PRESENTATIONS

Presentations

Mr. Luick and Mr. Galdo made the following presentations:

“Teachers of the Year”

Mr. Luick – “The first set of presentations is to a number of our faculty and staff who have been voted by their peers, recognized by the County as being the District’s Teachers of the Year. I’d like to introduce them now and present them with a certificate.”

Mr. Luick

| Oak Street School           | Kyle Ann Hoffman  |
| Spruce Street School        | Ann McTigue       |

Mr. Luick – These individuals as well as their colleagues throughout the county spent the day Friday being recognized by a number of not only county but state representatives as well and they have served the children of Lakewood extremely well over the years. Mrs. Landesberg is also the District’s Teacher of the Year. She is a teacher of art at the high school and represented the District both Thursday and Friday at two different presentation. Congratulations.”

Dr. Weintraub joined Mr. Luick in presenting the following certificates:

Dr. Weintraub – “We have a number of awards tonight. The first award is actually not from the Fine Arts Department. It is a combination of Fine Arts and Holocaust studies. Mrs. Landesberg presented this award at Brookdale.”

Dr. Weintraub – “Don’t forget June 10, it’s the District Art Show with over 1,000 works of art from children of all grades participating.”

Dr. Weintraub

Mr. Waters – “Mrs. Celli is not here this evening, but on behalf of the Ocean County Human Relations Commission, they would like to award the following students certificates for participating in the contest, the theme of which was “Stop the Hate and Building Bridges for a Brighter Tomorrow.” I just want to congratulate the students of Lakewood High School. They did a phenomenal job. They were to do either essays, posters or videos and they did extremely well. I also want to congratulate the teachers Toni Ponti, Sue Rosenberg, Ellen Landesberg and Brian Schauer. This was part of a service learning project and it’s a tribute to everyone in Lakewood. The winners are:

Mr. Waters

Poster: Angela Carlo

Katharine Wright
Essay: Kevin Bishop
Cristina Silva

Mrs. Sweet – “On behalf of the Human Relations Commission, Jim and I want to thank you and everyone of you should be so proud of what your students were able to produce and the insight they had and I know that one of the major scenes is not to be a bystander, but to learn to intervene as soon as you see any kind of incident whether it’s verbal or any other type of thing. To never let a victim stand alone, and you should be so proud of your school.”

Mr. Waters

Mr. Waters – “I’ve missed seeing you folks, I’ve been busy dealing with Veterans’ issues. We’re bringing a lot of young men and women back from Iraq and Afghanistan with some serious problems and I won’t make this a political discussion. When we hire young people that go through out school system that want to give back to the community and get involved in the school system whether they are teachers or administrators or other positions, I would like to see us have a policy or plan where we can keep their employment. Where we can look at ways, let’s say for example if I applied for a job and I didn’t meet all of the educational requirements. Let’s look at ways of getting that person back in school and helping that person so that we can keep that person employed. I look at this system and I am not trying to put the system down, but we have wasted so much money over the last I don’t know how many years and I can come back with specifics in terms of dealing with that kind of thing. But I think we have got to start looking at people helping people and helping our young people because I have talked about tracking students from eighth grade to graduation so we can look at how many students in the eighth grade this year wind up graduating four years from now. And I’ve brought this before the Board at least three times prior to this and we’ve done nothing about it. I want to know why kids are dropping out of school, why kids are disinterested, why kids are not being successful. Because when these young people are not successful, we are responsible for failing them. We can blame it on parental involvement. We have a different family structure in our society today than we had when I was a kid. We’ve got to adapt to the fact that that’s a reality. And I think if we are in the business of helping young people, not just coming to a meeting once a month and making decisions, then we need to look at those kind of structures. And I’ve talked about it in the past and I hate to keep continuing to talk about that, but those kind of things are really important and I’d like to be able to stand up here sometimes and look at the faces sitting up there and see an interest in some of the things that I’m saying. You can disagree with me, but when it comes to young people, and opportunities for young people, there shouldn’t be any disagreement. You can disagree with me when I criticize you. When I think that you are not doing what I think you are supposed to do, but that’s what we are supposed to do in the public. We’re not supposed to accept the status quo and to use a term that the man that I’m supporting for President, it’s time to turn the page and let’s look to the future. And the future to me is not you guys and girls. The future are these young people that just walked out of the room.”

MOTION TO APPROVE THE ENTIRE AGENDA

Motion To Approve Agenda

Mr. Luick – “I have one item that I would like to pull from the agenda, page 8 Item Q.”

Mr. Luick

Mr. Inzelbuch – “Through the Chair. At our last meeting we discussed there is going to be a new dress policy for the entire school district. The Board, in public, instructed the Superintendent to make sure that new policy was going to be advertised in the newspapers, posted in the buildings, set to the LEA. Was that accomplished?”

Mr. Inzelbuch

05/28/08

Mr. Luick – “Yes in one of the papers it will appear on the first, it’s only a monthly addition. Additionally, besides sending letters to PTO presidents, building administration and so on, we are at least four times over the course of the next month. I would like to put it in the papers once to go fully and additionally fliers going out to the families within the school district.”

Mr. Luick

Mr. Inzelbuch – “So in English, if I may, how are parents, guardians and significant others going to know that over the summer they will change their way of dress in our schools?”

Mr. Inzelbuch

Mr. Luick – “They will receive written notification, the first of which will go out within one week. There will one going out at the end of the school year with reports cards as well. There will be an ad put in the paper and posted on the web-site.”

Mr. Luick

Mr. Inzelbuch – “Through the Chair. So you can tell the public once again Mr. Luick, in summary what is this dress policy going to require?”

Mr. Inzelbuch

Mr. Luick – “In summary, this dress policy is going to require college shirts on the parts of males with khaki or docker type slacks that are either white, khaki, blue or black. It will be the same for the shirts for the young men and for the young women as well. They will be limited to the same colors.”

Mr. Luick

Mr. Inzelbuch – “Through the Chair. Is this a similar policy

Mr. Inzelbuch

to one that exists in Atlantic City schools?”

Mr. Luick – “It is very similar.” Mr. Luick

OLD BUSINESS

Old Bus.

Mrs. Miccio – “In the School Board News I read something that disturbed me very much and that is one of the Senators is moving a bill in the Assembly to go away with the three mile distance from school selling drugs and they want a jail sentence. And this one Senator sent it up and the Senate approved it and they are sending it now to the Assembly. You have to forgive me I left all my papers at home. I forgot the number of that Bill. I can call you tomorrow and let you know and I would like for the Board to take a stand against that Bill because if someone is standing by the school and is selling drugs and just giving them as gifts, what’s the punishment going to be. You can’t even go to jail for three months, a year or whatever. I think it is an outrageous thing to do and I would like the Board to take a very strong stand with that.”

Mrs. Miccio

Mr. Galdo – “Can you give us more information on this and I’ll make sure it gets on the agenda for Friday. We have a meeting on Friday. I’d be glad to put it on the agenda.”

Mr. Galdo

Mr. Inzelbuch – “Through the Chair. Could the Superintendent get us a copy of this Bill?”

Mr. Inzelbuch

Mr. Galdo – “And we’ll put it on the agenda for Friday and discuss it as same. I guarantee that will happen.”

Mr. Inzelbuch – “Welcome back Mr. Grunhut who had a quadruple bypass. He still has a heart though. You asked me Mr. Chairman to remind the public and the Board that we do have a hearing that is set to start at 8:15 p.m. so we need to go into closed session involving personnel. The Board may or may not come back to take action. So you need a motion to go into closed session for personnel and that you may or may not come back so if you come back. You can do that in one motion Mr. Chairman.”

Mr. Inzelbuch

Mr. Galdo – “I will accept a motion to that order. May I have a motion to go into executive session.”
