In this zoom presentation 2nd Mate Elizabeth Livi, a 2019 USMMA graduate will join the conversation to discuss how the Academy's Maritime Logistics and Security major prepared her for a career as a Navigation Officer. Elizabeth Livi currently works for Masters Mates and Pilots, serves as a US Navy Strategic Sealift Officer and is currently undergoing the process to become a Captain. She is excited to talk about the upward mobility and growth potential within the maritime industry.

Join the call to hear more about her time at sea which includes traveling the world aboard ships sailing the Pacific, Mediterranean, Atlantic and Persian Gulf.
