

Appraisal of Non-Certificated Personnel

The Board endorses the use of performance appraisals by the administration to evaluate employees. Evaluations may be used to:

1. determine merit increases;
2. assess an employee's strengths and weaknesses and;
3. support cause for disciplinary action.

The administration shall not be limited in their ability to develop standards of acceptable performance.

Board Adopted: July 14, 1980
Revised: January 12, 2009