882 By the Numbers:

ISD 882 is home to one high school, one middle school, two 1-5 elementary schools, and one state-of-the-art pre-k and kindergarten building.

Monticello School District organized in 1861 and has been home to an average of 4,100 kids annually in recent years, as well as nearly 700 full-time employees. The district is governed by a six-member school board.

Monticello consistently ranks in the top 50 school districts in the state as measured by a number of organizations and metrics, and performs well above the state average in graduation rates, test scores, and early college opportunities.
