

McGraw Has Found The Perfect Retirement At Joyner

TUPELO, Miss. — John “Brad” McGraw has made his return to the Tupelo Public School District and is currently in his first year at Joyner. He got his start with TPSD more than 10 years ago, when he spent two years in the warehouse at Fillmore.

McGraw is originally from Houston, Texas, but moved to Tupelo in 1972. He attended both ICC and Ole Miss, keeping him local to Mississippi.

“He has been a wonderful addition to our Joyner team this year,” principal Kim Foster said. “He is our data entry clerk but serves in so many capacities to help our students best thrive in the course of their school day. He's one of the first faces and greetings our students & staff receive in the main building each morning & for many he's one of the most faithful to send our students and staff off with a smile each afternoon.”

McGraw loves working at Joyner as a data clerk and enjoys getting to see the people he works with each day. He says one of the best parts of working at Joyner is “being located in the Joyner neighborhood and getting to see the sense of community with how much the neighborhood supports the school.”

This week’s TPSD Staff Spotlight, sponsored by Sunny 93.3 and Buffalo Wild Wings, is John McGraw of Joyner Elementary.
