

Milam's England Wins 2024 TPSD Spelling Bee

TUPELO, Miss. — A year ago, Micah England was the first participant ousted from the Tupelo Public School District's spelling bee.

Thursday, he was the last one standing.

A 6th-grader at Milam, England correctly spelled C-A-N-O-L-A in the seventh round to win the championship at the Church Street Elementary Auditorium.

"It feels pretty good," he said. "I finished last, last year. So, this was exciting."

Finishing second was Carson Jones of Tupelo Middle School, with Rankin's Jack Babb placing third.

All three will participate in the Lee County Spelling Bee on Jan. 18.
