Minutes

1) Month of the Military Child – April	Michael Lopez shared the goal is to highlight what life is like as a military child. Ideas shared: Decorate doors, or wall with photos of family members, or those who have served in the military, that we admire.	April 19 th – Purple Up Day. Plans to have a purple pen/ribbon wall, face painting, during lunch. Students in A4L and JROTC will help with event. May be receiving something from the D.O. to hand out.
2) WASC - debrief	Reviewed and discussed the Visiting Committee Report. Talked about areas where our school was found to be highly effective, and somewhat effective. How can we help students understand and communicate what standards classroom lesson plans	Discussed how our Action Plan addresses all or most of the items in this report. Kris Shields: How can I/we improve communication, to give accurate information about what is going on?
3) Vision/Mission/SLO rollout	As identified by us, we did one assignment. Where are we in terms of continuing? Teachers using that vocab. Posters with just the SLO's. Do you want Graphic Design class to make those?	Ky Tran – Leadership to write something. T-shirt – the past two years we handed out t-shirts and spent a big part of the budget. Shauna Carr – I only have the 'free' t-shirt. We went to an event and all kids wore their Vanden shirts. A4L Welcome Packet – want to include gear.

4) Viking Happenings Communication	When you think about communication going to staff, families, students. Kris-big items for the week emailed to all staff. Sunday bulletin goes to students, parents, and staff. Brent – things happening flyer	Staff I.D. Badge – we do have the OK to have staff wear a badge next year, however, this opens up the topic with TUTA bargaining. Would it be possible to add communication to our Action Plan? Motion to table this for next meeting. Ky Tran to have a conversation with Leadership class.
