WOLFPACK ATHLETIC UPDATE: WINTER 2023 ISSUE 14

WRESTLING

The Livingston High Girls varsity girls wrestling team competed in a 6-way dual match last night (12/13.) The team finished 3-0, beating Pacheco High School 54-24, Los Banos High School 42-24, and Madera South High School 48-24. The three wins elevated the team's overall record to 4-0 for the season. The varsity boys' team is also off to a hot start with early dual wins over Hilmar, Pacheco, Los Banos, and Atwater. The wrestling program is back in action this Saturday with the varsity boys heading to Los Banos High while the JV boys and the varsity girls' teams head to Pacheco High. Pictured clockwise senior Esmeralda Nicolas, junior Katelynn Oswald and freshman Lexi Perez.

7TH ANNUAL, "LEADERS OF THE PACK", VARSITY/JV GIRLS BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

The Livingston High Girls Basketball program is hosting the 7th Annual "Leaders of the Pack" basketball tournament from Thursday (12/14) through Saturday (12/16). The tournament includes teams from Turlock, Sierra, Merced, Stagg, Stoneridge, Ceres, and Chavez. With a current record of 5-3, the Pack is being led by junior point guard, #10 Isabella Zazueta (pictured below). Zazueta, a returning varsity player, is averaging 15.5 points per game.
