INSTRUCTION 2370

Homebound, Hospital and Home Instruction

A student absent from school for more than ten (10) consecutive days because of health or physical impairment will be provided the services of an appropriate staff member in the home or hospital. Appropriate educational services may begin as soon as eligibility has been established with a written statement from a licensed medical provider and a written parental or guardian request.

Such students shall be included in calculating the average daily attendance

Legal Reference: I.C. § 33-1001 Foundation Program - State Aid - Apportionment -

Definitions

I.C. § 33-1003A Calculation of Average Daily Attendance

Policy History:

Adopted on: November 9, 2009 Revised on: January 11, 2010 Reviewed on: March 8, 2023