

Our Story

At Cowern Elementary School we strive to create a safe, engaging, and welcoming community for all learners to grow academically, emotionally, and socially.

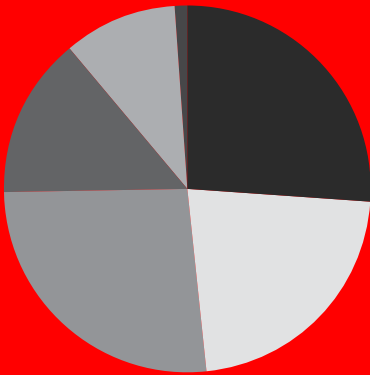

Cowern Elementary comprises a diverse group of learners. The cohesive partnership of staff, students, families, and the community strives to develop lifelong learners who are responsible and accountable for their personal and academic growth.

Cowern strives to create a safe and caring environment by recognizing and respecting individual differences while challenging students with meaningful learning experiences.
