BROAD MARKETS

The U.S. economy continues to hold up better than many expected it would, as third quarter GDP is expected to be very strong. The labor market remains robust. The recent Artificial Intelligence boom has given a boost for business spending and consumers also have maintained a willingness to continue their spending as well, even it means taking on more debt to do so. As of this writing, the Atlanta Fed predicts that the third quarter saw 4.9% annualized GDP growth.

Yet, despite this surprising strength of the economy, the U.S. stock market has struggled as of late. This is likely due to stubborn inflation and more importantly the Fed's response to that inflation. Three months ago, many market observers thought that the current Fed rate might be the peak and that rates would be coming down soon. Now, the Fed has indicated that there could be one more increase in the near future and that rates may stay elevated for longer.

DOMESTIC EQUITY

The labor market continues to be strong. Per the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the U.S. economy added 236,000 net jobs during July, 227,000 in August and 336,000 in September. Yet employers continue to be pessimistic, although their confidence has been increasing as of late. The Institute for Supply Management Manufacturing PMI registered 49.0 in September. Readings below 50.0 represent a suggestion of future economic contraction. Note, however, that while still technically still indicating contraction, the Manufacturing PMI is now at its highest level since November 2022.

Consumers also remain relatively pessimistic. While the latest reading of University of Michigan Consumer Sentiment remains in an uptrend, registering 68.1 in September, this still represents a low reading by historical standards as it is well below the 100.0 level normalized in December 1964.

INTERNATIONAL EQUITY

Europe has struggled as of late. Eurozone Composite PMI, which is a measure of economic health for the manufacturing and services sectors, was 46.7 in August. Readings below 50.0 represent a suggestion of future economic contraction. This economic stagnation is expected to drag on well into next year. S&P currently expects eurozone GDP growth to be just 0.6% annualized for 2023 and 0.9% annualized in 2024.

Asia appears to be in better shape than Europe. Japan GDP grew at an annualized 6.0% rate in the second quarter. This follows 2.7% annualized growth in the first. Strong retail sales and elevated local consumer sentiment show that domestic consumption remains solid, and exports were up 3.2% in the second quarter.

FIXED INCOME

Bonds continue to perform poorly as interest rate expectations continue to increase. Specifically, longer-duration bond funds have seen the greatest losses since the Fed began to raise short-term rates in March 2022. The current Fed rate range now sits at 5.25 to 5.5%. The Fed expects that range to increase to 5.5 to 5.75% by year end before they eventually begin to cut rates in 2024 and beyond. Future inflation readings will ultimately drive that decision.

Markets have been slow to adjust to these new interest rate expectations. We can see this change in how the treasury yield curve has shifted over time. The relatively flat shape of the yield curve is similar to what it looked like 12 months ago, but rates are now higher at every point.

RECOMMENDATIONS and MONITORING DECISIONS

▶ Harbor Capital Appreciation Retirement

Ticker: HNACX

Fund Category: LG

Custom Decision (ongoing)

The Harbor Capital Appreciation fund was added to the Watch List at the end of Q4 2022 due to performance. In 2021, security selection in technology and communication services and a meaningful overweight allocation to consumer cyclical significantly detracted from performance. During 2022, security selection in technology and communication services and a meaningful overweight allocation to consumer cyclical, specifically Tesla Inc., hurt the most. Year-to-date, security selection in technology, financial services and health care along with a meaningful overweight allocation to consumer cyclical have significantly boosted performance. While the fund is now passing over the 1- and 5-year periods, the Investment Committee decided to extend the Watch List status. We will continue to monitor the fund.

Ticker: NRMGX

Fund Category: MG

Custom Decision (ongoing)

The Neuberger Berman Mid Cap Growth fund was added to the Watch List at the end of Q3 2023 due to performance. In 2022, an overweight allocation to technology dragged on relative performance as rising interest rates negatively impacted many pockets of the sector. An underweight allocation to and security selection in financials pulled down relative performance; the fund held SVB Financial Group, Signature Bank and First Republic Bank, all of which underperformed during the year. Year-to-date, security selection has broadly hurt the fund's relative performance; security selection in industrials, consumer cyclical, financials and energy weighed on performance the most; security selection in healthcare negatively impacted relative performance, largely during the third quarter. We will continue to monitor the fund.

▶ Carillon Scout Mid Cap R-6

Ticker: CSMUX

Fund Category: MB

Custom Decision (ongoing)

StanCorp Investment Advisers recommends removal of the Carillon Scout Mid Cap fund as of Q3 2023 due to performance. In 2019, security selection in technology, industrials and consumer cyclical pulled down performance. During 2021, the fund's routine growth tilt dragged on relative returns as value outperformed growth; security selection in financials and health care also detracted from performance. For 2022, security selection in communication services, consumer defensive and financials negatively impacted performance; an overweight allocation to communication services also hurt performance. Year-to-date, security selection in industrials, healthcare and consumer defensive pulled down performance; a position in SVB Financial Group also detracted from performance in the first quarter of the year. An overweight allocation to and security selection in energy also weighed on performance. The recommended replacement is Thrivent Mid Cap Stock due to its consistent performance and lower fund expense.

▶ PIMCO Total Return Instl

Ticker: PTRX

Fund Category: PI

Custom Decision (ongoing)

StanCorp Investment Advisers recommends removal of the PIMCO Total Return fund as of Q3 2023 due to performance. During 2019, the fund underperformed due to an underweight allocation to investment grade credit, as credit spreads tightened; the fund's lower than average duration dragged on relative performance as the risk on market environment led to yields broadly dropping throughout the year. In 2021, the fund underperformed its category by a small margin but outperformed its benchmark, the Bloomberg US Aggregate; short duration positioning in the UK and areas of non-domestic currency exposure detracted from relative performance. For 2022, the fund underperformed due to longer duration positioning in the U.S, largely in the first quarter of the year, as interest rates rose; the fund cut its duration overweight in late March to increase protection from further potential interest rate volatility. In the second half of the year, sector allocation within securitized assets, largely in non-agency mortgage-backed securities, also detracted from relative performance. Year-to-date, the fund underperformed due to its routine underweight to corporate credit, both investment-grade and high yield, as these areas outperformed other fixed income sectors; a short duration exposure to Japan also detracted from relative performance. The recommended replacement is Dodge & Cox Income for its strong alpha generation and low expense.

DISCLOSURES

FOR ONE-ON-ONE USE ONLY

Any recommendations in this report are made with respect only to funds for which StanCorp Investment Advisers, Inc., acts as an ERISA section 3(21) or 3(38) investment advisory fiduciary.

Information for funds for which StanCorp Investment Advisers is not acting as an investment advisory fiduciary is included in this Quarterly Monitoring Report as a courtesy, and its inclusion does not constitute investment advice by StanCorp Investment Advisers or its affiliates. StanCorp Investment Advisers is not responsible for making any recommendations with respect to the inclusion or removal of any investment option that it subadvises or is issued by an affiliate.

Actual results may differ from the performance shown herein. Average annual total return figures include changes in principal value, reinvested dividends, and capital gain distributions. Returns for periods less than one year are not annualized. For funds less than one year old, the Since Inception return figure is not annualized and represents an aggregate total return. Returns presented are net of underlying fund expenses and gross of any recordkeeping or administrative fees charged by Standard Retirement Services which generally include any fees, as applicable, for investment advisory services provided by StanCorp Investment Advisers. These fees would reduce returns. For example, if the gross annualized return for a mutual fund were 6.5 percent, 8.0 percent, and 7.5 percent, for the three-, five- and 10-year periods respectively, and the fees charged to the plan by The Standard were 1.0 percent, the net of fee return for the same periods would be 5.5 percent, 7.0 percent and 6.5 percent, respectively. Additional information about any fees charged by or payable to StanCorp Investment Advisers may be found in the Form ADV, Part 2A. For each investment, this overview also provides a benchmark which enables you to compare the performance of the investment with a broad based securities market index created by Morningstar. Broad based securities market indices may not always correlate well to an individual option. Investments cannot be made directly into an index.

Overall ratings are provided for the specific share class shown. Different share classes may have different ratings. Morningstar rankings represent a fund's total return rank relative to all funds that have the same category. The percentile ranking is based on the fund's total return percentile rank relative to all funds that have the same category for the same time period. The highest (most favorable) percentile rank is 1% and the lowest (least favorable) percentile rank is 100%. Morningstar rankings do not include the effect of sales charges.

Past performance does not guarantee future results. The value of an investment will vary so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth less than their original value. Fees and expenses will decrease investment returns so investors should take them into consideration prior to investing. Gross expense ratios represent the Total Annual Operating Expenses for the fund and do not reflect any fee waivers or reimbursements that may be in effect at the time the expenses are calculated. The net expense ratio reflects the expenses being charged by the fund at the time the expenses are calculated after taking into account any applicable waivers.

Asset allocation and diversification do not ensure a profit or protect against loss in declining financial markets.

Hypens appear in data columns to indicate that data is not available.

CUSIP, Net Expense Ratio and Turnover Ratio for Group Annuity investments pertain to the associated underlying mutual funds.

Some investments require a delayed import and will be available approximately 45 days after month end. Therefore, some of the data may be empty or outdated until it is available.

Peer groups are comprised of all of the funds that match an investment's category as classified by Morningstar. Morningstar Category identifies funds based on their actual investment styles as measured by their underlying portfolio holdings over a three-year period.

Based on Morningstar data, the system calculates data points on: Product History; peer group rankings for Calendar Year, Standard Deviation, Alpha, Treynor Ratio, Sharpe Ratio, and Expense Ratio; and all peer group rankings for money market funds.

Morningstar reports Manager Tenure at the fund portfolio level, while Product History is listed for the fund share class. As a result, more recent share classes may have much longer manager tenures than the reported Product History.

Net Assets reported in this report may be current as of the end of the month prior to the end of the quarter or the end of the last month of the quarter, depending on when net asset data was made available to Morningstar.

Alpha, Beta and R-squared statistics are calculated using the best-fit index as determined by Morningstar.

Morningstar groups mutual funds and exchange traded funds into different fund universes, although the same category types are used in both universes. Rankings are done within the separate universes, so that mutual funds are ranked with other mutual funds within the same category, and exchange traded funds are ranked with other exchange traded funds within the same category. As a result, a mutual fund and an exchange traded fund that share the same category are ranked relative to different peer groups.

Funds that focus on certain sectors may involve a greater degree of risk than broadly diversified funds. In addition to the risks associated with equity investing, investments in small and mid-cap companies and narrowly focused investments typically exhibit higher volatility and are less readily marketable than investments in larger companies or more diversified strategies. Similarly, international investing involves certain risks, such as currency fluctuations, economic instability, and political developments. These risks may be accentuated in emerging markets. Real estate investment funds are subject to special risks, such as tax law changes, and general economic conditions that may affect the value of the underlying real estate assets. Funds that invest in bonds are subject to certain risks including interest-rate risk, credit risk and inflation risk. Derivatives are subject to a number of risks, such as liquidity, interest rate, market, credit and management risk. A fund investing in a derivative instrument could lose more than the principal amount invested. The principal value and investment returns of mutual funds, money market funds and stocks are neither guaranteed nor insured by the U.S. Government. Indices are unmanaged, do not incur fees and cannot be invested in directly by an individual.

Employers and plan participants should carefully consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of the investment options offered under the retirement plan before investing. The prospectuses for the individual mutual funds in the group annuity contain this and other important information. Prospectuses may be obtained by calling 877.805.1127. Please read the prospectus carefully before investing. Investments are subject to market risk and fluctuate in value.

Standard Stable Asset Fund is a group annuity product issued by Standard Insurance Company. Amounts contributed and the fulfillment of any guarantees specified in the group annuity contract are insurance claims supported by the full faith and credit of Standard Insurance Company. Standard Stable Asset Fund is neither a mutual fund nor a bank product and is not insured by the FDIC or any other federal governmental agency. Standard Insurance Company provides and periodically resets a guaranteed crediting rate for Standard Stable Asset Fund. However, plan sponsors may instruct Standard Insurance Company to reduce the crediting rate in order for Standard Retirement Services to reduce certain administrative fees for plan-related services. Your plan's crediting rate may be lower than the guaranteed crediting rate once the reduction has been applied. Past interest rates are not indicative of future rates. Standard Stable Asset Fund may not be available in all states.

Information on Standard Stable Asset Fund may be obtained by contacting your Standard Insurance Company representative.

If the plan sponsor selects The Standard Stable Asset fund as the cash equivalent investment option for the plan and instructs Standard Insurance Company to reduce the crediting rate as described above, the Annualized Returns for the fund as shown in this report is net of that reduction.

Please refer to StanCorp Investment Advisers' Form ADV disclosure brochure for additional details. StanCorp Investment Advisers creates general asset allocation models for use when providing investment advisory services. The allocation percentages to the asset classes in each model are set and updated, as necessary, based on certain assumptions made about market conditions, the rate of return for each asset class, average internal fees and expenses of an investment option, etc. No specific investment option was considered when setting the allocation percentage of each asset class. Therefore, the allocation percentage for the cash/cash equivalent sleeve of each asset allocation model does not take into account any specific investment option selected or whether the plan sponsor has instructed the issuer to reduce any crediting rate. Consequently, investment results may vary among investors using the same asset allocation model and the same investment options.
