SENIOR HISTORY

Freshman Year

The freshman year was the only year that the senior class was separated in the Bath and Richfield Schools. They met only once as a class and that was for a skating party to mix the two sets of ninth and eighth graders. Later on in the year the two schools met at a mixer sponsored by the schools to create friendship between the high school students.

In the Richfield section of the class, Tom Jones was elected president. Other officers were Richard Feiber as vice-president, with John Mioduszeski as treasurer and Ann Yunger as secretary. Student Council representatives were Tom Jones and Ann Yunger. Mr. Gordon Knapp was the class advisor.

Blue and yellow were chosen as the class colors. After the colors were selected, the class strove to create a banner that would fit these colors and look nice. Many pictures were drawn and studied until the class eliminated all but one. Then Tom and Ann traveled to the Bath School to tell them what had been decided, and, since Bath never had the tradition of class banners, they adopted the banner as theirs with little opposition.

The class then had a Freshman Day when they entertained the upper-classmen, received their class ribbons, and unveiled their banner. Highlights of the program were a wrestling match featuring Tom Jones and Dick Stine, a soap-opera style comedy starring Fred Larson and Edna Haslem, and a magic exhibition at which Richard Feiber threw rice at the seniors.

In the Bath class the president was Mark Spickard and the vice-president was David Price. Working as secretary was Donna Sackett and as treasurer, Carl Dietrich. Mr. George Bayliss advised them. Dave Price and Bill Brunskill represented the class at the Student Council meetings.

The class did little in the way of class functions and did not have many class meetings. They did have a going-away party for their advisor at which they gave him a radio, but afterwards he discovered that he did not have to leave for military service.

Sophomore Year

At the beginning of the sophomore year Bath and Richfield Schools consolidated and the decision of the school board was to have the students commute between the two buildings. For this class, the Bath students were brought to the Richfield building in the mornings. Then at noon the class left for the Bath building to have afternoon classes. At the end of the day the Richfield students had to travel back to Richfield.

This year the officers were Richard Feiber, president; Bill Moats, vice-president; Bob Rumbaugh, treasurer; and Phil Arnold, secretary. Mr. George Bayliss was the advisor. There were few meetings in the sophomore year, and the only social event was a hayride.

Junior Year

Richard Feiber was again chosen president in the junior year. Nancy Paddock became vice-president; Bill Moats, treasurer; and Ann Yunger, secretary. Mr. John Harr and Mrs. Evelyn Bruner were the co-advisors.

The class busied themselves by choosing their class rings during the first part of the semester. They chose the rings made by the Herff Jones Company which were delivered in December. The rings were of different types, but the general style was an "R" in the center with 19 and 54 on the border of the stone center.

Because they had sold the greatest number of memberships in the Senior Booster Club, the class was treated to a trip to a place of their choice. The choice was Cleveland where they went to see the zoo, the Cleveland Museum of Natural History, the airport, and the Thompson Products Museum.

HISTORY (CONTINUED)

All through the football season the juniors sold refreshments at the games. This carried on into the basketball season and at the Y-Teen sock hop.

The big event of the season was the Junior Carnival. "Sparkin" was the play and the cast consisted of Ann Yunger as Lessie Hanna, Georgina Papp as Granny Painsberry, Phil Arnold as Orry Sparks, and Donna Sackett as Susan Hanna. The play centered around a hillbilly lover trying to court his girl.

The raffle featured a $100.00 bond, and there were concessions.

At the end of the year the class gave a Junior-Senior banquet at the Mayflower Hotel in Akron for the seniors, and the Prom was at the Lakeshore Hotel in Lakewood.

Senior Year

During the senior year the class of '54 elected Richard Feiber as president for the third straight year. Re-elected for the second year were Ann Yunger, secretary, and Bill Moats, treasurer. David Price was chosen as vice-president. Donna Sackett and Bill Moats were picked as Student Council representatives, and Miss Virginia Hejduk was advisor.

During the first semester the class chose to have their senior class pictures taken at Peck's Studio in Akron. Peck's Studio also took the activity pictures for the annual.

The Senior Scholarship Tests given to Akron and Summit County students saw seven Revere seniors taking honorable mention. They were Nancy Paddock, Mary Olds, Dave Price, Bill Brunskill, John Mioduszeski, Mark Spickard and Tom Jones. These and other seniors attended two meetings designed to help them choose the college or job which they prefer after they graduate. These were College Night, where many Ohio Colleges were represented, and Career Day at which Revere High School was host to Copley and Norton.

When choosing an agenda for the senior class trip, the seniors decided they would prefer to travel by airplane. They were the first class to select air travel for their class trip. The seniors also chose to go to New York where they spent four days at the Shelton Hotel. After visiting New York from May 7 to 10, they returned on a plane which flew over Niagara Falls as an extra added feature.

"Heaven Can Wait," the senior play, was presented in the Revere auditorium on April 30 and May 1.

The seniors chose commencement announcements with an insignia engraved on the outside. They also selected blue gowns and caps with white tassels for the boys and white gowns and caps with blue tassels for the girls to be worn at both the Commencement and the Baccalaureate services.

As guests of the junior class, they attended a banquet served at Iacomini's Restaurant in Akron in April and the Junior-Senior Prom held at the Lakeshore Hotel in May.

Baccalaureate services were held on May 30 in the Revere auditorium, and Commencement was held on Thursday evening, June 3, in the gymnasium.

CLASS WILL

We, the graduating class of Revere High School, 1954, being of sound mind and body, do will and bequeath individually the follow ing things to the underclassmen:

I, TOM ABERNATHY, will my unique sideburns and my well-trimmed hair to Junior Napier.

I, PHILIP ARNOLD, will my bleached blond eye lashes to Nancy Baecher because they match her blonde hair.

I, ROBERT BENSON, will my presidency of the N.F.L. to Mary Mettler, my debating ability to Mr. Gordon Knapp, and my ability to work ahead in typing to Pete Dietrich.

I, WILLIAM BRUNSKILL, leave my ability to bother people to Roger Schwing, my wavy hair to any girl who wants it, and my ability to talk my way out of trouble to Brian Shoemaker.

I, CONNIE BUDD, will my small hips to Barbara McNeil who says she's badly in need of them and my ability to do algebra problems to anyone who needs it.

I, BARBARA COLWELL, will my ability to be calm to Roger Schwing and Brian Shoemaker who need it very badly and my ability to move and attend different schools to Judy Merrick.

I, SARA DICKSON, will my ability to borrow someone else's car for a day to Ann Rooy and my ability to work with rayon crepe material to anyone who dares to try it.

I, CARL DIETRICH, leave Lynn Stevic (not willingly) and my fierce look as a pirate to Leroy Cranz.

I, NORMA DUNASKY, do will all my muscles to the football team, my jitterbugging to Richard Howe, and a pocket full of jokes to Dick Kerekes.

I, RICHARD FEIBER, will my crazy, mixed-up knee to Jim Klein, hoping that his won't keep him from being our outstanding center next year, and my ability to get my Lantern articles in punctually to Sue VanLandingham.

I, PATRICIA GARMAN, will my long hair to Tim Lyons and my records and jitterbugging to Ellen Clark.

I, CALIOPE GOUMAS, will my selection of sweaters to Sue Honeywell and my space in the parking lot to Don Cass.

I, EDNA HASLEM, will my job as Mr. Bayliss's assistant to Ellen Clark since she'll have so much time next year.

I, HARRY HUMPHRIES, will my 28-year-old saxophone and my position in the band to Susie Honeywell.

I, BARBARA HUSTON, will my two-toned hair to any girl that is foolish enough to accept it and my ability to never fly off the handle to Carol French.

I, TOM JONES, being of sound mind and body do hereby will my sharp '49 Ford to anyone who can afford to run it, my locker to anyone who can keep it clean, and my best wishes to Revere.

I, FRED LARSON, will my ability to stick to one girl to Bob Wells and my fuchsia shirt to David Horvath.

I, LAVONNE LYTLE, will my ability to keep a level head while driving to JoAnn Hobensack and my "Mamie" bangs to Betty Lewis.

I, JEANNETTE MARTIN, leave to Leroy Cranz my ability to sew and to Alice Sorenson my 5 feet 9¾-inches.

I, MARILYN MELCH, hereby will my height of 5 feet 8 inches to Sally Caylor, who actually needs it, my position as Mr. Baker's assistant to anyone who would enjoy it as much as I did, and my keen ability to make over 15 errors in typing class to Linda Preston, who will never break my error record.

I, JOHN MIODUSZESKI, will my ability to wander about as if I were lost to Don Cass and my frequently misspelled name to Mike Lewis.

I, WILLIAM MOATS, will my perfect eyesight to Ronald Nayder and my ability to get along with the freshman girls to Dick Fulton.

I, JANET MORSE, will my naturally curly hair to the boys in the junior class with "Butch" haircuts.

I, ELLEN NEILLIE, will and bequeath my ability to get along with Mr. Knapp to Henry Dunasky, my ability to drive on ice in spite of Mr. Bayliss's attempts to "ruin me" to anyone in drivers' training, but my oversized class ring stays with me always.

I, NANCY NEUMANN, will my ability to keep busy to Sandra Logsdon and my athletic ability to Fred Rice.

I, JOEL NEWMAN, will my butch haircut to Richard Buckeye and I lend my romantic moonlight rides (in the power wagon) to Coach Di-Napoli anytime he needs it.

I, MARY OLDS, will my naturally curly hair to Nancy Bissell and my ability to have a car when I want it to Dorothy Vaughan.

I, NANCY PADDOCK, will my punctuality to Nancy Baecher and my 96 per cent average to Joe Schmidt.

I, GEORGINA PAPP, will my voice to George Wilmot, hoping that he'll do more with it than I did, and the future sound of wedding bells to Ann Rooy. To the underclassmen I leave the wonderful new school with the hopes that they will enjoy it as much as I have.

I, DAVID PRICE, will my short butch haircuts to Glenn Rand and my physics ability to Mr. Frick so that he may give it to some senior next year.

I, ROBERT RUMBAUGH, hereby leave every straight hair in my head to Dave Japs or anyone who wants it, my football practice jersey to Pete Dietrich, and my typing ability to Donna Schaefer in her second year of typing.

I, DONNA SACKETT, Will my position as head majorette to John Vance and my ability to fly off the handle to Linda Preston.

I, FRANCES SMITH, will my ability to sew a straight line to Nancy Rogers and my way of getting along with certain people to Marilyn Clark.

I, JAMES SPANGLER, will my kinky hair to Glenn Rand and my great ability to stay out of trouble to Junior Napier.

I, MARK SPICKARD, will my ability to preserve cars to Bob Motz whose car will never live to a ripe old age, my fragrant football jersey to Dick Fulton, and to Wayne Fisher the Lantern camera.

I, RICHARD STARK, hereby will my shiny shoes to Bernard Johnson if he wants the job of keeping them clean and my broken ooga-horn to Richard Howe who has a remarkable mechanical ability to repair things.

I, CAROL STEFFEN, do will my position as social editor on the yearbook to Nancy Suk and to Mary Mettler I leave my calm disposition.

I, RICHARD STINE, will my turtle-neck sweater to Gerald Hutchison and my '48 Plymouth to any sucker.

I, RUTH STRODTBECK, will my bowling ability to Nancy Suk and my broad back (used for a base in gym) to Kim Staley.

I, JAMES SWARTZ, will my mathematical ability to Allen Stevic and my height to Beverly Foky.

I, GEORGE WHALEN, hereby will my clever and genius mind in commercial work to Mr. Knapp. I also leave my love life to Bill Cessna, all except for a cute blonde in the junior class, and I leave my manager's career at Revere to Wayne Fischer.

I, ANN YUNGER, being of sound mind, do hereby will my position as Y-Teen president to any girl who enjoys working for and with her friends and my knack for getting bangs and bruises in gym class to Beverly Zola.

To the faculty we leave, which should be enough to please them.

To the juniors we leave our special techniques in making all our functions a success.

To the sophomores we leave the dignity that comes with being a senior.

To the freshmen we leave three more rough years of high school.

In the witness thereof we do hereby affix our signs and seals this third day of June, 1954.

The Senior Class of 1954

PROPHECY

By what means am I
To prophesy
The future of our Seniors,
Except perhaps
By silly jokes
And several misdemeanors?

Bear in mind that thought, my friends, as we wrap the cloak of intrigue about us and prepare to reach into the future to foresee what will become of the seniors of '54.

And now, as the room grows dim—you'd better turn on a light so you can read the rest of this. Draw close now, friends, and I, Madame Ima Phoney, will tell all.

I am beginning to see images. Oh, yes, our first stop seems to be New York City. Let's just roam around. I'm sure we'll find someone.

Look in the window of that automat. That fellow with the bow tie and bucks pushing chocolate pies into the slots looks familiar. Why, it's Bob Rumbaugh! I'm sorry we had to start out this way, folks.

Oops look out! Those crazy taxi drivers they have here. Wait! That's a girl! And it's Connie Budd. Oh, well, she wanted to meet lots of people. Connie is in the advertisement business too. There is a sign on the back of her cab that says Smoke Black Owl Cigars.

Well, look at this sign. Looks like Bob Benson, Tom Abernathy, and Jim Spangler have teamed up and are singing at prominent(?) eating places around town. Tonight they are featured at Bessie's Bar on the Bowery.

Speaking of bars, I hear that Dick Stine was just accepted to the Bar and is now a head judge for the New York Criminal courts. He tries people accused of robbing gum ball machines between 65th Street and Times Square.

As we scan the country, many familiar names are seen in conjunction with new and promising inventions.

Just scanning the headlines of a few papers, we noticed the following:

Joel Newman has invented the fastest car in the world. However it would have been impossible, for Joel to succeed without the aid of his test driver, Nancy Neumann, who put the car through its paces.

Jim Swartz has made an astounding discovery. After several years of calculations he finds that if you count all the stairs in Rockefeller Center, divide by 7,645.3 and add 4, you get the same number as when you count the number of times an elevator in the Empire State Building stops in a day, subtract 93, and multiply by 144/158.

Perhaps you're wondering where we are getting these bits of news, and I'm sure you'll be interested to know that they come from a national newspaper published by your own classmates and edited by George Whalen. Staff members include Harry Humphries, Society News and LaVonne Lytle, Crime Photography, not to mention several others. Most of the staff started at the bottom and worked up, but some were satisfied with their initial appointment. Such is the case of copy boy John Mioduszeski. There is a reason though. His name was too long to put in the masthead.

Well, at least one member of the class followed his first desires. Tom Jones has come a long way in electronics. He tests light bulbs at the A & P stores, and from what we hear he has had several shocking experiences.

We are beginning to lose the image of this great metropolis, and our scene is shifting slowly across the country. There is Philadelphia, Washington, D. C., Atlantic City—Wait, let's settle here a while. It should prove interesting. There's the famous boardwalk. We'll take a stroll.

There is a concession being run by Carl Dietrich and Bill Moats. People are throwing pies at someone who has his head in a hole. Why, it's Bill Brunskill. What do you know! Ace in the hole!

Let's buy a balloon from Rich Feiber and move on. It was said that he'd make good use of all his hot air.

There are Nancy Paddock and Ann Yunger giving free tumbling lessons to anyone who is brave enough. It is not supposed to be dangerous but an ambulance is constantly present, and its driver, Mark Spickard, really gets a workout.

We must move along now. Come away from those amusements and let's journey out to the famed city of Hollywood, California. There we see that playboy Fred Larson with the assistance of his faithful maid, Edna Haslem, is preparing for another of his fabulous dinner parties. He has invited many well-known celebrities, some of whom are mentioned herein.

Sara Stark, formerly Sara Dickson until she married bubble gum tycoon Richard Stark, will be in attendance in all her glittering glory.

Another member of the weaker sex present at the party will be the famous designer, Jeannette Martin. She has a huge business making knit sweaters for French poodles.

Catering at the affair will be the Hollywood branch of the Melch Dairy Products Company. The cottage cheese that Marilyn serves has a fine reputation, and it's really home-brewed way out in Richfield.

Here comes that famous hillbilly singer, Phil "Buckskin" Arnold, up the drive now on his horse. He is one of the few redheads with Irish descent that have made the hillbilly hit parade.

Now as Fred's faithful butler, Dave Price VII, closes the door and the party begins, we shall leave that ever active city of Hollywood and begin our homeward jaunt.

Casting a fleeting glance at famous Reno, Nevada, we find that the establishment of Mary Olds and Donna Sackett is still open. The tables are full and the entertainment is good.

Our waitress, Ruth Strodtbeck, tells us that the feature attraction tonight is a newly formed trio of banjo players, Cal Goumas, Pat Garman, and Barbara Huston. Barbara Colwell has won the position of head cigarette girl and is doing surprisingly well.

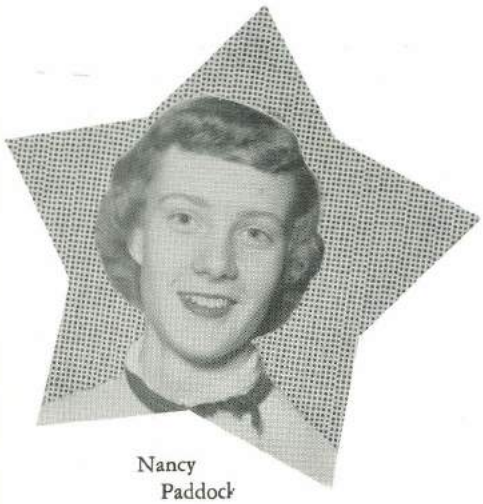

And now as we make the final turn, we head back towards Revere and find just a few stragglers who never left the old place.

Georgina Papp is now teaching advanced Latin at Revere, and Francis Smith is trigonometry instructor. The two live a peaceful life together in a house they bought by pooling their resources.

Ellen Neillie and Norma Dunasky are running a used car lot at the corner of Everett Road and Route 21.

And last but not least, on a secluded road in Iradale, Carol Steffen is leading ponies around Janet Morse's pony ride ring.

A Tale of Two School Districts*

The rich imagination of Charles Dickens created the ever-knitting Madame Defarge for his famous novel "A Tale of Two Cities". Recently, Buzzy Davis, retired Revere School employee, and Helen Tetzel Freeman, Revere graduate, combined their knowledge to compile the events of another tale which describes the union of the Bath and Richfield school districts. Using their archival-like memories, Buzzy and Helen recorded many of the facts and dates which are provided in this article.

Those of us from the Revere High School class of 1952 will understand much of this information because we are a significant part of this history. More than fifty years ago, our parents, teachers, and community leaders paved the way for the events described below. Although many Revere graduations have followed over the years, the current graduating students many not fully sense the origins of their school or the building. Our class was there for these beginnings and remembers them well. Thus, this is our tale to share - the tale of two school districts uniting to benefit the coming generations of students.

|---|---|
| January 1949 | Discussions begin in the communities of Bath and Richfield regarding the consolidation of the two school districts. |
| October 11, 1949 | In unofficial votes, both communities vote favorably for consolidation. In Richfield, the vote was 272 for and 187 against the consolidation. In Bath, the vote was 258 for and 79 against. |
| November 14, 1949 | The Summit County Board of Education officially authorizes consolidation and designates this system as the "Bath-Richfield Local School District". The first school board for the merger was appointed by the County Board and consisted of Rice Hershey, Carl Dietrich, and Mary Mettler from Bath and Melvin Rand and Virgil Hawkins from Richfield. |
| Early 1950 | The Bath-Richfield School Board supervises the purchase of 28 acres for the site of the new school at the intersection of Revere and Everett roads. The land survey is done by Clarence Hough. W. Boyd Huff is named the school architect. A well is drilled by Lumen Cranz of Ira. |
| September 1950 | Partial commuting of students begins for special classes between the two high schools. The football team is combined, the basketball teams remain separate for the coming season. |
| October 5, 1950 | The Bath-Richfield Board of Education selects "Revere High School" as the name for the new building. Later in October, the approved plans for the new school are placed on display in the Richfield School Building. |
| November 13, 1950 | Red, white, and blue are voted the Revere school colors by the students at Bath and Richfield. |

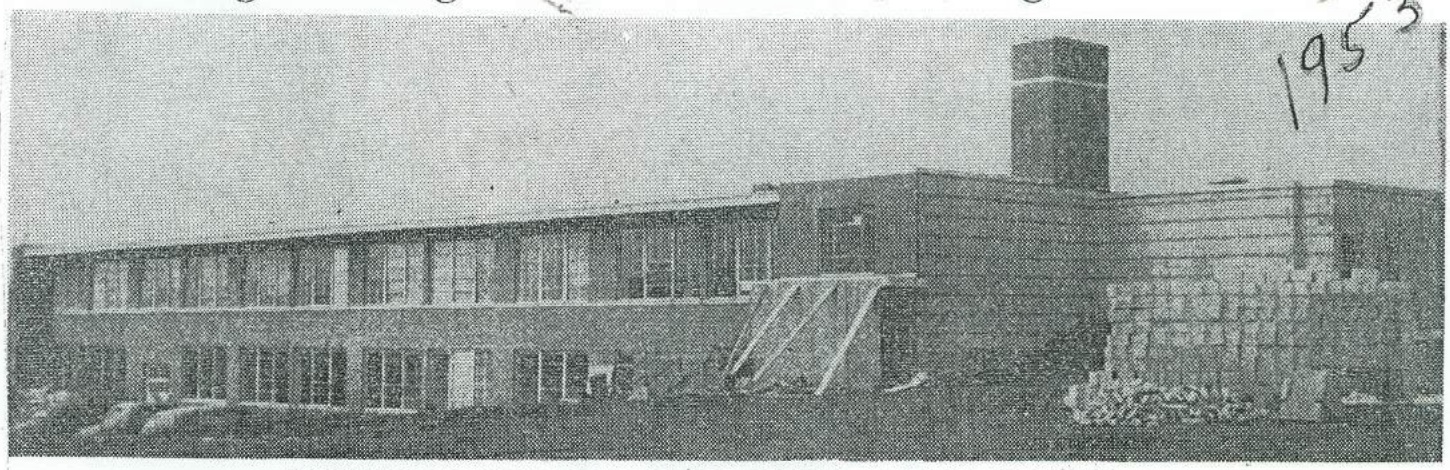

*This article was assembled by Mike McCoy to be placed in the 50 year reunion book of the 1952 class of Revere High School.

| | |
|---|---|
| May 1951 | Separate graduations occur for the last classes at Bath and Richfield High Schools. |
| June 17, 1951 | Ground breaking by school administrators and board members is carried out at the Revere High School property. |
| August 1951 | Construction of the new school begins. Faranacci Construction of Akron is selected as the general contractor, Sweeney and Wise of Cleveland for plumbing and heating, and Brock Electric of Akron for electrical work. |
| September 1951 | Awaiting the finish of construction, all four high school grades commute between the two existing high schools. The juniors and seniors from both schools are at Bath in the morning and at Richfield in the afternoon, whereas the freshman and sophomores are at Richfield in the morning and at Bath in the afternoon. Publication of the Revere Lantern replaces the Bath Hi-Spy and the Richfield Echo with co-editors from both former schools. There is complete union of all school activities, functions, and faculty. Roy M. Pugh is the first Superintendent and Harold Schweisberger the first High School Principal. |
| November 6, 1951 | Elections take place in the two communities of a five member School Board for the Revere District to replace the first appointed Board. |
| February, 1952 | First alma mater Revere Revere is chosen. The music is composed by Professor David Plank, a former Bath resident, who is head of the music department at Buena Vista College in Storm Lake, Iowa. The words were written by his mother, Mrs Eulalia Plank. |
| May 29, 1952 | Graduation of the first Revere High School class is held in the Richfield School auditorium. |
| January 27, 1953 | All high school students move into the new school. |
| March 7, 1954 | Dedication of the new High School takes place with a final tally of school statistics presented in the Dedication pamphlet. |

| | |
|---|---|
| Cost of classroom section | $443,891.32 |
| Cost of gymnasium and auditorium | 153,846.00 |
| Cost of equipment | 80,000.00 |
| Cost of site | 9,000.00 |
| Present enrollment | 210 |
| Seating capacity of gymnasium | 650 |
| Seating capacity of auditorium | 362 |

The chronology will stop at this point. The tale should be continued by those who followed during the intervening years - there are more dates and names to put in the "stitching". Let us hope that the end of the tale will be as satisfying for others as the beginning was for us.

Construction And Classes Go Along Together In School

By FRANCES B. MURPHEY

REVERE HIGH, a building which has had more troubles than most soap opera heroines, is finally coming into its own.

This week pupils and teachers from the combined Bath-Richfield School District took possession of the brick-faced ranch-style building at Revere and Everett rds.

But going to school along with them are carpenters, electricians, plumbers and other craftsmen.

* * *

THE SOUND of pounding and sawing merges with lectures on biology and speed tests in typing as work continues on the main classroom building. And still, to be built are the gymnasium and auditorium.

The complete Revere plant, which is likely to cost $750,000 when fully equipped; probably won't be ready until next Fall.

Supt. Roy Pugh and Principal H. C. Schweisberger hope to have the almost-completed central unit in apple-pie order by April.

They admit things are a bit make-shift these days at Revere.

* * *

MOST of the classrooms on the second floor have been finished but a suite of science rooms, the industrial arts shop, the cafeteria and school kitchen on the first floor are not ready for use.

The West entranceway is completed but other entrances are still blocked off. The parking lot is a mudland on warm days and a rutted wasteland on cold days. On opening day of school a truck delivering slag on the parking lot became mired.

The modern music room with its three sound-proof practice rooms isn't equipped yet. Only four of 13 teachers' desks on order have arrived. Work has hardly begun on the East wing which will house the gym and auditorium approved by voters in the school district last November.

* * *

BUT REVERITES are happy. Things are looking up.

There may be no number plates on the lockers in the upstairs hall yet but the mathematics room offers chalkboards on three sides.

In the attractive library Mrs. Mildred Hess, librarian, is busy cataloging 3,500 books. Several long tables and a round "browsing" table are soon due for the library which for the first time combine books used in Bath and Richfield schools.

As Principal Schweisberger explains: "The opening of this new building ends something which is seldom tried—running one high school in two buildings."

★ ★

To use the best facilities in both schools, freshmen and sophomores have spent the mornings in the Richfield building while juniors and seniors went to Bath. Busses switched the groups each noon.

* * *

BATH and Richfield schools were officially consolidated in November of 19[illegible].

In March of 1950, a bond issue of $325,000 was passed by the combined district to finance the new high school. A $125,000 issue previously passed by Bath district in 1945 was to be added to the building fund.

Construction costs rose and the school system had to turn to the voters again. Last March it was rebuffed in appeals for more money for equipment and the remainder of the original building.

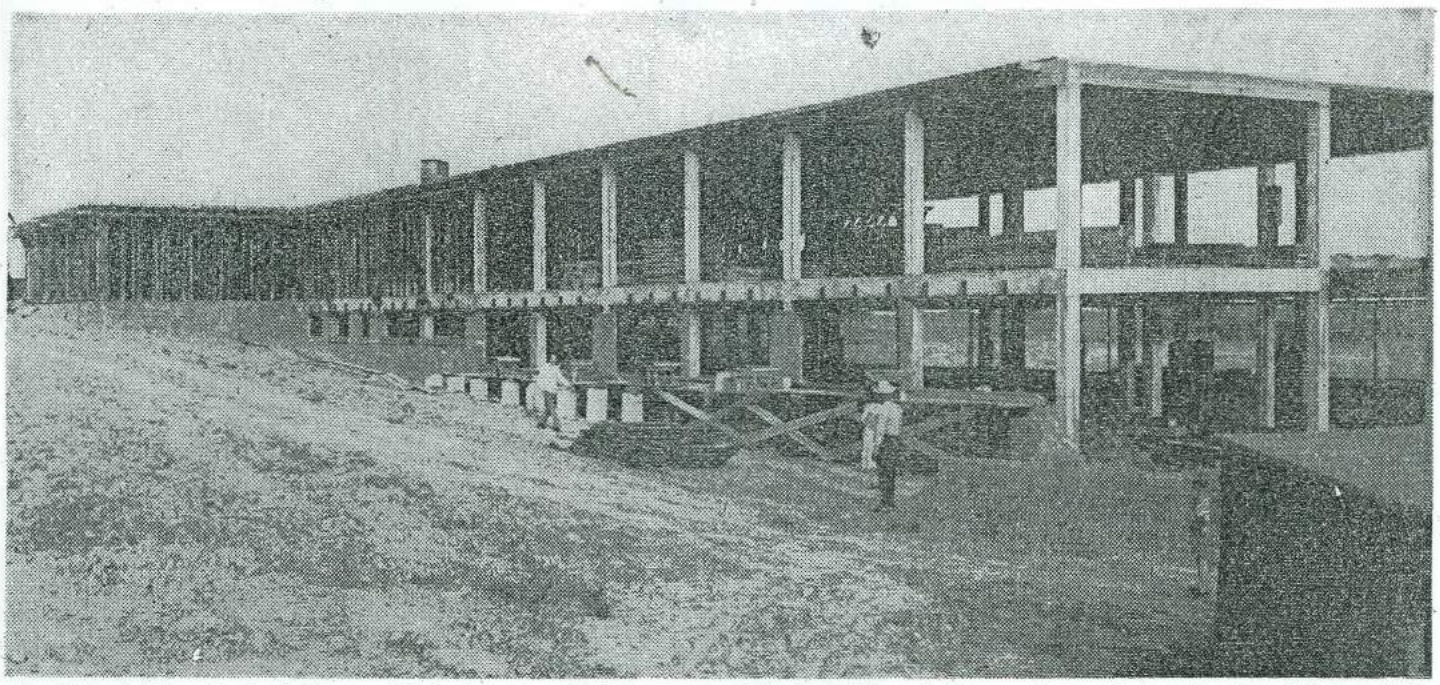

* * *

LAST FALL voters did approve $80,000 for equipment and $220,000 to cover the auditorium-gym wing and alteration of the old Bath and Richfield high school buildings for elementary purposes.

The new Revere, designed by Architect William Boyd Huff and built by Farinacci Construction Co., will be able to accommodate 325 pupils. The present enrollment is 192.

Melvin Rand is president of the district's Board of Education and has headed the school board since the merger.

Maybe They Need Some Vitamins Around These Parts

Here is the shell of Revere High School, which serves the consolidated Bath-Richfield school district. Although construction began a year ago, the building has progressed only to this skeletonized version of a modern school. Officials have blamed the weather and construction delays. The best guess is that it will be ready for students toward the end of the year.

Revere High Construction Slow But Sure

★ ★ ★ ★

After Year's Work School Still Far From Finished

BATH-RICHFIELD—Construction of the new Revere High School makes the turtle in the Hare and Tortoise Fable look like a greyhound.

A year ago, on a Sunday afternoon, Melvin Rand, president of the Board of Education, lifted the first shovel of dirt in a brief ground-breaking ceremony.

Today, the school consists of a reinforced concrete shell. It is not a finished job by many months.

It was hoped the building would be completed in time for school in September. Now the delivery date has been pushed back to the end of the year.

Blame has been placed on the weather and a "delay in construction." With the preliminary work done, construction is expected to speed up.

* * *

AS IN THE case of the turtle, who won his race, residents are assured the job will be completed. Officials could point out that the rabbit failed to finish the race.

Although on tenterhooks awaiting the new building, the consolidated school staff, with two administrators, 35 teachers and 18 others, has carried on with crowded conditions and transportation problems.

Revere High School's first graduating class contained 43 members. During the recent commencement in the Richfield auditorium, some of the parents and friends were forced to stand in the aisles.

The Board of Education is preparing a handbook this Summer to explain board policies in detail.

To take advantage of discounts in the purchasing of materials and supplies in larger quantities, all buying will be done by the clerk, Lester Swartz.

Attends Commencement

Has Broken Neck, But Gets Diploma

BATH-RICHFIELD—Plucky Bill Brunskill, flat on his back with a broken neck, received his high school diploma the way he wanted to—in person.

Bill attended graduation exercises Friday night at Revere High School while propped up on an aluminum cot.

He suffered the broken neck while tumbling on a trampoline in the school gym last March 16.

It was the first time Bill has been outside Akron City Hospital since the mishap.

An ambulance whisked Bill from the hospital to the school. He eagerly watched the commencement rites from a corridor outside the school gym.

A nurse, Mrs. Mildred Schwing of Bath helped Bill don his blue academic cap and gown. He wore snappy red and white pajamas underneath.

THEY REMOVED his neck brace for the program but later put it back on for his return trip to the hospital.

A big smile flashed across Bill's face when School Board President Hiram Brewster handed Brunskill's diploma to his classmate, Tom Jones.

Jones also delivered Bill's salutatorian address which Bill had dictated in his hospital room. Bill was one of the three salutatorians in the class of 42 graduates.

The speech dealt with the act of a good Samaritan in administering to the wounds of an injured neighbor.

The brotherhood deed was likened by Bill to the helpful aid furnished by Bath-Richfield people after Bill's mishap.

"BILL AND his mother extend their deepest thanks," Jones said.

After the ceremony Jones presented the diploma to Bill and asked "How did I do?"

"Okay," Bill beamed.

Virginia Hejduk, high school English teacher, pinned a Quill & Scroll Society pin on Bill for his job as assistant sports editor on the "Lantern," the school's paper.

Bill got a big congratulatory kiss from his mother, Mrs. Eleanor Brunskill. Outside of that there was no fuss or feathers about Bill's graduation in keeping with Bill's wishes.

Bill Brunskill Memorial To Aid Students With Special Needs

The Bill Brunskill Memorial Fund has been established in memory of Bill Brunskill to aid qualified students with special social, emotional and/or physical needs which impair learning. This fund is available to students in grades 7-12, attending the Revere Schools and is administered by the Principal of Revere High School with an annual report of the use of this fund to be sent to the Bath Volunteers for Service.

Bill Brunskill was a remarkable human being who was an inspiration to all who knew him although he was confined to his bed for 31 years. He attended Bath School from the first grade through his junior year. He was in the first senior class to graduate from the new Revere High School in 1954.

Bill, nicknamed "Ace" by his classmates, was active in high school, participating in football, basketball, baseball, Thespians, Jr. Booster Club, Student Council, Hi Y and serving as sports editor for the Lantern. He was also voted "Best Dressed" by his senior classmates. Academically, he was an honor student and in the National Honor Society. As a senior, he ranked second in his class. Bill was offered scholarships to Purdue and Duke. His ambition was to become a physicist.

On March 16, 1954, while tumbling on a trampoline in the school gym, Bill fell and suffered a broken neck which paralyzed him. Even though Bill was confined to City Hospital from the date of his accident, he was determined to graduate with his class...in person. On June 3, 1954 Bill was transported by ambulance to the Revere High School gym and participated in graduation exercises, flat on his back, but wearing his blue cap and gown.

Bill was to have given the salutorian address. However, it was read by a classmate after Bill had dictated it from his hospital bed. Bill's message dealt with a good samaritan administering to the wounds of an injured neighbor.

Since the time of his accident, friends and neighbors in the Bath-Richfield community have reached out to help Bill and his mother. He was always so grateful. For 31 years his body was handicapped, but his mind was active and alert. He was always reading and continuing to learn. His faith in God grew strong. On June 2, 1985, Bill Brunskill died at the age of 49.

Bill Brunskill was a special friend to the Bath Volunteers for Service, therefore, in his memory, B.V.S. has established the Bill Brunskill Memorial Fund. Hopefully, this fund will be a "Good Samaritan" to Revere students in need-students with special social, emotional or physical handicaps which impair their learning. "Bill would have wanted it that way," said his mother.

Donations to the Bill Brunskill Fund are welcome at any time. Checks, payable to the Bill Brunskill Memorial Fund may be sent to the Revere Board of Education, 3496 Everett Road, Richfield, Ohio 44286, attention treasurer.

WEST RICHFIELD CLASS AT AIRPORT

High Ride for Revere Graduates

By Berta Terrell

June's crop of graduating seniors is appropriately jet-propelled, as the 33 alert Revere High School's seniors of West Richfield, O., demonstrated recently.

They set a precedent by booking a United Air Lines Mainliner DC-6 for their class trip to New York. A smooth take-off and happy landings were taken in stride, and fabulous old Manhattan was taken by storm.

But let's take a peek at one student's "flight log" for a comprehensive aerial view of the trip:

"Dear Jane,

"Remember hearing our parents talk about their all-day senior class bus trips to Niagara or maybe Columbus, O.? For us, it was "New York or Bust" and we got there in one hour and 50 minutes! A real magic-carpet junket it was, too!

"That's the whole class standing in front of the DC-6 before we took off at Cleveland Hopkins Airport.

Four Crowded Days

"Dick Stark, Ann Yunger and Bob Rumbaugh are checking tickets at the information desk and the others going up the ramp are the student chairman, LaVonne Lytle, Richard Feiber, Donna Sackett, Nancy Paddock and Mary Olds.

"Kay Connelly, tour and foreign agent for United Air Lines, went along and helped make arrangements for the trip which covered four days and included fare, hotel, all sightseeing and a boat trip around Manhattan, all for a mere $58.80.

"After we were aloft the pilot welcomed the class aboard and gave us the flight plan. It is interesting to see the sun above with the cotton clouds below, and as we approached the coast we could see the rivers and then Manhattan with the Statue of Liberty, the Empire State Building and the square topped United Nations Buildings standing out dramatically on the skyline. For most of us, (all but four), in fact, both flying and New York was a new experience. A class committee chose all the details of the trip and decided to be the first class to fly."

"At LaGuardia we had a guided tour through the hangars and then a bus took the entire group to the Shelton Hotel.

Girl With the Torch

"We spent all of Saturday sightseeing on a trip which took in Central Park, the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, Columbia and Riverside Park, Harlem, Rockefeller Center, St. Patrick's, the N. B. C. television and radio studios, Chinatown, the Battery and a boat trip to the Girl With the Torch out in the harbor.

"That night a few of us managed to crawl to the Jackie Gleason show where we got a chance to see behind the scenes.

"After church Sunday we met again for a show at Radio City Music Hall. In the evening some of us saw "What's My Line?"

"On Monday we took a three-hour boat ride down the Hudson, sailing past many large ocean liners and cargo boats, as well as the industrial sections of New Jersey and New York. We slowed down for pictures as we passed on up the East River under Brooklyn Bridge, past the Navy Yard, the U.N. and Welfare Island.

"A scurry of last minute shopping and a trip to the top of the Empie State Building climaxed the last afternoon before we said good-by to the lights of the world's largest city and hello again to Cleveland—which glitters, too, at night.

County Spellers To Compete

In Semi-Finals For

Chance At District Crown

Saturday, April 8, 1950 Akron Beacon Journal

Schools Combine Classes

Students Attend Two Schools

Although the new school building has not been built, grades nine through twelve in the Bath-Richfield school district have been combined under the direction of Mr. Roy Pugh, superintendent, and Mr. Harold Schweisberger, principal.

Under this new consolidation, known as Revere High School, the juniors and seniors from both schools are at Bath in the morning and at Richfield in the afternoon, whereas the freshmen and sophomores are at Richfield in the morning and at Bath in the afternoon.

At Bath, teaching Latin II and sophomore and junior English, is Mrs. Evelyn Bruner. Freshman English and French I and II are under the guidance of Mrs. Mildred Hess, who is also in charge of the library at Bath with a staff of seven librarians.

Mrs. Lucy Miller teaches junior high English, arithmetic, and social science at Bath.

Mr. John Harr, who teaches biology and junior high science, is new to the district this year.

Drivers' training is again being taught by Mr. George Bayliss, who also teaches chemistry and mathematics.

Social science, history, and psychology are being taught by Mr. John Pullen. Mr. Kermit Smulbach will coach the football and basketball teams in addition to teaching the physical education courses.

At Richfield, Mr. Leon Friedman teaches American and World history. Later in the year he will also be director of a Guidance Program.

Miss Virginia Hejduk, advisor of the school paper, and Richfield library, teaches Latin I, journalism, and senior English.

All business courses, such as bookkeeping and typing, are under the direction of Mr Gordon Knapp, who also teaches one physical education class.

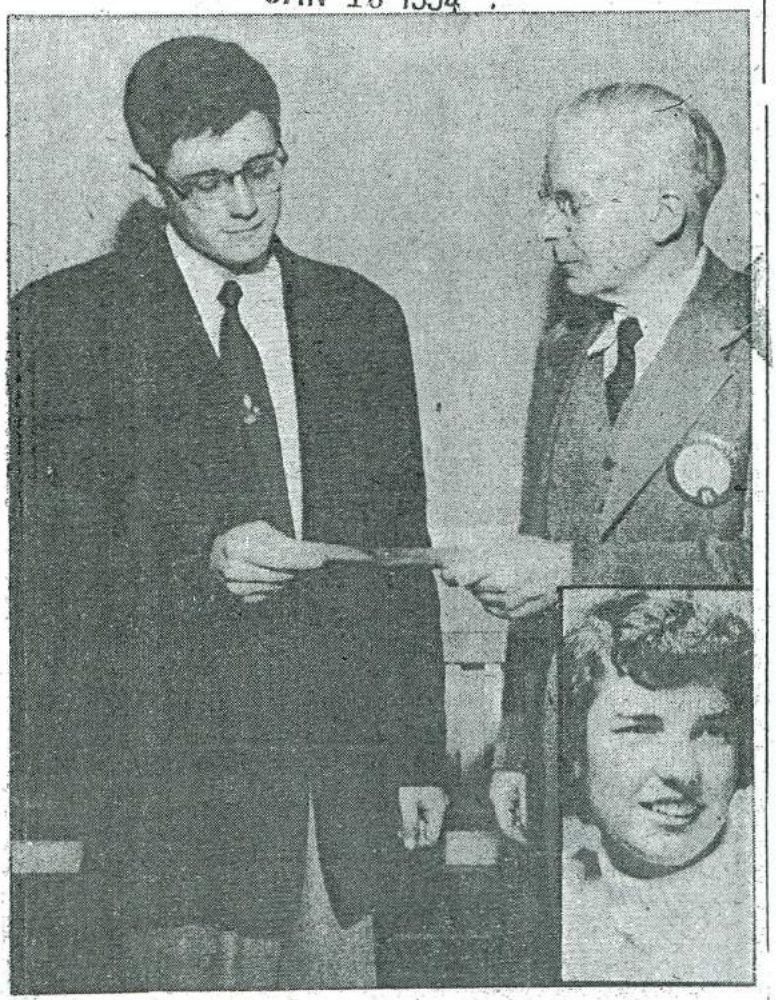

Home economics and the managing of the school cafeteria are under the direction of Mrs. Jane Bolin. The industrial arts instructor is Mr. William Baker.

Plane geometry is taught by Mr. Schweisberger. Mrs. Esther Burkett, elementary principal, also teaches junior high English and arithmetic.

In the music department, Mrs. Evelyn Schmidt who directs the chorus will be in the district on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. Mr. Leslie Klevay directs the Revere band and has charge of all instrumental music.

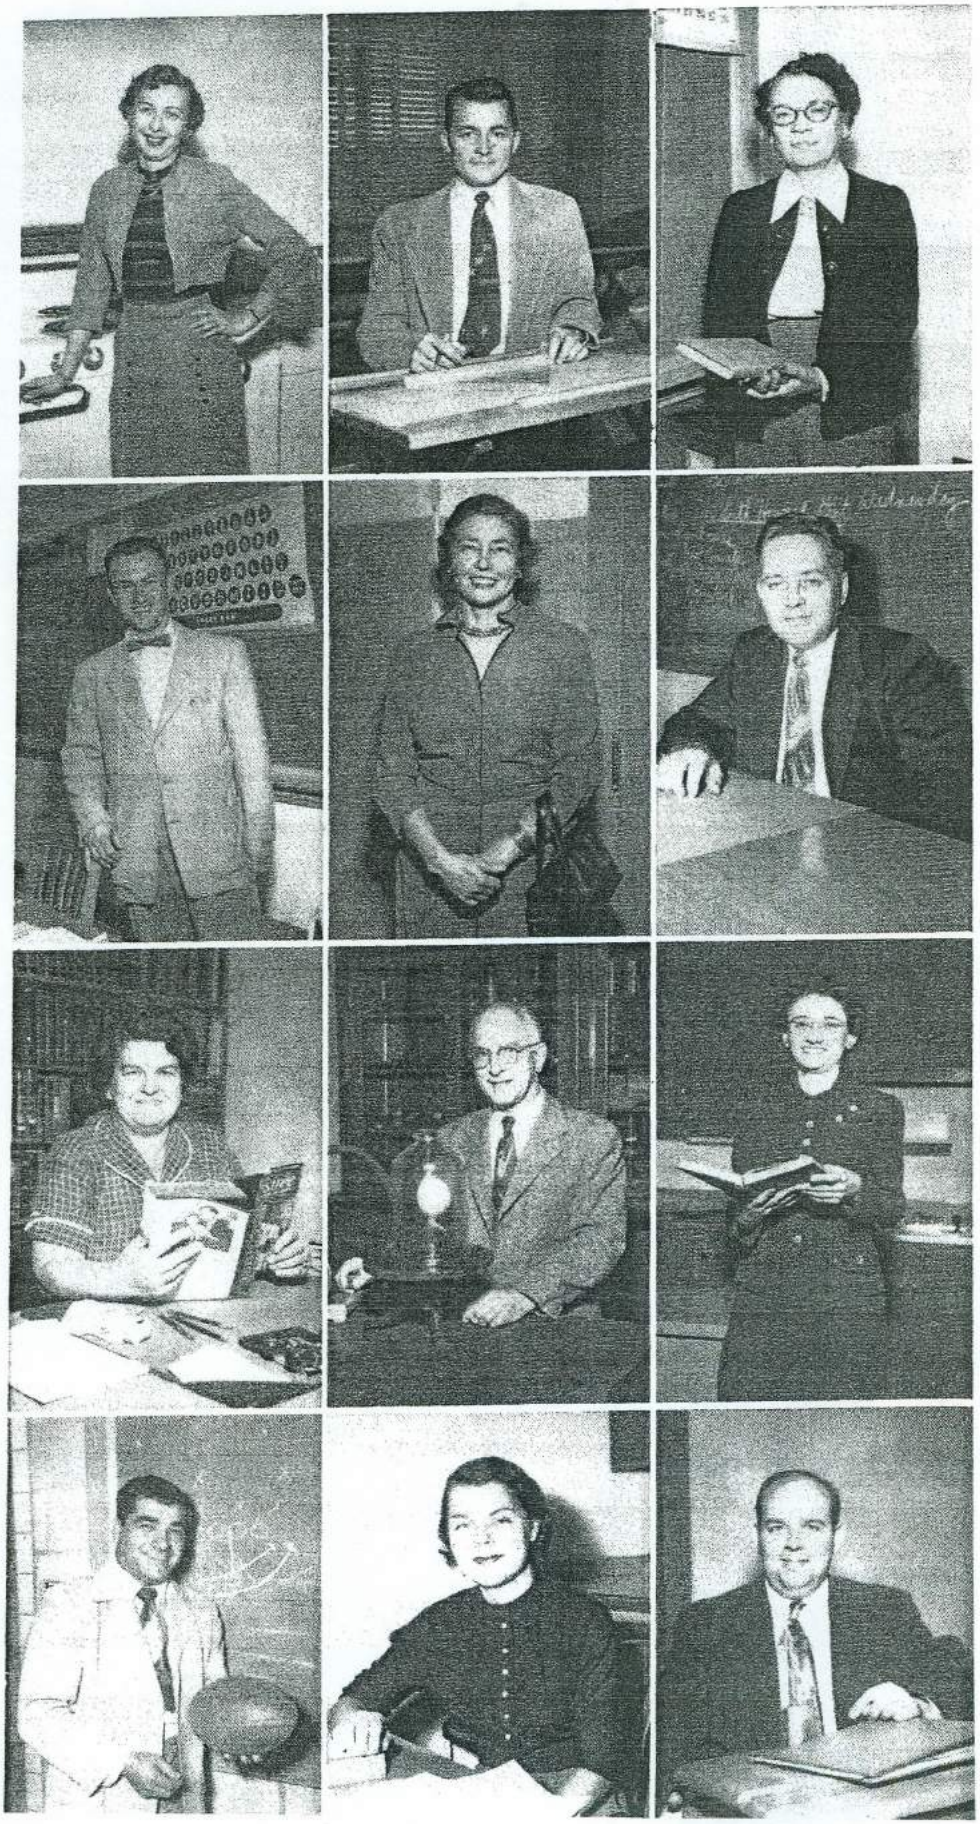

Mrs. Rose Overholt, art instructor, will teach at Revere on Wednesday and Thursday.

Freshman Year

The freshman year was the only year that the senior class was separated in the Bath and Richfield Schools. They met only once as a class and that was for a skating party to mix the two sets of ninth and eighth graders. Later on in the year the two schools met at a mixer sponsored by the schools to create friendship between the high school students.

In the Richfield section of the class, Tom Jones was elected president. Other officers were Richard Feiber as vice-president, with John Mioduszeski as treasurer and Ann Yunger as secretary. Student Council representatives were Tom Jones and Ann Yunger. Mr. Gordon Knapp was the class advisor.

Blue and yellow were chosen as the class colors. After the colors were selected, the class strove to create a banner that would fit these colors and look nice. Many pictures were drawn and studied until the class eliminated all but one. Then Tom and Ann traveled to the Bath School to tell them what had been decided, and, since Bath never had the tradition of class banners, they adopted the banner as theirs with little opposition.

The class then had a Freshman Day when they entertained the upper-classmen, received their class ribbons, and unveiled their banner. Highlights of the program were a wrestling match featuring Tom Jones and Dick Stine, a soap-opera style comedy starring Fred Larson and Edna Haslem, and a magic exhibition at which Richard Feiber threw rice at the seniors.

In the Bath class the president was Mark Spickard and the vice-president was David Price. Working as secretary was Donna Sackett and as treasurer, Carl Dietrich. Mr. George Bayliss advised them. Dave Price and Bill Brunskill represented the class at the Student Council meetings.

The class did little in the way of class functions and did not have many class meetings. They did have a going-away party for their advisor at which they gave him a radio, but afterwards he discovered that he did not have to leave for military service.

Sophomore Year

At the beginning of the sophomore year Bath and Richfield Schools consolidated and the decision of the school board was to have the students commute between the two buildings. For this class, the Bath students were brought to the Richfield building in the mornings. Then at noon the class left for the Bath building to have afternoon classes. At the end of the day the Richfield students had to travel back to Richfield.

This year the officers were Richard Feiber, president; Bill Moats, vice-president; Bob Rumbaugh, treasurer; and Phil Arnold, secretary. Mr. George Bayliss was the advisor. There were few meetings in the sophomore year, and the only social event was a hayride.

Junior Year

Richard Feiber was again chosen president in the junior year. Nancy Paddock became vice-president; Bill Moats, treasurer; and Ann Yunger, secretary. Mr. John Harr and Mrs. Evelyn Bruner were the co-advisors.

The class busied themselves by choosing their class rings during the first part of the semester. They chose the rings made by the Herff Jones Company which were delivered in December. The rings were of different types, but the general style was an "R" in the center with 19 and 54 on the border of the stone center.

Because they had sold the greatest number of memberships in the Senior Booster Club, the class was treated to a trip to a place of their choice. The choice was Cleveland where they went to see the zoo, the Cleveland Museum of Natural History, the airport, and the Thompson Products Museum.

HISTORY (CONTINUED)

All through the football season the juniors sold refreshments at the games. This carried on into the basketball season and at the Y-Teen sock hop.

The big event of the season was the Junior Carnival. "Sparkin" was the play and the cast consisted of Ann Yunger as Lessie Hanna, Georgina Papp as Granny Painsberry, Phil Arnold as Orry Sparks, and Donna Sackett as Susan Hanna. The play centered around a hillbilly lover trying to court his girl.

The raffle featured a $100.00 bond, and there were concessions.

At the end of the year the class gave a Junior-Senior banquet at the Mayflower Hotel in Akron for the seniors, and the Prom was at the Lakeshore Hotel in Lakewood.

Senior Year

During the senior year the class of '54 elected Richard Feiber as president for the third straight year. Re-elected for the second year were Ann Yunger, secretary, and Bill Moats, treasurer. David Price was chosen as vice-president. Donna Sackett and Bill Moats were picked as Student Council representatives, and Miss Virginia Hejduk was advisor.

During the first semester the class chose to have their senior class pictures taken at Peck's Studio in Akron. Peck's Studio also took the activity pictures for the annual.

The Senior Scholarship Tests given to Akron and Summit County students saw seven Revere seniors taking honorable mention. They were Nancy Paddock, Mary Olds, Dave Price, Bill Brunskill, John Mioduszeski, Mark Spickard and Tom Jones. These and other seniors attended two meetings designed to help them choose the college or job which they prefer after they graduate. These were College Night, where many Ohio Colleges were represented, and Career Day at which Revere High School was host to Copley and Norton.

When choosing an agenda for the senior class trip, the seniors decided they would prefer to travel by airplane. They were the first class to select air travel for their class trip. The seniors also chose to go to New York where they spent four days at the Shelton Hotel. After visiting New York from May 7 to 10, they returned on a plane which flew over Niagara Falls as an extra added feature.

"Heaven Can Wait," the senior play, was presented in the Revere auditorium on April 30 and May 1.

The seniors chose commencement announcements with an insignia engraved on the outside. They also selected blue gowns and caps with white tassels for the boys and white gowns and caps with blue tassels for the girls to be worn at both the Commencement and the Baccalaureate services.

As guests of the junior class, they attended a banquet served at Iacomini's Restaurant in Akron in April and the Junior-Senior Prom held at the Lakeshore Hotel in May.

Baccalaureate services were held on May 30 in the Revere auditorium, and Commencement was held on Thursday evening, June 3, in the gymnasium.

Dr. Bill Moats Is Bath's Citizen of the Year

Dr. Moats (r) examines the arm of Cleveland Indian player Albert Belle.

Was he surprised?

Dr. Bill Moats thought he was attending a Grange program honoring his parents on Tuesday, September 24 at the Bath Town Hall. Quickly he discovered that he was in the spotlight as Bath's Citizen of the Year.

Yes, he was surprised!

On hand to pay tribute to a man who has spent most of his five plus decades in our community were high school classmates, professional associates, family and lots of friends. The program, led by Grange moderator Phyllis Leon, focused on the many roles that Dr. Moats has played in the life of Bath.

Moving to Medina Line Road with parents Margaret and Emerald when he was ten, Bill Moats was a leader at Bath Elementary School and Revere High School where he graduated in 1954. Community involvement was a way of life in the Moats family: Emerald served on the school board and was president of the Booster Club.

An early interest in sports led to varsity positions on Revere High's football, basketball and baseball teams. Moats' liking for baseball carried over into his undergraduate years at the College of Wooster where he was a star pitcher with an excellent batting average.

It was at Wooster that he met Barbara Stockard and they were married during Moats' years in medical school at the Ohio State University. Following internship and residency in family practice at Akron City Hospital, Dr. Moats came back to Bath in the mid-sixties to practice with Dr. John Schlemmer. By then his family included daughter Melissa and sons Eric and Andrew and the Moats eventually settled on Martadale Drive.

During the Vietnam War years of 1966 through 1968, Dr. Moats served as brigade surgeon with the Third Brigade, 25th Infantry Division. Part of his tour was in the battle zone and he received the Bronze Star for meritorious service.

During the 1970's, Moats continued practicing family medicine with John Schlemmer and later with Dr. James Grow. Team physician as a volunteer for Revere High School since the 1960's, he became increasingly interested in the growing specialty of sports injuries.

In 1983, Moats left private practice to head the Sports Medicine of Akron Children's hospital at the same time he became director of the Physical Fitness Testing Center of Akron City Hospital. In 1988, he became Medical Director of Akron City Hospital Sports Medicine Specialists. Both the Fitness and Sports Medicine Centers are currently located in the City Hospital Center on East Cuyahoga Falls Avenue.

During the Citizen of the Year program, Revere High Football Coach Joe Pappano cited Dr. Moats contribution to the high school sports program. In advance of the event, he commented to the Bath Country Journal, "there is no way to put into words what Bill Moats has meant to the teams all these years. He has a special knack of dealing with kids and takes decisions about who is able to play out of our hands. Moats is available on the phone all week, comes to practices and is always on the sidelines during the games. We have the best medical situation in Ohio. Coaches are easy to find but Moats can't be replaced."

Following Pappano's nomination, Moats was named one of six outstanding team physicians in Ohio in 1989.

Pappano also discussed Moats' active participation in the core group that took leadership in financing and building the fieldhouse at the high school in the late seventies. Several years of hard work were spent raising funds to pay off construction costs for the building which has proved an invaluable base for the high school's athletic programs.

Fire Chief Larry Hershey outlined for us the establishment of the local fire and rescue squad's outstanding mobile coronary care unit.

"Bill Moats was instrumental in our acquisition of a defibrilator and he took the responsibility of getting our men trained to use it in the days before standards for paramedics were set," Hershey said.

Dr. Moats professional accomplishments are many. He is a Fellow of the American College of Sports Medicine, an advisory member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and a Diplomate of the American Board of Family Practice. He is an active member of the Joint Advisory Committee on Sports Medicine of the Ohio State Medical Association, Ohio High School Athletic Association and the Ohio State Trainers Association. He serves as team physician for the Canton-Akron Indians, the class AA professional baseball affiliate of the Cleveland Indians.

Dr. Bill Moats is a positive force in the life of our community. His integrity and willingness to share his abilities are invaluable contributions to Bath Township.

Revere Alumni Hall of Fame

The Revere High School Alumni Hall of Fame was created in 1992 under the leadership of Bill Holko (RHS Principal) to honor Revere High School graduates who have distinguished themselves. Nominations are submitted to the HOF Selection Committee through the end of February for consideration of induction in the spring (at the commencement ceremony).

Dr. William E. Moats is a 1954 RHS graduate. He was a tremendous athlete at Revere who earned 11 letters during his career (basketball-4, football-3, baseball-3, track-1). He then attended Wooster College where he was a four year letter winner as a member of the baseball team. He served as the football team physician from 1963-1999. He was active in the Booster Club including serving as its president at one time. He is a member of the school's hall of fame (1992) and had the field house named in his honor (2000) for all of his contributions to Revere!

Name: Bill Moats Class: 1954 Sport(s): Baseball, Football, Basketball, Track

Current Occupation: Physician

Current City of Residence: Copley, Ohio

Family: Wife Barbara (55-Years) and Children Eric (RHS '80), Andy (RHS '82) and Melissa (RHS '83)

Hobbies/Interests: Golf and Gardening

What do you miss most about RHS?: "A teacher—Evelyn Bruner"

Advice to Current Revere Athletes: "Be the best you can be! Athletics can be a wonderful stepping stone in your life, no matter what you pursue!"

Notes: "I am totally amazed to receive this honor as I look back at all the great athletes that graduated from RHS. Coach Frank "Chichi" DiNapoli played a major role in my progress as an athlete at Revere. Thanks to the HOF Committee for electing me to the first class!"

Revere Athletic Facilities: William E. Moats Field House

When a bond issue that included the field hose was defeated in November 1978, the Revere Booster Club decided to build it themselves. Under the leadership and work of club president Dr. William Moats, they worked to raise over $250,000. A majority of this was done through five major donations of $25,000 (Mr. Russell Dancey, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hissong, Mr. Stanley Lojeck, and two anonymous donors). The booster club then appealed to the community for smaller donations—170 different local families, businesses, and organizations contributed to the project! As the results were promising; Dr. Moats, Reno Alessio, Dr. Alfred Magoline, Dr. John Weingart, and Dr. Thomas Kelly went to the bank and signed a note for the remaining amount needed with an interest rate at about seven percent. With Reno Alessio donating his time as the construction manager and the actual construction was done at a charitable cost by the Earnest Alessio Construction Company, the project was ready to begin.

On May 30, 1979 a groundbreaking ceremony was held for the new Revere Field House, work was complete on it by the Fall, and it was officially dedicated on October, 18, 1979. The new field house provided onsite locker rooms, heated concession stand, and permanent restrooms to the stadium.

With the state-of-the-art field house complete and being occupied, a financial crisis occurred for those that had signed for the bank loan. In the early 80s, the interest rates skyrocketed to 20 percent and the interest accumulated on the loan far beyond what the committee could raise. In order to repay the loan, the Revere Booster Club held their first Reverse Raffle, with a car donated by Bigelow Chevrolet as the grand prize.

In 1995, the field house received an addition—included a new football/baseball locker room, a new concession stand, expanded weight room, and a new trainers room.

In 2000, the field house was rededicated and named after Dr. William E. Moats. The honor was bestowed upon Dr. Moats after his longtime presence in the district—former standout athlete (football, basketball, baseball, and track), former Revere Booster Club President, and longtime team physician.

As an athlete, the 5'10 and 145 pound Bill "Willy" Moats earned one letter in track, three letters in football and baseball, and four letters in basketball before graduating in 1954. He attended Wooster College where he was a four year letterwinner (1955-1958) as a member of the baseball team. Dr. Moats served as a team physician from 1963 To 1999 In addition, he has been affiliated with Summa Health System since 1964. He has spoken and researched intensively on the topic of Sports Medicine. He also has served as the Medical Director of Akron City Hospital Sports Medicine, the Ohio Ballet, and for the Akron RoadRunner Marathon.

Dr. Moats addresses community and student supporters just before groundbreaking ceremony.

First digs go to Board President Dr. Keiper, Mr. Lojek, and Mr. Alessio.

Dr. Moats, serving as team physician, looks on during a game in 1983.

Good Morning

Nashville hosts reunion

• Revere's '52-'57 schoolmates are invited on trip. Other gatherings include 60th anniversaries, more

Revere High's class of 1954 has been meeting every five years. For the 40th anniversary, members decided to do something different.

They will gather at the Marriott Hotel at the airport in Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 16-18.

"We offered four different choices and Nashville got the most votes," explained Donna Sackett Haury.

Revere schoolmates from 1952 through 1957 are being invited. Contacts are Edna Haslem Larson of Richfield at 659-4210 or Mrs. Haury at 923-6555. The 1954 class numbered 42.
