INDUSTRY TOURS

November 16, 2023
Columbus, GA

Today (November 10th) is the last day to sign up for the Pre-Conference Industry Tours. Make sure check the times of the tours and have a ticket for each student (adults do not need tickets). Check your email for more information.

*Friendly reminder: you need to provide your own transportation for the Industry Tours. Valley Hospitality, The Coca-Cola Space Science Center, The Springer Opera House, and Columbus Fire Department Station 1 are walkable from the Columbus Convention and Trade Center.

WEBSITE UPDATE: COMING SOON!

WE HAVE SOMETHING BIG IN THE WORKS!

SCHOOL SPOTLIGHT!

Thank you so much to those schools who are tagging us and helping share their incredible stories with the Georgia CTI community on social media (💖 we see you Greene Co., Maynard Jackson, and Loganville 💖)! Make sure you are tagging Georgia CTI on Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter so we can show off the impact the CTI program is having on our students. If you're not already following us, CLICK THE ICONS BELOW. You can print and hang THIS poster in your classrooms as well! Encourage your students to follow and like us! They are the stars!

FALL LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

November 16-17, 2023

Columbus Convention & Trade Center

Only one week to go until the Fall Leadership Conference! So much planning and preparation has gone into this event. From the Industry Tours to the exciting new Transition Fair, your students are going to grow by leaps and bounds. We can't wait to see what new insights come out of this!

ACADEMIC QUIZ BOWL

November 16, 2023

Fall Leadership Conference, Columbus, GA

The Academic Quiz bowl provides students with an opportunity to solve academic problems in areas of their choice.

There is no limit on the number of students that may compete from each school.

Please see ★ THIS DOCUMENT ★ for more information.

COLUMBUS IS HAUNTED?!

SPRINGER OPERA HOUSE

The Springer Opera House has been around for more than a century and is said to be home to many ghostly figures! People have captured light orbs on video, heard doors slamming, experienced cold spots and even seen a ghostly figure standing on the stage. One of the ghosts said to haunt the theatre is Edwin Booth, brother of John Wilkes Booth. Edwin is a playful ghosts who likes to mess around with the props and the costumes.

If that's not a reason to join the Springer House Industry Tour, I don't know what is!

DRESS FOR SUCCESS!

Remember that for the Opening Session and Dinner students need to be in Professional Dress. For the tours, dance, and conference downtime, students may be in Business Casual attire. For the Leadership Sessions, students may choose Professional or Business Casual.

For the Transition Fair, students may be in casual, everyday clothes which are appropriate for the event.

SUCCESS STORIES! 🎉

We want to highlight and share your Georgia CTI student success stories! We are going to use these stories on the news and events section of the blog, as well as sharing on social media. If you have a story to share- a student who works really hard, who has come a long way, who is an inspiration to others, please reach out to Kelli Horner, our social media manager, and tell her about them! We will be asking for photos, so please make sure the student and their family is okay with their image being shared.
