INSTRUCTION

Textbook Adoption

The following process will be used in adopting textbooks.

- A. A textbook selection committee of teachers and administrators will be formed to investigate and study textbook options. Staff members who participate in selecting and/or evaluating instructional materials shall be those most competent for the task because of their professional training, experience and assignments. The majority of each evaluation committee's members shall be teachers.

Individuals who participate in selecting and evaluating instructional materials shall have no financial interest in the materials being reviewed, recommended, or approved.

- B. The Superintendent, or designee, will meet with the textbook selection committee to listen to the strengths and weaknesses of the textbook choices.
- C. The Superintendent, or designee, will notify parents of the proposed adopted textbooks and display them at the school sites for review and comment by parents and the community. Materials will be available for parent review at appropriate school sites.
- D. The Superintendent will make a recommendation to the Board of Trustees for approval of the textbook.
