CLASSROOM NEWS

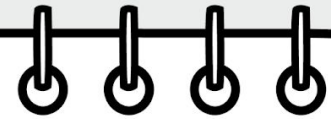

Math- We are learning different strategies for multiplying larger numbers. We are also reviewing area, perimeter, and number stories.

Reading- We have just started our 4th unit. The focus in this unit is on different points of view and making inferences.

Writing- We have been focusing on opinion writing. Specifically justifying our opinions with reasons and examples.

Science- We have just started our new science unit about how the surface of the earth changes. We will be learning about weathering, erosion, and how earthquakes and volcanoes change our environments.

Second Step- We have been learning about ways to keep our emotion and logic centers in our brains balanced.
