ALMA MATER

Hail Saint Xavier Alma Mater,
hail, we pledge our loyalty,
May thy sons be ever faithful,
ever true to thee.

Let thy praises roar,
thundering to the sky.
We will ever love thee,
dear Saint Xavier High.

Hail Saint Xavier Alma Mater,
hail, we respect thy legacy,
We are brothers called to serve in God's community.

Let our zeal explode;
let our spirit fly.
We are proud to be the men,
of Saint Xavier High.

Words and music by Brother Edward Joseph, CFX

Additional Lyrics by Rick Mattingly '68

CLASS OF 2023

There are many Classes of 2023, but there is only one 151.

Tradition is created over time. It's a vibrant collection of experiences passed from one generation to the next. For 151 years, Saint Xavier High School has presented a graduating class. Each is a tribute to the fine young men who entered bright-eyed and timid but emerged strong-willed and confident. They succeed. They give back. They carry on tradition.

The 151st Graduating Class proudly joins this strong Catholic tradition of excellence. They demonstrated resilience during a worldwide pandemic. While many challenges ensued during their high school careers, this class made the best of an imperfect situation and moved forward in the same spirit - with admirable perseverance - as the Xaverian Brothers who arrived in Louisville from Belgium in August 1854.

We commend these smart, talented, enthusiastic, and faith-filled young men for their patience, flexibility, and determination. We trust that God will continue to bestow His blessings as they strive to lead inspiring lives.

The 151st Graduating Class of Saint Xavier High School has many accomplishments as noted in this program. Listed below are a few of the highlights.

William C. Wolford '82

Will Wolford is a 1982 graduate of Saint Xavier High School, where he lettered four years in football and basketball, as well as three years in track and field. Will was First Team All-State in football and Honorable Mention All-State in basketball his senior year. He earned an athletic scholarship to Vanderbilt University, where he was First Team All SEC and Third Team All-American. Vanderbilt inducted him into its Athletics Hall of Fame in 2010.

In 1986, Will was a first-round draft pick of the Buffalo Bills. During his 13-year NFL career, he played seven years with the Buffalo Bills, three with the Indianapolis Colts, and three with the Pittsburgh Steelers. Will started in three Super Bowls, three Pro Bowls, was named to The All-Madden Team, and appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated in 1995. From 2002–2008, Will and Bob Valvano were co-hosts of “The Bob and Will Show,” which was broadcast locally on the radio. He served as a color analyst for the Indianapolis Colts Radio Network from 2007 until 2013.

Will's service at St. X began in 2000 when he joined the school's Board of Directors. In 2006, he co-chaired the Project X Campaign with fellow board member Ron Carmicle. Together they led, at the time, the school's largest comprehensive campaign, raising $29.1 million for scholarships, athletic facilities, and campus renovations. Will completed his board service in 2009 and celebrated the campaign's completion in 2010. Having such passion for the school, Will again stepped forward, and in 2013, he became the St. X football program's 17th head coach. He held that role for five years and saw one of his many elite players, Desmond Ridder, join the Atlanta Falcons in 2022.

Will's commitment to service extends beyond his alma mater. His involvement as a leader at Holy Trinity Catholic Church began in 1999 and included coaching various sports teams from 2000–2005. Will currently sits on the boards of the Louisville Metro Police Foundation and Kids Cancer Alliance. Will has also served as a leader at Boy Scouts of America's Lincoln Heritage Council and The Family Place.

For the last 14 years, Will has spent his second career working in the financial industry with St. X classmate Tom Perrone at Smith Barney, now known as Morgan Stanley. His wife, Mary Jude (Craven) Wolford is a career lawyer who was elected November 8, 2022, to the 15th Division District Court Judge in Jefferson County. The couple married in 1988 and has three adult daughters: Grace, married to Robby Boyle (St. X Class of 2003), Lauren, married to Tommy Tappel (Cincinnati St. X alumnus), and Bridget.
