

Participation in Insurance Benefits
for Retired Employees

Employees who have retired and who wish to continue participation in the corporation group insurance policies may do so provided the retiree makes payments in accordance with collectively bargained agreements or benefit policies adopted by the board and provided the insurance carrier permits such persons to be covered under the provisions of the master policy.

Board Adopted: July 14, 1980
Revised: March 11, 1996