

School-Parent Compact 2022-2023

Education is the key to a bright future. Once earned, it is something that no one can take away. Research demonstrates that effective schools are a result of families and school staff working together to ensure that children are successful in school. A learning compact is an agreement between the home and school that firmly unites them.

Student

It is important that I work to the best of my ability; therefore, I will strive to:

- Come to school each day ready to do my personal best.
- Attend school regularly, arriving on time.
- Be prepared for school each day with completed assignments and supplies.
- Follow school rules and procedures.
- Respect myself, my school, and other people.
- Work cooperatively with other students and adults.

Parent/Guardian

I want my child to achieve; therefore, I will encourage my child by doing the following:

- Believe that my child can learn.
- Set limits on the amount of time your child spends in front of a screen.
- See that my child attends school regularly and is on time.
- Support the school in developing positive behaviors in my child.
- Provide a quiet, well-lit place to study and monitor my child's homework.
- Encourage my child to complete all homework assignments.
- Communicate with my child's teacher on a regular basis.
- Stay interested in and aware of what my child is learning.
- Encourage my child to read at home and apply all their learning to daily life.
- Attend the annual fall parent/teacher conference.
- Volunteer in your child's classroom if time and schedule permits.

School

It is important that all students achieve; therefore, we will strive to do the following:

- Provide high quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment.
- Provide assistance in understanding academic achievement standards and tests, how to track your child's progress, and how to establish a successful homework setting and routine.
- Provide opportunities for regular communication between parents and staff through: parent-teacher conferences, frequent progress updates, opportunities to talk with staff, volunteer in class, and observe classroom activities, ensure regular communication between family members and staff to the extent possible, in a language that family members can understand.
- Hold high expectations for students, believing that all students can learn.
- Demonstrate care and concern for each student, respecting cultural diversity and learning differences.
- Conduct annual parent/teacher conferences and discuss the home/school compact.
- Provide a safe learning environment for all children.
