

Introducing the Trait of Conventions

Lesson Series 13

Trait Icon	p. 2
Reading Punctuation
Alphabet passages	pp. 3-4
'Fear Place' writing sample	p. 5
Editing
Writer Offices	p. 6

Conventions

Reading Punctuation

ABC?

DE.

FGH!

I?

JKL.

MN?

OPQ!

RST!

UV?

WX.

YZ!

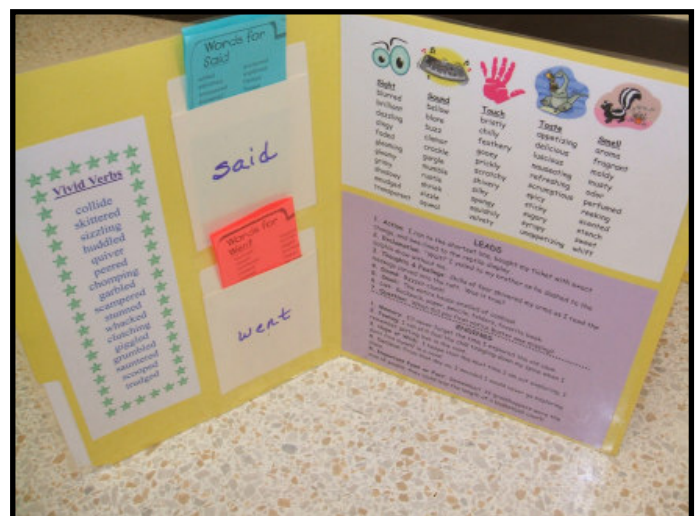

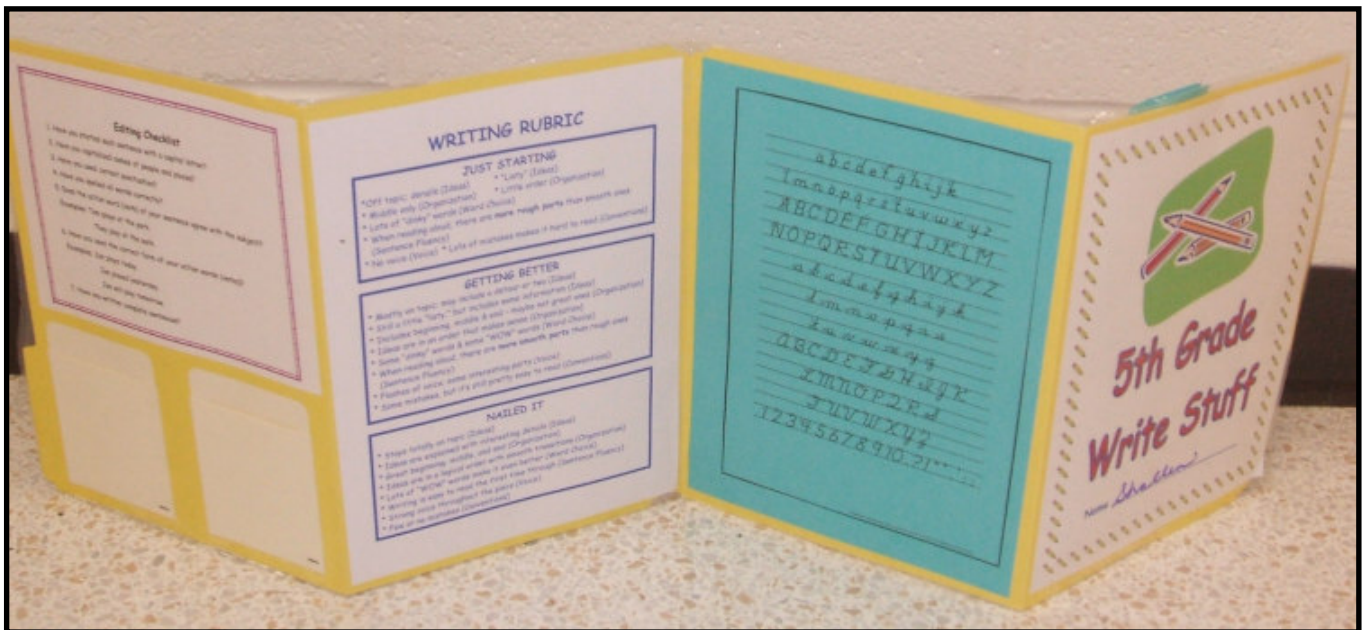

Reading Punctuation

A. BC and D. E? F? GHI...
J. K! L. MNO. PQ; RS. T?
UV? W. X, AND Y, Z.

"The Fear Place"

The Fear Place, or should I call it The Fear Thing?
My fear thing is storms. Yes, STORMS. I know some people enjoy storms and thinks there sooo cool, but that is NOT me!!! I am scared to death of storms. Every time there is a chance of storms I turn it on the weather channel. LITERALLY! My family doesn't like that I freak out about storms though. You could ask me just about anything involving weather and I could tell you. Face it I'm a WEATHER FREAK! Uhhuh! Anytime it storms I get scared and when I get scared I get nervous and when I get nervous.....I well you get the point, O.K. Well I guess when you hear the name "Brianna" you'll automatically think "Weather Freak". . . . O.K, maybe not but maybe!

Writer's Office

Create a reference tool of writing resources for your writers. Tape together and then laminate multiple file folders to create an accordion-folded "wall" or "office."

The panels might include information like:

- Editing checklist
- Writing rubric
- Cursive handwriting chart
- Frequently misspelled words
- 6-Traits definitions
- Synonyms for "said" and "went"
- Vivid verbs list
- Sensory description word list
- Examples of different leads and endings