Picture retake day

We have scheduled picture retake day for Tuesday 12/12/23.

We asked when we can expect parents to get pictures and Ripcho explained they would send the school pictures to proof the week of November 6th. We will review and send back. Hopefully this process allows for enough time for parents to get their pictures and decide if they want retakes or not. If this does not allow enough time for parents to review their pics we will push the retake day back. Obviously any students who missed the first picture day will get pictures on retake day.
