

AGRISCIENCE TEACHING FARM

TCSS TUSCALOOSA COUNTY School System

extension
ALABAMA A&M & AUBURN UNIVERSITIES

Growing the future of agriculture
by providing hands-on experiences and state-of-the-art technology for students.

Student Experiences

LIVESTOCK

ORCHARD AND GARDENS

FORESTRY

POLLINATOR GARDEN

WELLS

PUMPKIN PATCH AND CORN MAZE

DRONES

DRIP IRRIGATION

Numbers to Know

19,000+

TCSS students who will benefit, plus thousands more from surrounding areas

70

Acres in North Tuscaloosa County, dedicated to the teaching farm

580,295

Alabama jobs in agriculture, forestry, and
related industries

$70.4
BILLION

Generated annually by Alabama's ag, forestry, and
related industries

The average age of Alabama's farmers is 58.
What will we do in 10 years if we don't invest in our youth today?

CONTACT US TO LEARN MORE

Leslie Abernathy
TCSS Coordinator of Development
labernathy@tcss.net

John Cameron
County Extension Coordinator
jwc0071@auburn.edu

Hannah Costanzo
TCSS Career Tech Administrator
hcostanzo@tcss.net

PARCEL LAYOUT

ADDITIONAL STUDENT OPPORTUNITIES & EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

- DUAL ENROLLMENT
- CREDENTIALING OPPORTUNITIES
- PARTNERSHIPS WITH COLLEGES & UNIVERSITIES
- FIELD TRIPS
- WELLS
- ROADS
- WATER CONSERVATION
- PLASTICULTURE
- FOOD PLOT DEMONSTRATION
- BUILDING/MULTI-USE AREA
- SOLAR POWER
- VETERINARY
- EXPERIENCES FOR ALL GRADE LEVELS