

MOTHER SETON SCHOOL

June 2023 Alumni News

Isabella Alley '15

Isabella attended Quinnipiac University in Connecticut and participated in their Business 3+1 program. She graduated summa cum laude in 2022 with her Bachelor's in Human Resources with minors in Finance and Accounting and recently received her MBA with a concentration in Human Resources. She has accepted a position with Great Wolf Lodges and will participate in their Human Resources Leadership program.

Elizabeth Buchheister '15

Elizabeth recently graduated from The Ailey School in New York City and will continue to live and dance there.

As part of our third-grade language arts curriculum, students read a biography about Mr. Alvin Ailey, founder of The Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater. After graduation, Elizabeth visited the third grade to speak about Mr. Ailey, The Ailey School, and talk about what it's like to live in New York City.

MOTHER SETON SCHOOL

June 2023 Alumni News

Hannah Hartness '15

Hannah graduated from Penn State's College of Agricultural Sciences with a Bachelor of Science in Agriculture Business Management with a specialty in Animal Science/Dairy and Beef Management and a Minor in Agronomy/Field and Forage Crop Management. Hannah will join the Hooper, Inc team, deciding on where to attend graduate school, and is working on Hartness Agri-Services, LLC.

Caroline Mullineaux '15

Caroline graduated magna cum laude from St. Vincent College where she majored in Health Science. She also received an academic award for having the highest GPA in her major. She will begin at Chatham University in the fall to get her Doctorate in Physical Therapy.

MOTHER SETON SCHOOL

June 2023 Alumni News

Jameson Doll '19

Jameson graduated from Catoctin and will be attending Greensboro College in the fall. He will be majoring in kinesiology and playing lacrosse.

Grant Kelly (Lacrosse), Jameson Doll (Lacrosse), and Nathan Kovalcik (Wrestling) after signing with their respective colleges on Commitment Day.

Brendan Guinan '19

Brendan graduated from Saint John's Catholic Prep with High Honors and was part of the first class to complete the AOPA "You Can Fly" STEM program. He was in the National Honor Society, Environmental Club and Maker Space Club. He was also a Student Ambassador and member of the Science Olympiad team. He was captain of the Cross Country, Indoor Track, and Track and Field teams, for which he has previously been named MVP and won the Senior Award.

Brendan will be attending Lafayette College in the fall where he will major in Integrative Robotics Engineering. He received the Pierce Award and the Loretta C. Gilbert Scholarship.

MOTHER SETON SCHOOL

June 2023 Alumni News

Helen Hochschild '19

Helen graduated from Catoctin where she was a “gold scholar” and earned the Maryland Seal of Biliteracy. She will be attending the University of Navarre in Pamplona, Spain where she is considering studying architecture and philosophy.

Jayden Joseph '19

Jayden graduated Urbana High School with Highest Honors, a member of the National Honor Society and a Maryland Scholar. Jayden has enlisted in the United States Army, where he will study Cybersecurity and Technology.

MOTHER SETON SCHOOL

June 2023 Alumni News

Grant Kelly '19

Grant graduated from Catoctin and will be attending Bridgewater College in the fall. He will be majoring in Biology and playing lacrosse.

Nathan Kovalcik '19

Nathan graduated from Catoctin High with Highest Honors. He was an active member in The National Honor Society, Mu alpha theta, and English honor Society. Nathan was awarded the Catoctin High School "Helping Hands Award" – a character award given out by the guidance office.

Nathan was a three-year captain for the football team, and a two-year captain for the wrestling team. In addition to succeeding in the classroom, Nathan had an amazing senior year as a student-athlete. One most notable memory was when Nathan placed first in the County Wrestling Tournament. He also won the prestigious 2023 Fred Burgee Outstanding Upper Weight Wrestler award – this was the 2nd outstanding wrestling award he received his senior year. He also placed 5th at the State wrestling tournament, qualified for the Eastern National Wrestling tournament.

In the Fall Nathan will continue his education and study civil engineering, as well as wrestle, at Messiah University. In addition to a generous merit scholarship from Messiah, Nathan was awarded a scholarship from the Washington County Wrestling Officials Association.

MOTHER SETON SCHOOL

June 2023 Alumni News

Edward "EJ" Lowry, Jr. '19

EJ graduated from St. John's Catholic Prep and will be attending Stevenson University Fall 2023 where he will be playing baseball and majoring in Business Administration and Finance.

EJ on Signing Day with his sisters, Lia (MSS'24), Gianna (MSS'21), Ella (MSS'20).

Braden Manning '19

Braden graduated from Gettysburg High School and will be attending Potomac State College playing baseball and majoring in business.

Layla Metts '19

Layla graduated from Gettysburg High School and will be attending Virginia Tech and majoring in Animal and Poultry Sciences.

MOTHER SETON SCHOOL

June 2023 Alumni News

Mackenzie Orndorff '19

Mackenzie graduated from Catoclin and will be attending Mount St. Mary's University and majoring in Health Sciences.

Makena Sickeri '19

Makena graduated from Littlestown High School and will be attending Indiana University of Pennsylvania and majoring in Exploratory Health to become an Ultrasound Technician.

Kim Stanley '19

Kim graduated from Mother of Divine Grace while also attending classes at the Mount. She will continue studying at the Mount in the fall and will be majoring in Cyber Security.

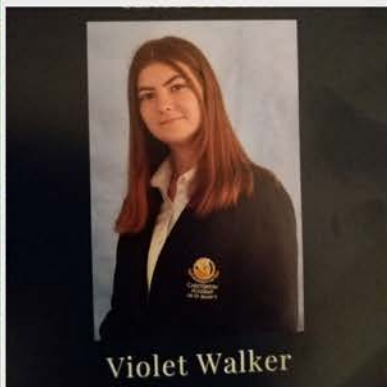

MOTHER SETON SCHOOL

June 2023 Alumni News

Beckett Tayler '19

Beckett graduated from Governor Thomas Johnson High School with highest honors, earning the Governor's Merit Award for placing in the top 5th percent of his class. He also earned accolades as an AP Scholar (taking at least four AP or college-level courses), Maryland Scholar, three Varsity letters (Football, Lacrosse, Cross Country), and three Varsity pins (multiple years in Lacrosse and Cross Country). He served as President of the Robotics club and co-captain of the Lacrosse team. In addition to his high school diploma, he completed the Carpentry program at the Career and Technology Center and is credentialed with the National Center for Construction Education and Research. He also graduated with OSHA 10, forklift, and MEWP (Mobile Elevating Work Platforms) certifications.

Beckett will be furthering his career in the Carpentry trade with the Stewards Independent Placements Program at the National Park Service. He will be working out of the Historic Preservation Training Center in Frederick, MD as part of the Build Up Technical Internship Program performing conservancy and restoration projects alongside lands NPS and park planning staff.

Violet Walker

Violet Walker '19

Violet Walker graduated from the Chesterton Academy of St. Mary's and will be attending Christendom College in the fall and will be majoring in Philosophy/Theology.