1) Staff Development Application	Discussed application from Jacqueline Miller to attend training for Critical Thinking at Stanford University. Registration fee of $380 for teacher to attend this training.	Motion to approved: Brent Manuel, 2 nd by Marleen Hurst. All voted in favor to approve this application.
2) WASC - Self Study – Focus Group check in and next steps.	January 11 th – CPD (Also this is a program preview day for 8 th grade students from Golden West) January 20 th is our final additional minimum day for Focus Groups to meet. Substitute time is available or staff may submit a time sheet for their work on writing the self-study. Staff for each focus group needing time to finish writing. Dept. Chair meeting scheduled for Monday, January 9 th . A poll was emailed and majority voted to reschedule this meeting to Tuesday, January 10 th at 7:30 am (Library and Zoom)	We are going to ask I.T. to create a WASC email group for visiting team to have access to read our self-study report. We plan to begin writing our Action Plan based on our report which includes data from our staff and student LCPA surveys. That data will be available mid-January. In writing the report, be very precise, link things for evidence, less is more. Be honest.
