December 18, 2023

Good morning, Wausau School District Parents/Guardians:

It may not seem like it outside lately, but winter break is just days away!

As a reminder, there will not be any classes from December 25 through January 1. Classes will resume, as normal, on Tuesday, January 2.

Looking further into the winter months, here are a few other key dates to plan for:

- January 12: There are no PM elementary classes and no AM/PM Pre-K classes for recordkeeping purposes. This is also the end of the 2nd quarter.
- January 15: There are no classes district-wide so staff can participate in professional learning.
- February 19: There are no classes district-wide so staff can participate in professional learning.

As always, you can find the 2023-2024 calendar by clicking HERE. Should anything change with this calendar, we will reach out to you right away.

Thank you and have a great day!
