XIII. Hearing of Citizens

Lori Fredericks, a resident of Park Ridge and a graduate of the class of 1983, approached the Board about renaming the High School Little Theater after James Gandolfini saying that he discovered his love of performing at Park Ridge. She stated that renaming the theater is a great way to honor the teachers as his (Jim’s) achievements are also theirs. Ms. Fredericks then handed the Board a petition signed by 370 residents. Keith Misciagna, the council liaison, commented that Ms. Fredericks has also approached the town to do something for Mr. Gandolfini, and they are considering renaming a street in his honor. He felt it would be a nice gesture if they could coordinate their event with anything the board does.

A resident asked several questions, including the number of students who graduated in 2013 (92) and what time the board meetings officially started (7 p.m. private, 8 p.m. public). He then asked questions about how the remediation and coaches’ box were being paid for. Mr. Wright responded that it was being paid for out of capital reserve.

XIV. Board Comments – New/Unfinished Business - None

XV. Adjournment 9:00 p.m.
