WE ARE ART

WHAT IS CULTUVUE?

---

Cultuvue (pronounced: cul-tu-vue) is a non-profit organization that is a free community-based initiative of KGI. For the past 3 years, Cultuvue has already successfully organized and curated approximately 300 portraits and works of art. Cultuvue is a photography exhibition of artistic, creative expression of black culture, utilizing photographic, interactive, and educational components. Our vision is to illuminate the vibrancy, diversity, and resilience of Black heritage while inspiring and uniting communities worldwide.

PHOTO EXHIBITION

KENNETH GRANT INZPIRATIONS

GALLERY

The image shows the exterior of a modern commercial building. The building has a light beige or tan facade with large glass windows and doors. A dark grey, modern-looking entrance canopy covers the main entrance. The number '240' is mounted on the upper part of the building's facade. The sky is blue with some white clouds. In the foreground, there are some dark, rectangular objects that appear to be trash bins or planters.

EDUCATION

Community Exchange Series

Host 4 sessions of speakers to educate attendees about issues in the African American community

COLLABORATIVE ART

Different attendees had the opportunity to creatively decorate an individual tile, when united with the entirety of other attendees' tiles, would form a beautiful, eclectic work of art.

CLASS TOURS

The exposure of the next generation through touring of exhibit. The tours were conducted during off hours. Will build upon this feature within the Volusia County School District.
