Scholarship Application – Essay Submission

Thank you for your application to the Central Bank Scholarship Program. Our mission is to be Kansas City's Brand of Choice for every financial decision. Our business and our culture are rooted in six deeply held core values that guide our behavior and decisions.

Choose 3 prompts below and respond to each in 100 words or less. Please provide examples that demonstrate how you have embodied these values during your high school experience.

AUTHENTIC: We believe our actions, words and character must align.

Describe how you gain people's trust. What do you do to maintain it?

ENGAGED: We believe in being active in the moment, aware of others' needs and holding ourselves accountable to achieving success.

Describe a situation when your actions helped others achieve results or goals.

NIMBLE: We believe in adapting quickly to a dynamic environment. We embrace change and continuous improvement through a positive attitude and teamwork.

Describe one thing you've learned about yourself this past year that impacted your college or career plans.

SPIRIT: We believe the unity and camaraderie of our team is the foundation of our success.

Describe a time when you did or said something and it had a positive impact on a coworker, fellow student or even someone you didn't know.

FUN: We believe that happiness is contagious, and a joyful environment strengthens our relationships. We believe laughter inspires creativity and connects us like nothing else can.

What do you like to do when you're not at school or work and why?

GRIT: We believe success requires an ability to respond, adapt and bounce back in any situation.

Describe a time when you were overwhelmed at school. What did you do about it?
