The background of the poster is a dense, textured wall of dark brown wooden planks of various sizes and orientations, creating a rustic, cabin-like atmosphere. The title 'PETER AND THE STAR CATCHER' is prominently displayed in the center. The letters are made of light-colored wood, possibly pine, and are cut into thick, three-dimensional block letters. The word 'PETER' is on the first line, 'AND THE' is on the second line, 'STAR' is on the third line, and 'CATCHER' is on the fourth line. The letter 'A' in 'AND' is a vibrant orange-red color, while the other letters are a natural light wood tone. The star in 'STAR' is a five-pointed star shape, also made of light wood, and is positioned between the 'S' and 'A' of 'STAR'. The lighting is soft, casting gentle shadows behind the letters, which emphasizes their three-dimensional quality. The overall composition is simple yet visually appealing, with the natural textures of the wood providing a rich, organic backdrop for the title.

A Note from the Directors:

Welcome to a world where imagination takes flight, and the magic of storytelling knows no bounds. Peter and the Starcatcher isn't just a play; it's a prelude to the timeless tale of Peter Pan, the boy who never grew up. It is a whimsical journey that unravels the mysteries of what happened before Neverland's most celebrated hero ever took flight.

Peter and the Starcatcher is unique in its stylistic use of the Story Theatre technique, where a dynamic ensemble of actors dons multiple hats (and hooks!) throughout the show to tell the tale. It's not just a play; it's a collaborative dance with your imagination, inviting you to join us in the wondrous act of creation.

As you settle into your seats, prepare to be more than mere spectators. You are co-creators, fellow adventurers on this fantastical voyage. Our stage is a canvas, and together we'll paint scenes that defy the ordinary and transport you into a world where dreams take shape.

"To have faith is to have wings," echoes one of our characters, and we extend that invitation to you. We're not asking you to just believe; we're asking you to spread your wings and soar alongside us. And here's a secret for those who still believe in the magic of fairy tales – when the moment is right, let the sound of your applause be the echo of your belief. As Tinker Bell once said, "If you believe in fairies, clap your hands!" So, clap with all your heart, and let the magic unfold.

Get ready to fly, for in the realm of Peter and the Starcatcher, the stage is set, the story awaits, and the magic is about to begin.

Enjoy!
