Principal Report from Kate

- Equity Committee gave the Equity Survey. Asked us to review the survey and identify areas of improvement.
 - The Equity team (Kate and 3 teachers) will review the six “disagree” responses and ask the faculty to give us recommendations.
- School report cards are now available and will be shared with the faculty on Monday.
 - Clayton generally does well in the areas of achievement and growth.
 - Encourage everyone to go to the website to review the 15 page document.
 - Review page 12 for information regarding English Learners.
 - Designation for this category is that English is not their first language.
 - Students that are at a higher level
- Dress code feedback
 - Four emails from parents.
 - Nov. will be the month that we survey the students. In Dec. we will update this group.
- What’s going on this week:
 - Red Ribbon week.
 - Fun Run tomorrow.
 - Check our Instagram feed for a fun surprise!

PTA Report from Lauren

- Fun Run
 - We still need volunteers.
- Baskets, Thanksgiving dinners and Holiday boxes
 - Still working on the Holiday Boxes.
- Fundraiser ended with $16,900; our goal was $15,000.
 - Aimee suggested donating our excess funds could be donated to another school that is in need.

SIC Report from Anna

- On schedule to meet our goals for the month.
- We are over staffed; we are aware of this and there will be changes coming down the pipe in the future.
- Literacy program will continue with the current guidelines.
- Would like feedback from the faculty on meeting schedules to make sure that there is an “all hands” approach moving forward.
- Language Arts Studies block will continue. Extending this to all levels.
- Reminder: The question about the dress code (Hoods being worn by students in classrooms) needs to continue to be on agenda for SCC.

Counselors Report from Gina

- Counselors are continuing to meet with 8th grade students and parents/guardians for their PCCR (Plan for College and Career Readiness). We hope to have these completed by mid-December.
- SOS (Signs of Suicide) lesson in 7th grade Health class will be in November. Date TBD.
- Attendance (MTSS Team):
 - Letters are going home to students with chronic absences and tardies.
 - Cougar Cards are being given to students with regular attendance (16 period absences or less and 5 or fewer tardies) for term 1.
 - Positive Attendance Messaging going home to families in weekly newsletter from Principal Arch.
- Small Groups:
 - Social Skills group is well underway.
 - Voices group will be finishing up in early December. We will run another VOICES group in the spring.
 - We will be starting a Grief Group in early December.

Updates from Adrian

- SCC will vote on the amendment to the dress code at the December 7 SCC meeting. A vote was taken to institute the following requirements for voting at that meeting: Must attend meeting in person or by zoom, must be a member of SCC and have attended a SCC meeting in the current school year.

Other from Aimee

- Thank you for previous action on period products and gender-neutral restrooms.
- Training opportunities for members of SCC are in the minutes from the October meeting. You can watch a useful 45-minute training video from Utah State School Board here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zIzupcXDiGk>
