Megan has worked as a school psychologist for 3 years. She holds a B.A. in Psychology with a minor in Global Public Health and graduated from the University of Montana with her M.A. in School Psychology and Specialist in School Psychology degrees.

Megan has also worked in other education areas such as disability research for rural communities and college readiness programs through AmeriCorps.

Outside of school, Megan enjoys staying active, reading books, and traveling when there is time. Her favorite part of being a School Psychologist includes working with students, staff, and families to support student success.
