Elementary selected third grade educator Laura Ann Nanney as its Teacher of the Year for 2023-24.

Above: Friendship Elementary named STEM instructor Amanda Masters as its Teacher of the Year for 2023-24.