WEST-MEC HOSTS FREE VIRTUAL EVENT FOR THE COMMUNITY

Surprise, Ariz. (August 13, 2020) Western Maricopa Education Center (West-MEC)--a public career technical education district--will host a free virtual event for residents to learn how the district supports its communities at the Northwest Campus in Surprise.

“Working here at West-MEC, I feel as though I am making a difference in the lives of future generations as they get to discover their passion and pursue careers that will help them live the American Dream” states Northwest Campus Administrator, Holly Medina.

Hear success stories from a West-MEC parent and alumnus, along with an informative session led by West-MEC staff. The virtual event culminates in a live Q&A session and optional tour of the newly completed Northwest Campus.
