A MESSAGE FROM GEOFF MARSH
HEAD OF FRENSHAM SCHOOLS

The great strength of Frensham Schools is its vibrant community of loyal Old Girls and families, and, of course, its students and passionate teachers.

Our vision for the future of Frensham Schools is one of continuous excellence and growth. Guided by our motto, 'In Love Serve One Another', we aim to create an environment where our students strive for the best in all aspects of their lives. We foster a culture that inspires them to make a difference in the world and contribute positively to society.

The Winifred West Legacy, named in Miss West's honour, will ensure that our community continues to help inspire and educate generations of young people to serve and shape our world.

Being part of The Winifred West Legacy means joining a community of passionate individuals who share a common goal—to make a lasting impact on the lives of our student and on the future of education.

With the support of The Winifred West Legacy we can further enhance our programmes and facilities, to provide an unparalleled educational experience in the magnificent Southern Highlands. This Legacy will also help us to continue investing in our teachers, supporting their ongoing growth through our unique Staff Scholarship Programme.

At its core, the intent of Frensham Schools is to embed a spirit of generosity and gratitude—Miss West's vision and values are still the very essence of our schools today. Her dream is now our legacy and that of future generations.

The Winifred West Legacy is dedicated to securing the future of our school and by becoming a Custodian, you will contribute to the development and success of Frensham Schools. Together, let us build a legacy of educational excellence and empower our students to become agents of change in the world.

I warmly encourage you to join us as a Custodian of The Winifred West Legacy and be a catalyst for transforming lives.

“... She who comes keen and eager to help, who gives out the best that is in her, increases the school’s power for good and receives back her gift with interest. Give yourself.”

LEAVING A LEGACY

Schools’ geographical, historic and spiritual centre.

In addition, our Bursary Fund provides the greatest gift to rural, regional and remote students—a Frensham education. This Fund helps to prepare our students for a lifetime of personal fulfilment, authenticity and purpose.

Please let us know if you have included Frensham Schools in your Will so that we can discuss any wishes you may have, and importantly, thank you personally by inviting you to become a ‘Custodian’ of The Winifred West Legacy.

As part of this group, you will receive invitations to special events for our Custodians, and The Winifred West Legacy will be honoured in our communications.

We respect that you may prefer to remain anonymous and any information you share with us will be kept strictly confidential. Whatever your choice, we thank you for your support and gratefully acknowledge the importance you place on providing a legacy for future generations.

Our Schools—Frensham, Gib Gate and Sturt—have flourished for over 100 years. This is in part due to the generosity of those who came before us—people who believed in supporting the quality of education that takes place here.

Grounded in a long tradition of support from dedicated Old Girls, families and friends, our Schools have successfully built upon these founding gifts.

We are now entering a new era of growth, by celebrating the culture of philanthropy that has brought us this far, and by challenging ourselves to raise our sights even higher.

With a new campus Master Plan through to 2035 that will guide us, we are reimagining our 178 hectares—inspired by the opportunities of a 21st-century education for our students, and anchored by our deeply rooted sense of history.

The Master Plan contemplates our campus in its entirety, and takes an integrated approach to the evolution of our built and open spaces. From our natural environment, to historic buildings and state-of-the-art facilities—the potential of our vision for the Master Plan focuses on the

CATHY MATHEWS (1969)

“ I have been a member of the WWS community for over 55 years, taking delight in the positive progress I’ve witnessed in many diverse areas of the life of the Schools.

As a student, I vividly remember the excitement of Clubbe Hall being built, provided for by past members of the WWS family. When recently renewing my Will and my Bequest to WWS, I felt great comfort in knowing my contribution will help in some way to ensure the Schools’ future development.

My three daughters and I, and now my granddaughter, have received so much from the dedicated staff and facilities during our years at WWS, and I believe it is our responsibility to help provide for future students to enjoy the same facilities as we did.

If we all contribute to our unique WWS community in our Wills, we are forever involved in a positive and enduring legacy for future girls.

TONY & SUE MORRISON (Bragg, 1960)

“ My husband, Tony, and I are delighted to join The Winifred West Legacy. My family connection with Frensham goes back four generations: my two aunts in the days of Miss West; my sister Pru and I in the ‘50s; our two girls in the ‘70s; and our two granddaughters.

Frensham has changed—through ambitious building projects; and academically, where Frensham has made giant strides.

While results are paramount, extracurricular activities such as Sport, Art and Music add balance. Frensham singing still sends goose bumps up my spine, and those magnificent plays are fantastic.

But Frensham is more than that. It’s the ‘X’ factor, the ‘I don’t know what’, the ‘je ne sais quoi’—the amazing ‘something’ that is born in its beautiful bush setting, in Clubbe Hall, Sturt and the Holt: ‘In Love Serve One Another’, builds enduring friendships, commitment, and character that last a lifetime.

I see the Legacy as a good opportunity for us to give back to the School that has given us so much.

Many students have been helped by Diana Jenkins (1934)

Her bequest in 2010 was inspired by her personal story as the recipient of support to attend Frensham

Diana Jenkins was a much-loved Old Girl, Fellowship Committee representative, Company Member and Frensham teacher. She lived her life by the philosophy that we must make a positive difference to the community we serve, and we must have a strong commitment to equity and inclusion.

Coming to Frensham in the 1930s Diana was determined that her life would be lived as instructed by Winifred West, a lifelong role model, to ‘In Love Serve One Another’.

After school she moved to the UK. When global hostilities erupted, Diana wanted to fight for freedom, and so volunteered to monitor European broadcasts during WWII. It was exhausting and exacting, but Diana loved the contribution she was making.

It was Diana’s Frensham education that gave her the strength and underpinning to take on these tasks during times of great stress and despair—and succeed.

Following the war, Diana broke new ground in the world of commerce, training staff in the use of textiles, such as the revolutionary new product—nylon! She is almost certainly one of the first Frensham girls to have gone into business on the managerial side.

In 1961 Diana became Headmistress of the Middle School. Her wider view of the world after the War experience provided an extraordinary education for Frensham girls at that time. Diana was also the driving force behind the fundraising for Clubbe Hall.

Moving back to the UK she became Secretary of London Fellowship and remained involved with Fellowship there for nearly 50 years.

Diana used whatever resources she had, to help improve the world. She was exceptionally good at getting herself and others involved in issues that mattered, and doing things that hadn’t been done before.

After her death, Diana made a bequest to support the enrolment of children who could not afford to stay at Frensham.

When women thrive, their families and communities thrive, and that is reflected in stronger societies. Diana’s Frensham friendships, and the heart to give, have turned into something incredible.
