IX. Items for Discussion:

- A. Discuss current pupil/teacher ratio of all schools.

Chairman Miller stated he request this item be placed on the agenda and asked if the system was in compliance. Board member Hill asked Director Poston if everyone was set in their classes. Director Poston responded yes and that our system was in compliance and our system is up 108 students from last year.

- X. Discuss Legal Matters. Nothing at this time.

XI. Recognize School Board Members

Board member Lawson stated he had spoken with the principal at Jacksboro Middle School and he was concerned about help in the office area. Someone is working 20 hours per week and Mr. Rutherford needs someone to work 28 hours per week. Director Poston will try to meet the need of the school. Board member Lawson also expressed concern regarding the air conditioning being out in the cafeteria at Jacksboro Elementary. Director Poston stated an emergency purchase has been made for the air conditioning units. Jacksboro Middle School has 10 units not functioning correct. Mr. Nidiffer stated units have been ordered. Board member Hill stated the board needed to hold a workshop regarding our policy manual. Chairman Miller stated he would get with Director Poston tomorrow and set a date for the workshop. Notice will be sent out tomorrow. All board members congratulated Mrs. Joan Crutchfield, staff, and students for all their dedication and hard work to accomplish being a reward school. Board member Rutherford informed Director Poston that LaFollette Elementary was in need of a new floor machine and lawn mower. Director Poston will speak with the principal of LaFollette Elementary of the need assessment of those items. Board member Wilson stated he has something on his heart and mind that he needed to say. Board member Wilson stated he felt he acted to fast on the Faye Comer issue and he expressed that he called Mrs. Comer and apologized to Mrs. Comer and felt if anyone deserved the job and the raise Mrs. Comer deserved it and wanted everyone to work together.

Meeting adjourned.

Donnie Poston
Director of Schools
