

PA BULLYING PREVENTION Consultation Line 866-716-0424

The Pennsylvania Bullying Prevention Consultation Line is a toll free number available to school staff, students and parents across the commonwealth.

The Consultation Line offers discussion of effective strategies and resources available to deal with school-based bullying. Messages can be left 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and will be returned Monday-Friday during normal business hours.

For more bullying prevention information, please visit the PA Department of Education website.
